LONDON, Dec. 15, 1:25 a. m.—The Servians after a fierce battle have reoccupied Belgrade, according to Nish dispatches to Reuter's Telegram Company.

The Austrians occupied Belgrade December 2, after having bombarded it since July 29, bombarding from batteries near Semlin and from monitors on the Danube. A large portion of the city is said to have been destroyed by the fire of the Austrian guns.

The capture of Belgrade was declared the most important movement from the Austrian side since the occupation of Kraguyevata, and

GREAT CHANCE FOR AMERICANS.

BIG BUSINESS COMING WITH AUSTRIA AND GERMANY AT CLOSE OF WAR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DETROIT, Dec. 14.—Charles Denby, United States Consul-General at Vienna, who left his post November 18 on leave of absence and arrived in Detroit yesterday, announced tonight that he had resigned from the consular service, to take charge of the export sales department of a local automobile company.

Mr. Denby spoke enthusiastically tonight of the opportunity which awaits American business in Europe at the end of the war. "While the people in Austria and Germany are confidently predicting ultimate victory," he said, "they also are predicting great changes in import and export trade after the war.

"They naturally will be prejudiced against dealing with the allies. But they must have raw materials as well as finished products and that is where our opportunity arises. The market will be there and it will be in an ultra-receptive mood."

SPAIN RATIFIES TREATY.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

MADRID (via Paris) Dec. 15, 12:20 a.m.—The Senate today ratified the London convention relative to safety at sea.

The international convention for safety at sea, which was framed at London, was largely the result of the Titanic disaster. One of its principal clauses calls for sufficient lifeboats aboard ships to handle all persons on board.

Frigidity.

SUN'S RAYS LIKE ICE.

Light, but no Heat, in the East.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 14.—Winter, nearly two months overdue, got down to business today when the temperature dropped three degrees below zero, accompanied by howling blasts. The only redeeming feature of the day was the bright sunshine after two weeks of darkness and fitful snow and rainstorms. One expatriated Californian, lonesome for the balmy atmosphere of Fulton, Cal., wrote a farewell note to his mother, wrapped his head in a towel saturated with chloroform and was later found dead. He registered at the Westminster Hotel as "Richard S. Niemann."

Two other men were so badly frozen that amputation of their legs will be necessary. Morris Kettleson, a watchman, was found early today where he had fallen during the night. His hands and feet must be amputated and he will probably die. Thomas Sihot, the other victim, was found frozen in a ditch, where he had fallen from exhaustion.

The area of the cold wave is very wide and is penetrating far into the South. Alabama has been swept by blizzards, while freezing temperatures are reported from Texas and across the Gulf Coast country to and including Florida. The cold wave struck Kansas, Northern Missouri, the Dakotas and Iowa yesterday and became more intense today. Two deaths are reported at Kansas City and there are many cases of frozen hands and feet.

In the Northwest tonight temperatures range from 4 to 20 below zero, but the weather is clear. In the East conditions approaching a blizzard prevail, interfering with railway and street car transportation and crippling wire service.

Official forecasters say the cold weather will continue indefinitely and is likely to become worse. They point to a temperature of 21 below in Nebraska and Iowa and below zero weather prevalent in every direction as proof that there is no hope of a shift in wind bringing in warmer weather. The frigidity has even spread beyond the Rocky Mountains, California, usually immune when the rest of the country is freezing, reporting the coldest weather of the season.

Navigation on the Great Lakes was brought to a sudden stop by stiff gales and blizzards and blinding snow. Some big boats are still out, but will probably tie up for the winter when they reach port.

Kansas City had 4 below last night, rising to 8 above today. Texas points report a maximum of 36, and a minimum of 12. Montgomery, Ala., had a maximum of 36, and a minimum of 30. Jacksonville, Fla., got to 44, and New Orleans to 40.

Snow is reported in Michigan, Ohio, North and South Dakota, New York, Pennsylvania and generally over Canada. The cold wave cannot be traced to any particular locality. It appears to have enveloped all the country from every direction and indications are it has arrived for an indefinite stay.

HEAVY DEMANDS ON THE CHARITIES

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Dec. 14.—Relief from the low temperatures which have prevailed in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Iowa and Texas was looked for tonight by the government weather observer here. Record temperatures were recorded at a number of places, and much suffering resulted.

At Leavenworth, Kan., one man was found dying from the cold in his hut. Temperatures ranging from 16 deg. below zero in Northern Missouri and Southern Iowa to 20 deg. above in the gulf region were reported. With temperatures of 17 deg. and 18 deg. above Fort Worth and Dallas, Tex., reported the coldest weather in ten years. Shreveport, La., with a temperature of 18 deg. above zero also reported a record.

Charitable organizations through this section have experienced heavy demands on their resources. In many of the districts churches and school buildings were thrown open for the homeless tonight.

THREE KINGS TO MEET.

Scandinavian Countries Are to Join Together for Protection.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Dec. 15, 3:26 a.m.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Daily News says that the systematic attempts on the part of Germany to force Sweden into the German camp has led the Stockholm Cabinet to consult with Denmark and Norway regarding a joint formula for guaranteeing their position and independence.

The coming conference is regarded as showing that excellent relations exist between the three Scandinavian countries and also as indicating their determination to maintain neutrality.

AMERICAN DOCTORS TO AID BELGIANS.

ORGANIZE TO HELP BROTHERS OF THEIR PROFESSION IN WAR-RIDDEN LAND.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—A movement was completed today for the formation of an organization of physicians, surgeons and pharmacists of the United States to relieve the 5000 Belgians of those professions, it was announced tonight at the headquarters of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium.

These united doctors and pharmacists will act nationally to provide food, clothing and medicines for the Belgians. The organization was inspired by the formation of a similar body among the noted surgeons of England.

Dr. Frank F. Simpson of Pittsburgh is treasurer of the new organization. Among those who already have identified themselves with the movement are Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn.; Dr. Franklin Martin of Chicago; Dr. William L. Rodman, president of the American Medical Association; Dr. J. M. Finney, president of the American College of Surgeons; Dr. George H. Simmons, editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, and Dr. Thomas L. Stedman, editor of the Medical Record.

GERMANS DEFEATED NORTH OF WARSAW.

PETROGRAD, Dec. 14.—(Via London.)—Reports reaching here today from the front state that the operations of Russian forces north of Warsaw, partial success of which was announced last week, have now resulted in a decisive victory, after having pierced the German front beyond Ciochanow and Przasnysz. The Russian success on this front, according to these advices, has been clinched by a wide swinging movement of the advancing Russian left on the main highway from Plock to Mlawa, concluding in a heavy cavalry engagement at Jurominetna, seven miles southeast of Mlawa.

Russian successes of this nature would have three important results. The immediate pressure north of Warsaw would be relieved and the German threat against the railroad lines leading east from the city would be arrested. Russian troops on the right of the Vistula River would be freed to seek a crossing and endanger the position of the left wing of the German army in the region of Lodz.

It is said here that the Russians will now be able to straighten their entire front, running to the Masurian lakes.

AUSTRIAN POLES READY FOR PEACE.

LEMBERG (Galicia) Dec. 14.—(Via London.)—M. Merunovitch, an influential member of the Polish delegation to the Austrian Parliament, has caused to be published in a Polish newspaper of Lemberg a request to Poles in court, diplomatic and government circles at Vienna, to exert all their influence toward obtaining an immediate conclusion of a separate peace agreement between Austria and Russia, without reference to Germany.

In his announcement M. Merunovitch states that it is the sacred duty of the Polish aristocracy to take this step, in view of the future interests of Austria and Poland. He expresses the opinion that the present time offers a favorable opportunity for the conclusion of peace with honor for Austria.

THREE KINGS MEET TO DISCUSS WAR.

COPENHAGEN (via London) Dec. 15, 1:59 a.m.—By invitation of King Gustav of Sweden, King Haakon of Norway and King Frederick of Denmark will visit him at Malmo, Southern Sweden, next Friday and Saturday.

The three Kings will be accompanied by their Ministers of Foreign Affairs and secretaries, and will discuss affairs of common interest which have arisen as a result of the war.

TURKS PURSUED BY THE RUSSIANS.

PETROGRAD (via London) Dec. 14.—An official communication issued by the Russian Army Staff of the Caucasus says:

"All day Friday fighting occurred on the front extending through the villages of Pyrusk, Asmer and Tutak, southeast of Erzerum. The enemy was everywhere repulsed and pursued beyond the Euphrates with severe losses."

ONE DAY OF GRACE.

Then, Eye for Eye With Mexico.

For Every Bullet that Lands in America One Cannon Ball in Return.

Wilson's Proposed Policy Toward Fighting Factions Made More Clear.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Although both Provisional President Gutierrez and Gen. Carranza assured the American government that their forces had been instructed to confine their fire to Mexican territory, nothing official had been received late today to indicate the receipt of such instructions by the respective commanders at Naco.

Officials here are unable to understand the delay in the delivery of the messages, copies of which have passed through American telegraph lines to Naco. In the meantime intermittent firing continues.

The general belief tonight was that President Wilson would wait at least another day, perhaps discussing the subject with his Cabinet tomorrow, and then, if the demands of the United States were not complied with, the threat of the Washington government to return with artillery fire any firing into American territory would be carried out. As yet, however, no further orders have been sent to Brig.-Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, in charge of the situation at Naco, Ari.

Administration officials attached no importance to the statement of Carranza that if the United States fired into Mexican territory it will be "an act of hostility." Some officials pointed out that the American government was inclined to regard shots from Mexicans into the United States in the same aspect.

In view of the urgent tone of the message from Provisional President Gutierrez to Gen. Maytorena, officials believed the latter would remove his troops and avoid complications. Should one of the two factions heed the warning of the United States, the need for defensive fire would, of course, be removed.

Secretary Bryan had received no further word tonight of the circumstances surrounding the killing of the two Americans at Cananea, but as soon as the responsibility for the occurrence is determined it is understood he will make demand for punishment of the guilty parties. The reports thus far received say they were killed by irresponsible bandits.

Rear-Admiral Howard, commanding the American squadron on the West Coast of Mexico, has learned through the cruiser Denver at Ensenada that a Carranza force of 1200 under Gen. Iturbe has taken La Paz, Lower California, and that quiet now prevails there.

The Brazilian Minister at Mexico City today reported that E. R. Jones of Los Angeles, Cal., vice-president of the Wells Fargo Express Company in Mexico, and G. A. O'Brien, general manager of the company in Mexico City, under detention there, have been released and furnished passports by the Minister of War, giving them full protection.

American Consul Simpich is seeking to release a British subject, H. Perry Meaker, imprisoned at Navajoa, Sonora, by Maytorena officials, charged with "transporting enemies of the State."

Mexican authorities have given assurances through Consul-General Hanna at Monterey that S. J. Boyle and others in San Antonio may send foodstuffs and supplies to needy persons in Tampico and vicinity, duty free, and that there will be no transportation charges over the government-controlled railroad.

CARRANZA HAS NEW PROTEST.

VERA CRUZ, Dec. 14.—Gen. Carranza is preparing a protest, supplemental to his recent note to the American government, against any action by American troops at Naco. He emphasized the fact that he would regard as hostile any attempt of the United States to interfere by force on the international boundary, where several Americans have been killed or wounded by Mexican bullets. Gen. Carranza already has denied, in behalf of his troops, any responsibility for the firing.

RAILROAD LINE CUT BY MEXICANS.

EL PASO (Tex.) Dec. 14.—The railway of the National Lines of Mexico was cut today between Juarez and Chihuahua City by the burning of a bridge. Former Federal troops under Gen. Ynez Salazar are believed to have been responsible. Salazar, who heads a new Mexican revolution, was reported as active between the lines of the Mexico Northwestern Railway and the Central Railway.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Dec. 15, 1:51 a.m.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Petrograd says the city is without water, owing to the blocking of the Neva River conduits by ice. Factories are shutting down, and the tea shops and bathhouses also are closing. The people are fearful that should fire break out great damage will result. This is the first time the conduits have been stopped by ice since 1893.

TO REPEAL PROHIBITION.

INITIATIVE PETITIONS ARE STARTED IN WASHINGTON.

New Bill, If Successful, Would be Paramount to the Present Law. Proponents Must Secure Thirty-two Thousand Signers Before January 2 or Movement Fails.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OLYMPIA (Wash.) Dec. 14.—A movement seeking virtually to repeal the prohibition law adopted at the November election was begun today when Ferdinand Schmitz, a wealthy resident of Seattle, filed with Secretary of State I. M. Howell a copy of a liquor bill he proposes submitting to the Legislature by initiation next month. A special election for submission of the bill to the voters is asked for November 2, 1915.

The bill would permit the operation of breweries and authorize the sale of their product; would allow hotels with more than fifty rooms, in incorporated cities, to sell liquors to their guests and to serve the same in their dining-rooms, restaurants and cafes and would authorize the public to buy for home consumption not less than twelve quarts or more than forty-eight quarts of alcoholic beverages.

The proposed law would become effective January 1, 1916. The same date as the new prohibition law. It is specified that this is not to be construed as an amendment to the "dry" law or any other statute, but is to be considered paramount to them all.

The proponents of the bill must get 32,000 signers to petitions between now and January 2, as petitions must be ready ten days before the Legislature convenes January 11.

TAKES OWN SON BACK TO PRISON.

KENTUCKY SHERIFF SURRENDERS BOY WHO IS WANTED FOR MURDER.

Father and son appeared before Gov. Ferris late today and waived hearing on extradition.

"It's pretty hard on a father to take his own son back to prison to await trial for murder, but the law is there," declared Sheriff Eggers. "Irons are unnecessary; son will return without trouble."

Young Eggers is wanted in Greenup for an alleged part he took in a fight in which a boy was killed. A brother of Ernest was engaged in a fight with a bigger boy, according to the father's story. Ernest came up and during the melee fired a shot, which passed through the body of his brother's opponent and killed a boy standing near.

RUSSIANS FORCE GERMANS BACK.

PETROGRAD, Dec. 14.—The General Staff of the Russian army has given out the following communication, under date of Sunday, December 13:

"Ther has been no engagement of importance on any of the fronts. In the region of Mlawa we continue to force back the German troops, who are in retreat.

"On the left wing of the River Vistula there has been no change. In the region of Mount Buekin, Austrian columns are coming down the northern slope of the Carpathians."

Arkansas Strike Situation to be Reported to the Department of Labor at Washington.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Dec. 14.—After a conference here with C. S. Keith, president of the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' Association Ethelbert Stewart, representing the Federal Department of Labor, who has spent almost a month in the Hartford Valley district of Arkansas, investigating the coal mining troubles there, announced tonight he had completed the work. He left for Washington, where he will report on his investigation.

Mr. Stewart reiterated his statement of last night, that there was no possibility of an early settlement of the strike.

None of the mines of the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' Association are involved in the Arkansas strike.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—Insurrectionary unrest is manifest in Cavite province. The military and naval authorities are taking the utmost precautions for the protection of the naval station. The constabulary admit that there is considerable excitement.

The cause of the unrest is believed to be the impending return of the insurrecto Gen. Richarte, a fugitive for sedition, from Hongkong, who has been selling commissions in the revolutionary army for the last two years, in which period scores of his followers have been arrested with documents in their possession.

PHILIPPINE BILL IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec 14.—Various amendments to the Philippine bill passed by the House at the last session were suggested today when the Senate insular committee began preliminary consideration of the measure with Brig.-Gen. Frank McIntyre, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, as first witness.

Gen. McIntyre merely reviewed the bill for committee, comparing it with the present law and telling of conditions in the islands. He said the department had a number of recommendations to submit for changes in the bill, but he did not appear either to urge or oppose its passage.

Senators Reed said that under the bill it will be possible for any nation, possibly Japan, to colonize in a way prejudicial to the United States, if the legislature so authorized, without Congress having power to intervene. General McIntyre replied that acts of the legislature in this respect would be subject to the veto power of the President.

Senator Weeks, urging specific limitations as to the amount of public domain lands which could be granted to any person or corporation, declared that large land grants were the basis of the trouble in Mexico.

Recommendations for alteration of the bill to be submitted by the War Department. Gen. McIntyre said, would include the striking out of the provision as to qualifications of electors.

FLAG OF REVOLT IN REIKIAVIK.

THE ICELANDERS DISSATISFIED WITH THE DEMANDS OF THE DANES.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 3.—As a result of disagreements over the proposed new constitution for Iceland, the provincial government of that island has resigned.

The provincial government declined to submit the bill for the new constitution to the King of Denmark for ratification on the ground that it could not agree with the King's demand that the Danish State Council should have the right to "discuss" the affairs of Iceland. The King thereupon refused to permit the flying of the special Icelandic flag until the differences were settled.

The resignation of the provincial government has been presented to the King, who will confer with various Icelandic politicians and endeavor to reach an agreement.

RED CROSS IS IN CHARGE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—American Red Cross mission workers in Belgrade are now in charge of practically all the hospital facilities of the Servian capital.

The American Minister at Bucharest, in telegraphic dispatches received by the Red Cross headquarters here tonight, reported that the general military hospital, the general civic hospital, a number of Servian doctors and druggists had been placed under the protection of Dr. Ryan, in charge of the Red Cross mission work in the capital.

A consignment of 2700 warm garments, contributed by Denver school children, the Red Cross was advised tonight, has been sent to New York for shipment to Europe.

COMMENT ON THE SITUATION.

The earlier reports of a severe Austrian defeat by the Serbs was partially borne out by unofficial advices last night that the Serbs had retaken their capital city, Belgrade. The fighting in Poland goes on apace. Poland in point of suffering and woe is another Belgium. With 400 cities and towns in ruins it is highly probable that new demands will soon be made on the patience and philanthropy of the neutrals everywhere. In the west, the French are "nibbling at the Germans," to quote a phrase from the London review of the war.

Berlin.

FORCE RUSSIANS TO FALL BACK.

German Campaign in Poland is Gaining Ground.

Eleven Thousand Prisoners Taken at Lowicz.

Czar's Army Assumes the Defensive Everywhere.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN (via The Hague to London) Dec. 14.—Dispatches from the southwestern war zone report that a violent artillery duel was in progress Sunday in Upper Alsace, apparently from an attempt of the French to advance in the direction of Altkirch. The firing lasted from 11 o'clock in the morning until late in the afternoon. The result of the fighting has not been reported.

The correspondent of the Zeitung am Mittag, with the Austrian general headquarters, telegraphs that the battle in Poland following the capture of Lodz, now is waging along a stationary front in that region. In West Galicia, the correspondent says, there have been tangible results to the Austro-German offensive, their success being shown in the withdrawal of Russian columns from the Carpathians to serve as reinforcements where they are most needed. The correspondent adds that the indication is that the next decisive step will be taken on the Vistula plains.

The official press bureau reports the following:

"The week-end finds no change of importance recorded in the west, and in the east only the evacuation of Lodz by the Russians, although there is reason to believe that the German attack has been gaining ground.

"Southwest of Cracow the Austrians still are repulsing all attacks and further to the south have succeeded in clearing a number of the Carpathian passes of the enemy.

"The position of the Germanic allies in Poland is generally considered favorable, an especially favorable point being the fact that the Russians appear to have assumed the defensive everywhere without the power or energy to assume an aggressive advance in any section.

"There have been no developments, so far as advices disclose, in the Servian operations.

"The German and Austrian bulletins issued Sunday combine to show that both armies are making progress against the Russians. While the German statement omits to say whether the capture of 11,000 prisoner and forty-three machine guns previously reported occurred in the region of Lodz or Lowicz or north of the Vistula, by the army which last week took Prasnysz, the Austrian statement renders it practically certain that it was north of Lowicz, where successful attacks continued upon the strongly-fortified Russian position.

"Austria further reports the defeat of the Russian southern wing on Saturday at Limanowa and the advance of Austrian forces over the Carpathian passes."

AVIATORS OVER GERMAN TOWN.

The Zeitung am Mittag publishes a dispatch today saying that hostile aviators flew over the city of Freiburg, in the Grand Duchy of Baden, at 3 p.m. of December 13, throwing bombs from their machines. One bomb hit a house, doing considerable damage, two others fell in Columbia Park among a crowd of promenaders and two girls were injured.

RUSSIANS FORCED TO RETREAT.

"In the fighting in Western Galicia, the southern wing of the Russian army was defeated on December 12 and forced to retreat. Pursuit of the Russians commenced. All attacks elsewhere along the battle front have broken down, as previously reported.

"Our forces which advanced across the Carpathians are now energetically continuing the pursuit of the enemy and there is constant fighting. Newy Sandec was occupied on December 12. We also re-entered Sgrybow, Gorlice and Zmigrod, Galicia. The Zemplin district is now completely clear of the enemy. Our troops are now in control of the passes in the mountains and the line formed by the valley of the River Suczawa in Bukowina.

"There was no fighting in Southern Poland yesterday.

"North of Lowicz our allies are successfully continuing their attack on the strongly-fortified positions of the Russians.

"The moving of strong hostile forces in the south necessitated the rearrangement of our Balkan army and the withdrawal of our right wing. This simple proceeding has been represented as a decided Servian success. Servian reports of our losses are immeasurably exaggerated."

Bavarian Mutiny Alleged.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 14.—A dispatch to the Handelsblad from Antwerp says reports are current in Antwerp of a mutiny on the part of the Bavarian troops garrisoning the city. While the story is not confirmed, it is a fact that the Bavarian Barracks have been closed to outsiders.

SERVIAN SHELL HITS A MONITOR.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

PETERWARDEIN (Hungary) Nov. 16.—A shell from a Servian gun hit the upper deck of the Austro-Hungarian river monitor Bodrog, smashed up things considerably in the galley, cut a steam pipe as if it had been made of cheese, then hit the iron floor and exploded, its contents breaking up whatever had remained intact in the galley. Five other shells came in rapid succession. One of them put a large dent in the armor well forward, three others did a similarly negligible amount of damage, but the fifth exploded against the outside of the crows' nest, broke the back of the lookout and smashed one of his legs.

Heedless of the heavy fire, two of the crew rushed up to the crows' nest and lowered the injured man with a rope. They were carrying him across the upper deck to a place of safety when Servian infantry on the bank fired a volley. Strange to say the rescuers escaped unhurt while the wounded man received two more wounds, a bullet in the arm and another in the leg. Meanwhile six others of the crew, which numbered about ninety, had been wounded.

JEWS FLEEING FROM GALICIA.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—One hundred and seventy thousand Jews have fled for refuge from Galicia to Vienna, according to a letter received here today from the Austrian Israelite alliance in Vienna, by the American Jewish Relief Committee.

"Galicia, as the field of military operations, had been cleared of almost the entire civil population," reads the letter.

"At the present time there are 170,000 Jewish fugitives from Galicia here of whom 70,000 are absolutely penniless. Furthermore 25,000 destitute Jewish fugitives have been placed in barracks in Moravia and 70,000 in Bohemia, where barracks are also being built. These 165,000 poor Jews are in pressing need."

LONDON, Dec. 14.—A telegram to Reuter's Telegram Company from Flushing says that the Dutch steamer Oranje Nassau has picked up two aviators in the North Sea. No details are yet available.

The aviators proved to be a British officer and his mechanician, who had been compelled to descend upon the sea when the motor of their seaplane became disabled.

At first they refused to leave their craft until they were assured they would not be interned in Holland, whither the Oranje Nassau was bound.

It was reported that the aviators had been flying over Belgium, where they dropped five bombs.

LEAN CHRISTMAS FOR THE SOLDIERS.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—The number of Christmas and New Year packages going forward for the French soldiers at the front is already so great that the military authorities have found it necessary to issue a note to the public suggesting to the families of soldiers that they reduce their gifts to a minimum.

The heavier parcels now require for their transportation no less than 100 freight cars a day, while the lighter-weight packages going by mail are averaging 220,000 daily.

IN QUEST OF A SPY.

WIRELESS HUNT IN ENGLAND.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONDON, Dec. 3.—At Cromer, on the Norfolk coast, the British government has fitted up a wireless station, which for weeks past has been trying to check up the whereabouts of a German sending station, believed to be not more than sixty miles away. Often after midnight this apparatus tries to interfere with the British station's sending. The enemy's outfit is thought to be concealed cleverly somewhere on land not far from Cromer, and a reward for its unmasking has been offered.

OFFICERS' CASUALTY LIST.

HIGH MORTALITY REPORTED.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The official officers' casualty list for the week ended November 30 was made public today. It shows that in these seven days the British forces on the continent lost seventy-nine officers killed and 141 wounded, and that thirty-three were reported missing. This gives a total of 253 for the week. The total of casualties of officers up to date is 3466 men.

DUCKS FAILURE AS WAR SPIES.

Servian Ingenuity Outdone by the Austrians.

Neat Trick is Discovered and Tables Turned.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

MITROVITZ (Croatia) Nov. 18.—Mitrovitz is a sort of frontier point of the Balkans. It was founded by the Romans and called Symrium for no good reason. It has a wide front on the Save River and many ducks. All this leads to a strange chapter in the operations against the Servian army and has to do with the end of the Serb Timok division of 17,000 men.

Carrier pigeons have played a prominent part in many wars. Many a beleaguered city has asked for relief through them. But the duck cannot be said heretofore to have served other military purposes than to gladden the stomachs of some foraging soldiers. When Servian spies at Austrian Mitrowitz needed a means that would convey certain military information of importance to the troops in Servian Mitrovitz, right across the broad and deep Save, they decided to employ ducks.

The ferry across the river had been destroyed. The banks of the river were carefully patrolled and watched by the Austro-Hungarians and how to get information to the other side was a problem over which the spies at Austrian Mitrovitz pondered long. The only creature that could show itself on the river was a duck. But ducks have a habit of remaining near their habitat and for this reason were not suited to the carrying of messages.

However, the Servians needed information on the strength of the Austro-Hungarian force in Austrian Mitrovitz, and since this force kept moving up and down the river—in and out of the city—it was desirable to have this information every day. So the spies decided on an ingenious scheme. Each duck to be seen on the river represented a company of Austro-Hungarian troops. When the ducks were east of the ferry it meant that the decrease or increase in number of Austro-Hungarians in Mitrovitz was due to the arrival of troops from, or departure to, the east. The same applied to ducks seen west of the ferry.

Thus if on a certain day, twenty-two ducks were seen west of the ferry by the Servian observers, but only fourteen in the same spot on the following day, it meant that eight companies had marched out of Mitrovitz in a westerly direction. Departures were announced in the morning and arrivals in the afternoon, this arrangement permitting an accurate system of field intelligence.

In some manner the Austro-Hungarians learned of the mission of the ducks and bought up every one they could find. Some of the officers favored the arrest of those Serbs who violently protested against the transfer of ownership, but the officer in command thought this would ruin his plans.

Thereafter the ducks continued to enjoy their swims on the river.

But this time the number of birds that were to be given this privilege was woefully out of keeping with the number of Austro-Hungarian soldiers in Austrian Mitrovitz, and in this manner the Servian army was often deceived.

But one day no ducks appeared on the Save. The Austro-Hungarian troops had evacuated Mitrovitz that night, some moving up and some down the river. It was for some such signal that the commander of the Timok division had been waiting.

That evening he took his force across the river, occupied some territory five kilometres west of Mitrovitz and was banqueted that night by the Austrian Serbs.

Towards morning, in the still gray dawn when man's vitality is lowest, as the savants assert, and when banqueters are not supposed to be in the best trim for fighting, the Austro-Hungarian troops descended upon the Timok division and finished the career of one of Servia's most famous military organizations, killing many, leading away some 14,000 captives and taking much loot.

Such is the history of the battle of Mitrovitz on September 4. Even the Serbs here smile when they think of it. There is an order now that no ducks may be permitted to swim on the Save.

U. S. AS MEDIATOR, AUSTRIAN IDEA.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

"Austrian newspapers say that when negotiations for peace begin America will have earned the right to act as intermediary. These papers print sympathetic articles in connection with the opening of the American Congress. They point out that the sending of gifts by American children to the children of dead soldiers is proof of the high motives by which the nation is guided."

BERLIN, Dec. 14 (via wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—Among the items issued today to the official press bureau for publication are the following:

The Temps (a Paris newspaper) estimates the Russian losses at over 1,600,000 of whom more than 500,000 have been made prisoners.

"The Board of the Milan Corn Exchange has addressed a protest to the Italian Foreign Minister charging arbitrary seizure by the British and French of eleven Italian steamers.

"The Gazetta del Popolo (a Turin newspaper,) reports from Dunkirk that an enormous percentage of the Indian and North African troops have been severely wounded because they were used as 'food for powder' by the English and French."

TURKISH WARSHIP SUNK BY BRITISH.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—A communication issued by the official bureau today announced that the Turkish battleship Messudieh has been torpedoed by a British submarine.

The bureau's statement is as follows:

"Yesterday submarine B11 in charge of Lieutenant-Commander Norman B. Holbrook of the Royal Navy, entered the Dardanelles and in spite of the difficult current dived under five rows of mines and torpedoed the Turkish battleship Messudieh, which was guarding the mine fields.

"Although pursued by gun fire and torpedo boats, the B-11 returned safely after being submerged on one occasion for nine hours.

The Messudieh was an old boat, having been built at Blackwell, Eng., in 1874, and reconstructed at Genoa in 1903. She was 232 feet long, fifty-nine feet beam and of about 10,000 tons burden. She had a speed of seventeen and one-half knots and her main battery consisted of two 9.2-inch guns in turrets and twelve 6-inch guns in battery. In the war with Greece in 1912 the Messudieh was reported badly damaged in a naval battle in the Dardanelles. She carried a crew of 600.

HOUSE OF COMMONS EXCITES CRITICISM.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The determination of the House of Commons not to sit again until February 2 has excited considerable criticism, and the decision of the House of Lords to reconvene on January 6 is praised by the critics, who maintain that both houses should sit intermittently for the purpose of keeping an eye on the executive branch of the government.

Long sittings would not be necessary, according to these critics, as there is no question of legislation or finance immediately impending. The sole duty of the House under prevailing conditions would be to keep an eye on the Cabinet, which, with the aid of the defense of the realm act, is in a position of almost arbitrary power. The situation would be somewhat saved by the earlier sitting of the Lords, an unprecedented thing under normal conditions, but with party discord buried, the Lords ought to provide as effective a break for the impetuosity of the Cabinet as the commons.

Dockyard Workers Told They are Doing as Much for England as the Soldier at the Front.

NEWCASTLE (Eng.) Dec. 14.—"The men in overalls, just as much as those who go forth to fight for their country in khaki or blue, stand between this land and a group of savages, relentless and ruthless militarists," said the Rt. Hon. James MacNamara, financial secretary to the Admiralty, in addressing tonight the first of a series of meetings at which he has been delegated to express the thanks of the Admiralty to the ship yard and engineering works employees engaged on government contracts.

"Without your work," Mr. MacNamara added, "the valor of the soldiers would avail nothing."

By their patriotic response to the heavy and continuous strain imposed upon them since the war, Mr. MacNamara declared, the workmen had assisted materially in increasing the strength and readiness of the fleet. He exhorted them to continue their efforts with the assurance that by so doing they were best serving their country.

HAMBURG, Dec. 14 (via London, Dec. 15, 12:55 a.m.)—Gen. Von Bissing, the newly-appointed Governor-General of Belgium, in an interview today, said his appointment meant no change in the policy of the Germans, as the measures taken by his predecessor were practical and business-like.

He said he wished the Belgians to know that he was a just enemy and that his aim was to maintain peace and order in the land, which had become the basis of the operations of the German troops, so that the army would be able to devote itself to work without worrying about communications.

The general added that he hoped to succeed with his mild policy, but that he would apply stern measures if they became necessary. He said he always had been interested in economic problems and hoped, in co-operation with the civil administration, to do much to improve the Belgian situation.

In conclusion, Gen. Von Bissing said Emperor William had impressed upon him the necessity of doing everything possible to get the weak on their feet again in Belgium.

STOCKHOLM (via London) Dec. 15, 3:37 a.m.—The Swedish steamer Ludvig Peyron, bound for Stockholm from London, was stopped Sunday by Germans and taken into Swinemunde. The steamship company therefore has ordered all its steamers to stop at Helsingborg, Sweden, instead of entering the Baltic when coming from the North Sea, as such steamers run the risk of being captured. This is the first steamer to be stopped when coming from the North Sea, and seemingly indicates a new German method of action.

FAMOUS NAMES IN DISPATCHES.

DESCENDANTS OF FRENCH PRESIDENTS ON FIRING LINE.

Men Who Have Served as Ministers, Senators and Deputies Have Now Taken Up Arms—Some of the Municipal Councilmen of Paris are Also at the Front.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

PARIS, Nov. 22.—Names which have become famous in recent French history appear daily in dispatches from the front. Descendents of four former Presidents of the French republic are fighting in the armies. They are: Lazare Hippolyte Sadi-Carnot, who is a major in an infantry regiment; Claude Casimir-Perier, who is a lieutenant in an infantry regiment and recently wounded; the Duke of Magenta, a son of Marshal MacMahon, a brigadier-general, and Paul Loubet, an infantry lieutenant.

Former Premier and Cabinet Ministers are represented by sons. For instance, Rene Viviani's two sons have seen hard service, one of them having been wounded, while the other disappeared after a battle in Belgium. Paul Doumer, who was a candidate for the Presidency, has suffered severely, both of his sons having been wounded and one of them having since died from the effects of his injuries. Sons of Theophile Delcasse and Gabriel Hanotaux have been wounded.

Many former Ministers, Senators and Deputies have taken up active service in the army. More than 200 members of the Senate and Chamber are engaged in the service because they were called to the colors or enlisted voluntarily for the duration of the war. One member of the upper house, Senator Reymond, and three Deputies, Goujon, Nortier and Proust, have been killed. Many others have been wounded, including Andre Marinot, former Under Secretary of State for War, who was struck down while acting as a sergeant of infantry. Other Deputies wounded are Henry Franklin-Bouillon, Maurice Long, who holds the rank of captain of infantry; Albert Passy, a grandson of Frederic Passy, the celebrated pacifist, who was wounded and taken prisoner during a charge of a regiment of cuirassiers in which he was serving as a corporal; Henri Labroue, a second lieutenant of infantry, who was promoted to a higher rank on the field of battle after he had been wounded while leading his men into action, and Andre Buffet, a grandson of a former president of the National Assembly, who was wounded while serving in the trenches.

Other Deputies now in uniform are: Emile Bender, who is a sergeant of infantry; Paul Pugliesi-Conti, who is a volunteer on the staff; Henri Tournade, who commands a battalion of infantry; Deputy Veillet, who is engaged in the army service corps; L. L. Klotz, an ex-Minister, who is a lieutenant-colonel on the staff; Claude Cochin, an infantry lieutenant; Marcel Bouilloux-Laffont, an artillery sergeant; Louis Deschamps, an infantry adjutant; Deputy Prat, a private in an infantry battalion; Dr. Navarre, a military surgeon, and Joseph Caillaux, ex-Premier, who holds the rank of lieutenant-colonel and has been sent on a mission to South America.

Most of the Senators were too old for active service, but twenty-one of them put on uniforms again, and all but one, Senator Ferdinand de Langenhagen, who is an artillery major, are serving in the auxiliary branches.

Some of the municipal councilors of Paris also are doing duty as soldiers. Duval Arnould, for instance, is serving in the ranks of the artillery with four of his sons, while Count d'Andigne, who is a staff captain, and his fellow-councillor, E. Evain, have both been wounded.

As the Twig is Bent.

ONE IN TWENTY-FIVE ENLISTED AT ST. JOHN'S.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ST. JOHN'S (N. F.) Dec. 14.—From this city, with a population of 30,000, about 1250 men have enlisted for service in the British army and navy, 1000 as soldiers and 250 as sailors. This is an average of one in every twenty-five of the population—an average that, so far as is known here, has been exceeded only at Liverpool, where one person in every fifteen has enlisted.

The extent of the local enlistment has been somewhat of a surprise to the government officials, as there is no militia in Newfoundland and the people of the colony have never had any appeals made to their military spirit.

The ability of St. John's to put so large a force in the field is ascribed by recruiting officers to the fact that for twenty years denominational schools and colleges have maintained boys' brigades. These number ordinarily about 1000 youths. When the call came for men to go to the front as a military contribution from Great Britain's most ancient colony, four-fifths of those who offered their services were either present or former members of the boys' brigades and every officer appointed for the regiment had been trained in one of these organizations.

The latest information from England is that the 540 men of the first Newfoundland contingent, hitherto with the Canadian contingent on Salisbury Plain, have been ordered to Fort George, Inverneshire, Scotland, for garrison duty and completion of their training, and thither the second contingent will proceed when sent overseas early in the coming year.

OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUES FROM THE GREAT WAR.

LONDON, Dec. 14, 9:10 p.m.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent says the Austrians, in an official communication issued at Vienna today, admit defeat at the hands of the Servians. This communication follows:

"Our offensive movement, directed in a southeasterly direction from the River Drina, encountered southeast of Valjevo a greatly superior force of the enemy.

"Our advance was not merely stopped, but we were compelled also to make more extended retirements of our troops, which for many weeks have fought obstinately and brilliantly, but with many losses.

"Against this we may place the occupation of Belgrade. A new decision and measures consequently will be taken which will serve to repel the enemy."

THE FRENCH REPORT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Dec. 14, 10:42 p.m.—The following official communication was issued by the War Office tonight:

"In Belgium several attacks by the French troops have resulted in progress along the Ypres Canal and to the west of Hollebeke. Several violent counter attacks have been repulsed by our troops.

"The railway station of Commercy (Department of Meuse,) was bombarded yesterday by the batteries, firing from a very great distance, but insignificant damage was done.

"In Alsace an offensive movement resumed by the enemy to the northwest of Carnay has been repulsed.

"On the rest of the front there is nothing to report."

FROM VIENNA.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM (via London) Dec. 14, 10:55 p.m.—Vienna made the following official announcement this afternoon, according to a dispatch received here:

"The pursuit of the Russians in Western Galicia continues. As a result of the encounters we have won ground in a northerly direction. Dukla (in Galicia) is again in our possession. Our columns, advancing through the Carpathians, captured on Saturday 9000 prisoners and ten machine guns.

"The situation in front of Rejbret, to the east of Cracow, and in Southern Poland, is unchanged. North of Lowicz our allies are pressing against the lower part of the Bzura River."

BERLIN'S REPORT.

BERLIN, Dec. 14 (via wireless to London, 3:10 p.m.)—An official communication issued today by the German army headquarters says:

"Light attacks by the French on parts of our positions between the River Meuse and the Vosges Mountains were easily repulsed. Otherwise nothing of importance remains to be reported from the western theater of the war.

"From East Prussia and Southern Poland there is nothing to report.

THE RIGHTS OF ALIENS.

Even Though They Live Abroad They May Recover Under the Federal Employers' Liability Act.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Nonresident aliens may recover damages under the Federal employers' liability law for the negligent killing of those supporting them, according to a decision today by the Supreme Court in the case of Patrick and Bridget McGovern of Ireland. They have been awarded a judgment of $750 for the killing of their son while working in the Reading Terminal at Philadelphia, but the third Circuit Court of Appeal set aside the verdict on the ground that non-resident aliens could not recover under the law.

The case has been the subject of diplomatic exchanges.

PAYNE LAID TO REST.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

AUBURN (N. Y.) Dec. 14.—The funeral of Sereno Elisha Payne, veteran Republican leader in the House of Representatives, was held this afternoon, with simple services in the First Baptist Church. Hundreds united with the congressional delegation of sixty to fill the church, and thousands stood outside or lined the snow-blocked streets on the way to Fort Hill Cemetery, where the dead statesman was buried beside the body of Mrs. Payne. All stores and public places closed during the hour of the funeral.

In addition several wagonloads of floral pieces, including those from President Wilson, the Ways and Means Committee, both houses of Congress and from many prominent individuals there were scores of tributes from citizens and organizations of Auburn and elsewhere in this Congressional District.

During the noon hour the body lay in state and thousands of citizens, including workingmen from the shops of Auburn, passed the bier.

NICARAGUAN TREATY.

Secretary of State Bryan Reiterates That He Will Seek Ratification of it at This Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Secretary Bryan reiterated today his determination to seek ratification by the Senate during the present session of Congress of the Nicaraguan canal treaty and the Columbian indemnity treaty. Both have met with determined opposition, but Mr. Bryan is hopeful that they will be consummated before adjournment next March.

The Nicaraguan treaty provides for the payment to Nicaragua of $3,000,000 for canal and coaling station rights, and the Colombian convention would give Colombia $25,000,000 in settlement of differences growing out of the separation of Panama and the building of the Panama Canal.

DEFER ACTION ON CANAL ZONE.

Government Sees No Cause for Undue Haste.

Goethals has Ample Power to Enforce Laws.

Will be Several Days Before Any Move is Made.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Col. Goethals's reiterated request for destroyers for use in enforcing neutrality laws in the Panama Canal Zone was the subject of conferences today between Secretary of War Garrison, Counsellor Lansing of the State Department and Rear-Admiral Fisk, chief of the navy's bureau of operations. No decision resulted, and it was indicated tonight that, because of the delicacy of the questions involved and the scant information furnished by Col. Goethals, it might be several days before any action was taken.

Secretary Garrison early in the day received a cablegram from Col. Goethals in reply to his request for details concerning the call for destroyers. This message was not made public, on account of its confidential nature, but Mr. Garrison said in Mr. Goethals's judgment, misuse of radio-communication within canal waters and the necessity of preventing misuse of the zone as a basis of supply by belligerents, required the presence of swift-moving war vessels.

Before any step is determined upon it is understood that officials of the administration will go deeply into the question of the powers and obligations of the government in controlling activities in the waters adjacent to the Canal Zone. An agreement will have to be reached, too, as to which department of the government should deal with the situation.

At present the officials appear to believe that the Governor of the Panama Canal already has at his command ample power to enforce the neutrality laws and all of the regulations for the use of the canal. The fortifications at the terminals are sufficiently advanced to give military command to all of the waters within the three-mile limit, and beyond that point the United States government can exercise no control. There is an ample military force in barracks in the zone to maintain order and to deal with any vessel after it has passed through the entrance locks to the canal.

Regarding the alleged use of radio outfits by British colliers within the canal waters, the officials are trying to ascertain the extent to which this has been done. So far only one instance is said to have occurred and it is suggested that a warning against the repetition of the offense will be sufficient, without invoking a display of force. If such a display should be necessary, however, it will be incumbent upon the navy to undertake to prevent the transmission of wireless messages in violation of the law, as by a proclamation of August 5, last, the Navy Department was placed in exclusive control of the radio service in the Canal Zone and required to execute the regulations.

Not much importance is attached here to the complaint from the isthmus that vessels have been leaving there without clearance papers, as it is pointed out that all of these vessels had clearance papers from the port they left before reaching Panama. But, as to the bills of health, the opinion of officials here is that it is fully within the power of the Governor of the canal to require a strict compliance with the regulations on that point in order to insure the waterway against an epidemic of some contagious disease.

LET PRESIDENT CHOOSE GUESTS.

HIS PART IN THE CANAL CELEBRATION PROGRAMME AT HIS OWN DISCRETION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Secretary Garrison of the War Department, Assistant Secretary Philips of the State Department, and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt of the Navy Department, conferred again today on plans for the government celebration of the opening of the Panama Canal and the San Francisco exposition.

Acting as a board these officials are slowly working out the details of the gathering of the fleets at Hampton Roads, the voyage of the international fleet from the Virginia capes to Colon; the ceremonies on the isthmus, including the triumphant passage of the fleet through the waterway headed by the famous old Oregon and the voyage from Balboa to San Francisco.

Questions considered today concerned particularly the accommodation aboard ship of representatives of the diplomatic corps and members of the Senate and House of Representatives. The President's part in the programme is left entirely to his own discretion, the board simply taking note of the fact that he is to travel on the battleship New York and designate his own guests during the voyage.

Chinese Minister's Regrets.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Chinese Minister called at the State Department today to express the sympathy of his government on the death of William V. Rockhill, at one time American Minister to China and at the time of his death in Honolulu on his way to China to act as adviser to President Yuan Shi Kai.

Zero Temperatures and Blizzards Envelop Nearly Whole Country, and Many Persons are Frozen to Death.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 14.—Cold weather is gripping all the country, but is especially severe in the Middle West and South. Chicago had 3 deg. below zero and two men were so badly frozen they will probably die. Two were frozen to death in Kansas City. Blizzards are raging as far south as Montgomery, Ala., and train service is badly upset in Western New York. Western Canada reports 24 deg. below zero. Other temperatures:

SOUTHERN RACE QUESTION.

Two Days' Session of the University Commission on the Subject Starts in Washington Today.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—A two days' session of the University Commission of Southern Race Questions will begin here tomorrow, after the members of the commission have been received by President Wilson at the White House. The commission is composed of representatives of eleven of the leading State universities, and was organized to study race conditions in the South. Previous meetings have been held in Nashville, Tenn., the University of Georgia and Charlottesville, Va.

JOSEPH LEITER ABSOLVED.

Chicagoan Does not Have to Pay the Notes He Gave an Elevator Company in Pay for Grain.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Joseph Leiter need not pay the $380,833 in notes given the Interior and Monarch Elevator Companies in payment for grain during his attempt to corner the wheat market in 1898, according to the verdict tonight of the jury which heard the elevator companies' suit to recover.

Leiter's sole defense was that Frank H. Peavey and C. A. Pillsbury, both of Minneapolis, representing the elevator companies, had conspired with him to withhold their wheat from the market. Their failure to keep this alleged agreement prevented Leiter from accomplishing the corner and caused him a loss of millions, according to the testimony.

EXPLOSION KILLS SEVEN.

Apartment-house in Cleveland is Blown up by Natural Gas and Many Victims are Caught.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Dec. 14.—A natural gas explosion in a two-story apartment-house in Madison avenue tonight killed seven persons, seriously injured eight and wrecked the two-story building. Windows for a block around were broken and persons in a drug store across the street were injured by broken glass.

The explosion blew out the walls of the building and the wreckage at once caught fire. Firemen dragged the dead and dying from the blazing mass at the risk of their lives.

Rates Lowered.

TAKE STEPS TO RETIRE EMERGENCY CURRENCY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Steps were taken today by the Federal Reserve Board to make retirement of emergency currency issued on commercial paper shortly after the outbreak of the European war more attractive to banks. The board approved a reduction of the re-discount rate of the Federal Bank of Atlanta to 5 per cent. on thirty-day maturities, 5½ per cent. on sixty-day maturities and 6 per cent. on longer maturities. At the same time the other eleven banks were notified of this action, with the comment that they also might make such rates.

Although more than $2,000,000 of the $380,000,000 of emergency currency outstanding a few weeks ago has been retired, members of the board believe the time has arrived when they should aid in taking most of the remainder out of circulation and replacing it, if the present amount of currency is needed, with Federal reserve notes.

Although no definite information was forthcoming at the conference on how much cash actually will be drawn from the fund to carry the surplus cotton crop, estimates ranged from $10,000,000 to $70,000,000, and members of the Cotton Loan Committee were confident that hundreds of applications for loans would be in before January 1.

It was the opinion of most of those present that between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 bales of cotton must be carried over until next year. It was estimated that about $150,000,000 would be needed to take care of this cotton, and the general opinion was that unless there was a natural expansion of credit throughout the South a large part of the loan fund would be used.

WOUNDED MEN FILL HOSPITALS.

Some of the Victims of Muscovite Bullets had Laid a Day or Two on the Field Before Receiving Medical Attention—Task of the Surgeons Difficult.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

GLEIWITZ (Germany) Nov. 20.—The hospitals of Gleiwitz and Cosel, filled mainly with wounded from the battles before Ivangorod and Warsaw, present striking contrasts to those farther from the front, which are not so unattractive.

Here are gathered men who were worn, haggard and suffering long before they were wounded. Many of them had not removed their clothing for four or five weeks, and had slept in mud and filth. Water was scarce and food scarcer. A large number lay on the fields for a day or two after being injured before receiving medical attention. Followed then by journeys of a day or more in jolting peasants' carts and three or four days' nerve-racking riding on railway trains until the base hospitals finally were reached.

These delays caused at least 90 per cent. of the wounds to become infected, making the problems of the surgeons more difficult. Every effort is made in the American hospitals to save as many limbs as possible, regardless of the length of time the patients must be kept. To the correspondent of the Associated Press were pointed out several men who, the surgeon said, could have been discharged days before if amputation had been resorted to. But bone and skin grafting is thought to be more humane, even though it takes longer.

It is no reflection upon the German sanitary arrangements that the wounded suffer as they do. On the western front conditions are better. The wounded in France and Belgium come back rapidly to comfortable beds in field and base hospitals and receive speedy treatment which heads off infection. The wounded who are expected today or tomorrow from the battlefields just across the Russian frontier will be in far better shape than their predecessors, because they have been wounded but a few miles from good German roads and a few hours from clean hospital beds and adequate medical care.

Only a few of the wounded will die. Nearly all will recover eventually, although recovery can not proceed, nor broken bones knit, until suppuration ceases. Many of them will spend Christmas in the hospitals. Some can write post cards, read the daily war bulletins, play checkers or even shuffle about the wards and corridors. Almost all can eat, and the dietary prescribed for these seriously wounded soldiers would make many an American physician gasp.

Dinner today comprised for each patient two large slices of meat, several large spoonsful of cooked sauerkraut, several potatoes and a spoonful of gravy, all served in a large bowl. Each man gets a large loaf of rye bread daily, which he keeps beside his bed to cut from whenever he is so inclined. Food is served in one form or another five times a day. Not all the wounded, but most of them, get this dietary, which was laid down for the American surgeons by German experts familiar with the needs of the German soldier.

The Americans have been most welcome guests in Gleiwitz and Cosel and their presence is appreciated not only by the medical and army authorities, but by the civilian population. At Gleiwitz the president of the District Court, on service with the troops, turned over his villa and servants to the American surgeons for a residence. The nurses are quartered at the hospital. Surgeons and nurses at Cosel have been furnished quarters at the hotel.

OUR MARINE IS GROWING.

Hundred and One Merchant Ships Added Since September.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The American merchant marine has been increased by 101 vessels with a total displacement of 361,078 gross tons since September 3, according to an announcement today by the Department of Commerce. The ships were admitted to American registry under the act of Congress passed directly after the outbreak of the European war.

SOCIALISTS TO DISCIPLINE LEADER

BERLIN (via The Hague and London) Dec. 14.—The action of the Socialist leader, Carl Liebknecht, in the German Reichstag, December 10, in voting against the new war credit, has brought out many expressions of disapproval in party circles. The Executive Committee of the Socialist party today is considering what measures it shall take in view of this breach of discipline. Dr. Liebknecht was the only member of the Reichstag not to vote for the credit.

The Executive Committee of the Socialist labor unions has adopted a resolution declaring that any man who refuses to vote for the credits necessary for the defense and the independence of the country gives evidence by this act that he is indifferent whether hostile armies bring war with all its devastation into his own country. Nobody who is interested in the laboring classes and the country, this resolution continues, could hesitate in his allegiance to the decision of the party, which is that, in this war, when the existence of the fatherland is at stake, it is heart and soul with the nation.

The military authorities have suppressed for the duration of the war the Staatsburger Zeitung of Berlin, an anti-Semite organ which failed to follow the admonition to discontinue all anti-Semite propaganda.

The municipality of Nordheusen, in Prussian Saxony, has decided to plant an oak tree to be called the Lody Oak, to perpetuate the memory of Carl Hans Lody, the German who was executed in London last November after having been found guilty by court-martial of espionage.

NOT SHOT AS TRAITOR.

Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson Contradicts Report Regarding Lieut. George Cornwallis-West.

The published report that Lieut. George Cornwallis-West, officer of the Scots Guards and former husband of Lady Randolph Churchill, mother of Winston Churchill, First Lord of the British Admiralty, was shot to death as a traitor is discredited by Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, the actor, now in Los Angeles.

"I wish to contradict the report," Mr. Forbes-Robertson said yesterday afternoon at the Alexandria. "Both Lieut. Cornwallis-West and his father and mother are old friends of my family, and you may take it from me that the statement is absolutely false."

The news of the reported execution of the noted Englishman was conveyed to America in two letters received in Salt Lake City. It was reported that Lieut. Cornwallis-West was shot either at sea or in the Lowes Prison.

PROCLAIMS ARIZONA LAWS.

Prohibition, Eight Hour Law and Other Measures Adopted by the People are Now Effective.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Dec. 14.—Gov. George W. P. Hunt late today proclaimed the measures carried at the November election, including the prohibition and the anti-alien labor measures, effective January 1, 1915.

The attack upon the dry law in the form of four separate applications for injunctions, will be filed in the Federal court probably tomorrow at Tucson.

The 80 per cent. measure, compelling the employment of 80 per cent. American citizens in all businesses with five or more employees, has been protested to the State Department already by the British and Italian Ambassadors, upon the theory that it violates treaty rights of aliens

Paris.

HORSES AGAIN SEEN IN PARIS.

ALL THE YOUNGER TAXI DRIVERS ARE AT THE FRONT.

Outcasts of the Great City Crowd One Another for the "Harlequins" Composed of Offal from the Tables of the Well-to-do—French Adopting Habit of Smoking Pipes.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

PARIS, Nov. 23.—Horse-drawn cabs have returned to the streets with the progress of the war, but the outfits and their drivers are not as picturesque as they were in their heyday before the motor car came. The drivers are quieter now, they no longer crack their whips loudly, and they accept 5-cent gratuities with humble thanks.

All the younger taxicab drivers have disappeared, having been called to take their places in the army. Many of them have been put into the supply columns, which perform much excellent and sometimes dangerous service in bringing up munitions and food to the men in the trenches. Those taxicabs still in the city are driven by the older men and by amateur chauffeurs, who through the dislocation of business in some professions, have been thrown out of employment. One may learn from his chauffeur that in normal times he is a baritone of some renown at a leading operahouse, or maybe a teacher of languages, or perhaps a professor of fencing.

The Russian, British, Belgian and French national anthems form almost the sole items in the repertory of the itinerant singers who wander from courtyard to courtyard of the Parisian apartment-houses. Every window opens when the group, generally composed of a quartette, sometimes of quite passable voices, starts its music, and sometimes the occupants of the apartments, especially in the working-class quarters, join in the singing. Other parties of musicians take their stand on the corners of streets where they sing topical songs of the heroism of the allied soldiers. The interest of the populace in these ballads is enormous, for nearly every one of the bystanders has a brother, son, father or other relative at the front, and all buy, at the price of 2 cents, copies of the words and often join in the refrain.

The flower girls, with their "sweet violets" direct from the Riviera, which have never looked fresher nor more dainty, appear to have increased in number, perhaps because they are more noticeable owing to the smaller crowds of pedestrians on the streets.

A "shine," always difficult to obtain in France, is next to impossible at this period. The ancient bootblacks, sometimes women, leisurely wipe off some of the mud and then lay on a covering of the poorest kind of blacking, after which the polishing brush and cloth are applied without energy, leaving the footwear in a state of miserable dullness, at a charge in excess of that paid in any city of the United States.

"Harlequins" are sought for at the central markets by ever-increasing numbers of the outcasts of Paris every morning at an early hour. The "harlequins" are composed of what is left from the meals in the leading restaurants, and the name is derived from the variegated assortment of small pieces of meat, poultry and delicacies set out on plates and sold at prices ranging from 2 to 5 cents.

The adoption by the French of the fashion of pipe-smoking and the enrolment of most of the male population in the army have dealt a hard blow at the gatherer of cigarette ends and cigar stumps, who for years was such a well-known figure about the terraces of the boulevard cafes. The amount of discarded mites of tobacco he picks up has generally decreased, and the newspaper boys who look to him to sell them for 2 cents a package of the dried and rolled-up refuse, of which they were the chief purchasers, now obtain a smaller quantity for their money.

VON DER GOLTZ PRAISES BELGIANS.

BERLIN (via The Hague and London) Dec. 14.—The correspondent of the Tageblatt in Sofia, Bulgaria, telegraphs an interview he had with Field Marshal Baron von der Goltz while the latter was on his way to Constantinople. Regarding Belgium, Baron von der Goltz said:

"The situation is normal, the population having convinced themselves that the Germans are not barbarians. Life continues as if in peace time, and commerce and transportation are getting better.

"The Belgians fought bravely for their fatherland. Such opponents should be esteemed."

Answering questions regarding the war situation in the west, the field marshal pointed out that an army of millions of German soldiers was in the enemy's country and that the richest French provinces were occupied.

"We don't underestimate our opponents," he said. "The French and English fight with utter contempt for death, but we are gradually winning ground and are convinced that some day the enemy's resistance will be broken.

"Germany is prepared to wage the war for years, and the side which is able to stand the most and has the best discipline is bound to win. The enthusiasm and morale of the German soldier, fostered by good supply of arms, we are sure, will ultimately make us victorious."

American Board Reports Quiet in Turkey up to November 16, when Communication Was Cut Off.

BOSTON, Dec. 14.—Conditions in Turkey were comparatively quiet up to the middle of November, according to advices from officials of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions in Constantinople.

Dr. James L. Barton, secretary of the board, said tonight letters dated November 13 and November 16 had been received, in which the destruction by a mob of some property, mostly of Russian, French and British subjects, and the search of foreign institutions and dwellings were mentioned. No personal harm was done to anyone, the letters said.

The board has received no cable advices from Turkey for more than six weeks. In order to relieve any uneasiness that may be felt in view of this silence, Dr. Barton said he had asked the State Department at Washington tonight if it had any later information.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Dec. 14.—With zero weather promised for tomorrow morning, Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia were experiencing the first cold snap of the winter tonight. The surrounding section is blanketed by six to ten inches of snow. Railroads and trolley lines are making every effort to keep their traffic moving and little difficulty has been reported.

ICE FLOES FORM IN MISSISSIPPI.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.—The lowest temperature of the year, and in some cases the lowest in several years, was recorded throughout Eastern Missouri and Western Illinois today. Ice floes, for the first time this winter made their appearance on the Mississippi River, forecasting the speedy cessation of traffic on the upper Mississippi until spring.

LIGHT SNOW IN TACOMA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TACOMA (Wash.) Dec. 14.—With a minimum temperature of 21.9 deg., today was the coldest December day Tacoma has known in five years. Light snow fell.

CAPTAIN'S WIFE AND CREW SAVED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

GLOUCESTER (Mass.) Dec. 14.—The three-master schooner Ella M. Storer, which sought shelter from last night's storm behind Dog Bar breakwater, was driven ashore today and became a total wreck. Capt. Kelley, his wife and the five men in the crew reached Ten Pound Island, two miles up the harbor, in the yawl boat.

BRITISH STEAMER A TOTAL LOSS.

NORFOLK (Va.) Dec. 14.—Hurled about by the gale that swept the Atlantic Coast last night, the British steamer Isle of Iona was stranded today two miles south of Hatteras inlet, full of water. Life-savers in motor boats took off the crew of twenty-seven.

The Isle of Iona, sailing from New York and Philadelphia, reached Havana, November 29. It was said she probably will be a total loss. The Isle of Iona was cleared from New York by the Munson Steamship Company. She is owned by the Isle Steamship Company of Newcastle, Eng.

DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY.

Appropriations Show an Increase Over Anything Before Reported Despite Some Smooth Juggling.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Economy speeches were made in the House today by Representative Frear of Wisconsin and Representative Gillett of Massachusetts. Representative Frear declared preparations were being made for opening "another pork barrel river and harbor bill," and attacked particularly the proposal to improve the Mussell Shoal section of the Tennessee River. Representative Gillett criticised the administration's estimates generally.

"Economy" was the watchword of the Appropriations Committee in the preparation for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, first of the big supply measures, which were reported to the House today. The committee lopped off nearly $2,000,000 from the estimates submitted by the various departments cutting salary allowances all along the line, and brought in a measure appropriating $38,744,753.50. The bill provides for more than 16,000 salaries of government employees.

The total of the bill shows an increase of $1,128,843 over last year's measure. But this year's measure includes a special appropriation of $2,236,100 and authorizes 1000 additional employees for taking the agricultural census authorized by the law covering the last regular census in 1910. The committee, in its report, says that this is an extraordinary expenditure, which will come once every ten years, and maintains, therefore, that this year's measure is materially less than the last appropriation.

The bill contains the usual provision cutting down the mileage allowance of members of Congress from 20 cents a mile to 5 cents a mile. The fight to cut down the mileage allowance has been on for years, and although the committee each year reports the reduction in the bill, it is defeated either on the floor of the House or in the Senate.

The committee cut $103,280 from the estimates of the Secretary of Commerce for the work of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, although an increase of $25,000 over last year's appropriation was allowed for promoting commerce with South and Central America.

government at the beginning of the revolt against Huerta.

No reason was given by officials here today for the arrival at Chihuahua City of Gen. Villa. It was understood that the menace of the Salazar troops and the Carranza forces under Gen. HANG PRESIDENTE OF FRONTERAS.

MAYTORENA EXECUTES CARRANZA OFFICIAL AND TWO OTHER MEN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Dec. 14.—Jesus Arvizu, presidente of Fronteras, Sonora, is reported to have been hanged along with two others whose names were not given, Friday night, following the capture of Fronteras by Maytorena's troops. It is said that Arvizu refused to flee with other Carranza officials.

Col. Iturma's force, which occupied Fronteras, is also said to have been engaged today by the troops of Capt. Camous near Cuchuta. The outcome is unknown.

MAYTORENA WINS CUCHUTA FIGHT.

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Dec. 14.—Maj. Miguel Sameniego lost nearly half his command of 250 Carranzista cavalrymen in an engagement with a slightly larger Maytorena force near Cuchuta yesterday, according to reports reaching the border today.

Maj. Sameniego was shot in the chest. It was thought the wound would prove fatal.

The Hill contingent left Agua Prieta Saturday, intending to surprise the Maytorena men, who, following the capture of Fronteras, marched on R. V. Pesqueira's Cuchuta ranch, forty miles south of the border. The surprise was effected, but the Maytorena force made a determined stand and the Hill troops had to fall back into Fronteras, which place the enemy had abandoned.

COMMISSION MEETS.

Question of Montana Irrigation from Canadian Rivers is Discussed, but no Decision is Reached.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The right of the United States to reclaim a large area of arid land in Northern Montana with water diverted from the St. Mary and Milk rivers, which separate Montana from the province of Alberta, Can., was discussed here today before the International Joint Commission without decision. At the request of F. H. Newell, director of the United States Reclamation Service, action was postponed to permit a further investigation.

The commission also considered the project to prevent pollution of the Niagara River at Buffalo, N. Y. Surgeon-General Gorgas, U.S.A., told the commission he considered the proposed construction of a sanitary canal from Lake Ontario to Lake Erie a feasible solution of this problem.

Former Senator Obediah Gardner of Maine presided for the first time as chairman of the American commissioners. The vacancy among the Canadian commissioners caused by the appointment of P. J. Casgrain, former Canadian chairman, as Postmaster-General of Canada, was today filled by the seating of P. B. Mignault. Hearings will be continued tomorrow.

BOYS' CHOIR IS DISRUPTED.

FAMOUS MUSICAL ORGANIZATION DISBANDS AS RESULT OF A ROW.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—The boys' choir of the Paulist Fathers, for ten years among the leading musical organizations here, was declared disbanded tonight after a dinner in honor of the Rev. William J. Finn, its founder, who resigned recently.

The disbanding was said to have been due to differences of opinion between Father Finn and the Rev. Peter J. O'Callaghan, superior of the Paulist Fathers here. Father O'Callaghan was said to have objected to the development of the choir as an identity beyond that of the ordinary church choir.

The organization toured the world two years ago and had received many prizes and blue ribbons in choral competitions.

The vote in fifty-six districts gives for national prohibition, 199,860; for national continuance, 290,697.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER.

Frederick M. Smith Sustained as Temporary President of Church of Which He was First Counsellor.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

INDEPENDENCE (Mo.) Dec. 14.—Frederick M. Smith, first counsellor, today was sustained as temporary president of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and will assume the work of his father, Joseph Smith, president, who died last week.

This action was taken at a meeting of the quorum of the twelve apostles, the highest ruling body in the church, and followed a revelation announced in 1906 by Joseph Smith that his son should succeed him. A general conference of the church at which a permanent president is to be chosen will be held in Lamoni, Iowa, April 6, 1915.

Since 1903 Frederick Smith has been first counsellor to his father. In recent years he practically has been active president. He also assisted the aged patriarch in editing the Saints' Herald, the official organ of the church.

The new leader is a grandson of Joseph Smith, the prophet, who founded the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He is 38 years old and was born in Plano, Ill. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the schools of law and liberal arts at the University of Kansas and has been an active advocate of reform in criminal legal procedure. He also was recently awarded a membership in the Academy of Political Science of New York.

TO REDUCE SALOONS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Upon the theory expressed by its members that "the liquor men are killing the goose that lays their golden eggs," a committee of the Chamber of Commerce has begun the formulation of a plan to regulate and reduce the number of saloons in San Francisco. Its plans extend to legislative action at Sacramento this winter "with a view to harmonizing regulation in the State."

According to the general scheme it is proposed to limit the number of saloons, raise license taxes and arrange a sliding scale for licenses on saloons, restaurants and hotels where liquor is sold in bars not opening directly on the street. It is proposed to compel clubs, which now escape, to pay a liquor license tax.

DRUMMOND CASE DROPPED.

Suit For $50,000 Damages Falls Through Because Service on Defendant is Impossible.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14.—Charlotte Helen Vincent's $50,000 damage suit against Charles R. Drummond, millionaire bigamist, now in Los Angeles, whom she married December 8, 1910, only to find that he had not been divorced from his second wife, Charlotte Bente Drummond, was dismissed in the circuit court this afternoon by her lawyer. It had been found impossible to obtain service on Drummond. Drummond has married for the fourth time.

Drummond's second wife was a minister's daughter. He is said to have given Miss Vincent to understand that he had obtained a divorce in Reno.

No settlement has been made by Drummond, Miss Vincent's attorney declared.

AUSTRIANS SHOOT CZECH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Dec. 14.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen asserts that a Czech resident of Prague has been shot for corresponding with a Czech union in Chicago which, it is alleged, is carrying on a campaign for the establishment of an independent kingdom in Bohemia.

CZECHS AID THE ALLIES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Little surprise was expressed in Bohemian circles here today at a dispatch telling that a Czech resident of Prague had been shot for corresponding with a Czech union in Chicago. It was freely admitted by Chicago Bohemians that there are several organizations which have as their object the freedom of Bohemia and any one of them might have had correspondence with agents in Austria.

"Most of the Czechs outside of Bohemia are united to free their country," said J. R. Psenka, secretary of the Bohemian National Union.

"There are at Rheims a number of Bohemian military companies which are supporting the allies. Shooting an agent of ours will not delay the end which is certain to come. Victory for the allies against Austria and Germany means freedom for us."

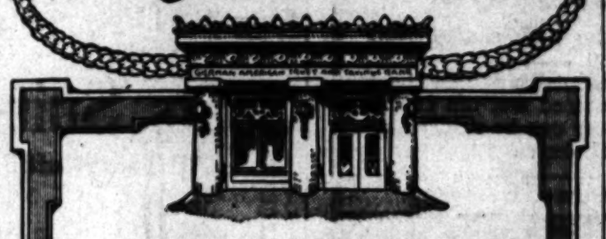
Interest Payable Monday, December 21st



One in about every ten persons—men, women and children—you may meet in Los Angeles has an account in the German American Trust and Savings Bank, a total of over 52,000 whose names are on our books. The total interest paid on these accounts for the year ending December 31, will amount to over $580,000.00.

In other words, the Savings Deposits of 52,000 people have during a single year earned for them more than half a million dollars of interest at this Bank.

In accordance with our custom, semi-annual interest will be paid on all Savings Accounts on and after Monday, December 21, although not due until January 1, 1915. This is for the convenience and comfort of our patrons, and to prevent overcrowding at the regular interest-paying date, as well as to enable them to use the interest thus earned, during the holiday season.

SUSPECTS QUARRY IN BIG ROUND-UP.

POLICE TAKE IN TWENTY-SIX; BURGLARY AND LARCENY THE CHARGES.

A human hunt—the quarry—men suspected of larceny and burglary, the pack skilled detectives, bloodhounds of the law—unknown to peaceful citizens, ended yesterday. In jail twenty-six men peered at the sunlight from behind crossed steel bars, charged with these offenses. The secret order issued by the Chief Friday night for a big clean-up was carried out.

The list of men locked up since Saturday morning as suspected thieves, with the names of the arresting detectives, follows:

Fred Athens, petty larceny, Bean and Beaumont; Kris Badley, petty larceny, Boyd and Carroll; John Reva, petty larceny, Hook; Jose Salas, petty larceny, Burgess and Winn; Jose Garcia, petty larceny, Dixon and Cline; J. M. Fisher, burglary, Fitzgerald and Ziegler; E. P. Orvill, pickpocket, Burgess and Winn; John D. Hunter, burglary, Browning and Bowe; F. J. Toomey, burglary, T. P. Toomey; Charles L. Sharp, robbery, Childers and Gamash; Nimano Tanera, petty larceny, Carlburg; Malcardo Rodrigues, petty larceny, Fisher; Joe Anduse, petty larceny, Fordice; Jose Baraona, petty larceny, Simpson; Jose Mandorado, petty larceny, Murdock; John Rienzi, grand larceny, Oaks and Rico; Earl Jennings, petty larceny, Bean and Beaumont; J. W. Young, larceny, Ritch and Roberds; Gordon Berry, burglary, Bowe and Browning; Charles Cochrane, burglary, Ritch and Roberds; Tom Garcia, petty larceny, Burgess and Winn; William R. Jones, burglary, McNamara and Wedge; Elmer Hill, grand larceny, Burgess; H. E. Passage, burglary, Bowe and Browning; Walker Nelson, petty larceny, Bean and Beaumont; Lewis Simon, petty larceny, Alvarado.

TWO ODD FIRES, ORIGIN UNKNOWN.

DEPARTMENT FIGHTS BLAZE ON THEIR OWN PROPERTY; EXPLOSION.

The fire department was called out early last night to attend two odd blazes, each of unknown origin, one on the department's own property, and the other a house, said by the owner to have been fired by the Black Hand.

For the second time in six months the hay barn in corporation yard at the rear of Engineshouse No. 1, Avenue Twenty and Pasadena avenue, was burned, 160 tons of hay being destroyed. The drill tower beside the building also caught fire, but the blaze was quickly extinguished. Hoboes are thought to have been the cause.

At Tony Vonjourna, No. 1776 Mozart street, was preparing to retire, the side of his home was blown out and the building caught fire. Tony himself suffered severe burns about the legs, arms and head. He says the Black Hand did the deed. Detectives are of the opinion that his gas stove exploded. The loss is estimated at about $1000. The house and contents were insured.

POLAND'S APPEAL.

Suffering There Declared Beyond Description and Red Cross Committee Here Seeking Funds.

The Polish-American Red Cross Hospital and Relief Corps, recently established in Warsaw and organized by Polish-Americans in Chicago with John F. Smulski as president and Charles F. Dawes, president of the Central Trust Company of Illinois, as treasurer, is taxed to its full capacity. The Poles of this country are doing all they can to relieve the sufferings, which are declared to be beyond description at present in Poland, and have committees in every large city to take up contributions to support the hospital and relief corps.

John Roman, No. 610 Brand boulevard, Glendale, and Frank Balerski, room 203 Bryson building, are the duly-accredited committee for Los Angeles, and they are thankful to receive any contribution sent to them from friends to this cause. Acknowledgment will be made direct from Chicago headquarters to the donators.

BOLTING COLTS DRAG RANCHMAN.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ONTARIO, Dec. 14.—Thrown from his rig and dragged for several blocks behind two terrified colts which bolted when a portion of their harness broke as he was driving to his ranch to the southeast of the city this morning, Samuel Akey, aged 68, is tonight in a serious condition at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Cornelius, No. 857 East A street.

Mr. Akey was so badly shocked that only a cursory examination was possible today, but it revealed a badly-shattered shoulder bone, several broken ribs, severe lacerations and dangerous bruises. It is impossible to state as yet to what extent the aged man was injured internally.

Mr. Akey was probably saved from death by two young men in a motor car from Redlands, who, after depositing him at the home of his daughter and summoning a doctor, left without revealing their names. The young men were driving along the Ontario-Riverside boulevard when they saw the team belting down Cucamonga avenue with their owner dragging beneath.

By turning into Cucamonga avenue and speeding up, they succeeded in overtaking the runaway team and after stopping them, extricating Mr. Akey from beneath the buggy. Mr. Akey's clothing was torn almost completely from him. It is impossible to learn just how the accident occurred, since the aged victim is so badly hurt as to be unable to talk of it. Tonight it is reported that he had an even chance of recovery.

ROCK IMBEDDED IN SCALP.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 14.—When Robert E. Shield, a 17-year-old boy, working for a garage at Ocean Park and living at No. 340 Indiana avenue, was injured by a machine driven by A. A. Peterson, president of the Breakers and Bachelor Club, the attending surgeon found a rock embedded under his scalp which had been picked up when the lad was thrown twenty feet from his motorcycle. The motorcycle was wrecked, and the automobile skidded about sixty feet.

Belgrade Retaken.

later went farther south to Nish, where it remains.

BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 14.—The Minister of Marine has been informed that two British warships have entered the Straits of Magellan in pursuit of the German cruiser Dresden, which has taken refuge at Punta Arenas.

SANTIAGO (Chile)) Dec. 11.—It is officially announced that the German cruiser Dresden, now at Punta Arenas, is damaged. She will be allowed to make repairs, but will be compelled to sail immediately afterward or else be interned.

TOKIO, Dec. 15, 10:30 a.m.—It is reported here that the German armed merchantman Oxford has been captured by the British in the Indian Ocean and that the German converted cruiser Cormorant has entered the harbor of Guam in the Ladrone Archipelago.

LONDON, Dec. 14, 11 p.m.—The most striking feature of the day's official news is the candid admission by the Austrian government of the defeat of the Austrian army in Servia and apparently of the abandonment of its third attempt to invade the territary of its small Slav neighbor.

While attributing the failure to the enemy's superior force, as all government bulletins explain failures, the Austrian War Office announces plainly an extended retirement and heavy losses.

"New decisions and measures consequently will be taken to repel the enemy," says the Austrian statement. Apparently that means that the Austrian army directed against Servia will assume a defensive line.

The progress of the war in Northern Hungary is less definite. Sunday's German wireless report, with candor equal to that of the Austrian bulletin, spoke of the "severe resistance" which the German and Austrian armies are encountering in South Poland and in Galicia, adding that it was evident the Austrian forces in the Carpathians are not numerically strong enough to clear the Russians out of Hungarian territory. But the Austrians claim that they are driving down the northern slopes of the Carpathians the Russian invaders who were last week in occupation of several towns south of that mountain range.

Poland is fast becoming another Belgium in point of suffering, while the opposing armies drive each other back and forth, occupy and reoccupy cities and villages and inflict upon the inhabitants bombardments similar to those suffered in Belgium and Northern France.

More than 400 Polish towns have been ruined, according to various accounts of the correspondents. Each army accuses the other of looting and cruelty. The flight of the civilians from Lodz was one of the most tragic episodes of the war, while one correspondent pictures the fate of Kalisz as a repetition of Louvain, with the slaughter of 400 civilians and sacking of the city.

A distressing feature of the fighting in Poland lies in the fact that the blood kindred are pitted against each other. There are several hundred thousand Poles in the Russian ranks, and several hundred thousand more in the ranks of the Germans and Austrians.

The Germans claim a distinct gain in their position in Northern Poland, although they are not believed to be as near Warsaw as the report last week indicated. On the other hand the Russians announce a strategic realignment of their forces in that field which strengthens their position.

In a late report tonight the Austrians announced that they had reoccupied the important point of Dukla to the south of Przemysl and Cracow, but nearer to the former, and captured 9000 prisoners.

The main issue in the eastern theater of the war—whether the German and Austrian armies will shake the Russian grip from the Przemysl and Cracow fortresses—remains unchanged.

The day has shown no important development in the western theater. The French War Office reports artillery engagements in which they had the better of the Germans and small advances at various points, particularly in the neighborhood of Verdun and St. Mihiel, in accordance with Gen. Joffre's scheme of "nibbling at them." The German bulletins deny these claims, however.

The troops in France and Belgium are suffering from a plague of mud and damp which causes them greater discomfort than did the cold wave at the end of November, with its positive hardships of frozen feet and hands, and effectually vetoes any movement on a big scale. In some ways, however, life in the trenches of the allies is easier than before, since they have been reinforced, as they do not have to spend more than two days continuously on the firing line, whereas last month they were without rest or an opportunity to remove their clothing for a week or more at a time.

The Turkish army has not asserted itself, nor has it engaged in any great battle. Enver Pasha has taken command of the Caucasian army and Talaat Bey has succeeded him as Minister of War. A report comes from Turkey of growing hostility to both foreign and native Christians in that country which may lead to attacks upon them.

PRISON PHILANTHROPY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Convicts in the Joliet penitentiary put into operation today a plan to raise a fund for the support of families of the men serving terms in the prison.

The 1236 inmates agreed to spend their spare time in the shops and turn their product over to an agent through whom sales would be made. All money received will go into a general fund for the support of wives and children of the prisoners. The convicts call their organization the Joliet Penitentiary Mutual Benefit Association. The plan was proposed by "English Eddie," a skilled mechanic, and who is regarded as one of the most notorious safe-blowers in the country.

HARRY CHANDLER,
Assistant General Manager of the Times.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of December, 1914.

T. L. CHAPIN,

The Times is the only newspaper in Los Angeles that does not make a practice of publishing circulation, newspapers and dealers to return unsold copies to the issue. Neither does it understand or predate its editions, or falsify its circulation by printing more copies than are actually necessary to supply the demand.

The Times' entire circulation is practically paid and it is more genuine and superior in every respect to that of any other newspaper.

THREE GERMAN GENERALS SUCCUMB TO WOUNDS.

BERLIN, Dec. 14, 7 p.m. (via London, Dec. 14, 12:55 a.m.)—Lieut.-Gen. Von Strock, former inspector-general of ordnance at Munich, has died of wounds received while fighting in the west.

The newspapers announce also the death on the battlefield of Gen. Von ..., commander of an infantry division, and Lieut.-Gen. A. Von Martin. The newspapers generally today tell the story of the killing and mutilation of a German sentry who had been watching the wire entanglements and comment appreciatively on what is termed the quick justice meted out by the French to the man who mutilated him. The soldier was found dead December 4. His ears had been cut off.

The day following the finding of the body an officer of the French infantry appeared before the German position under a flag of truce and expressed to the German commanding officer the abhorrence of his regiment at the action of the culprit, who, he said, although he was a member of the French army, was a criminal.

GREAT RELIGIOUS FILM IN COLORS.

LIFE OF CHRIST AT TRINITY AS FITTING HOLIDAY ATTRACTION.

A private exhibition of the great religious seven-reel film of the life of Christ, made in colors by the Pathe-Freres Company of Paris, was given last night in Trinity Auditorium by Manager Behymer. The audience consisted of several hundred ministers, Sunday-school superintendents and Bible workers, who had been invited as special guests to see the first run of the film in America.

The pictures are magnificent, being a complete revelation in color work, and the action is particularly strong. In search of a Christmas attraction, designed to fill the requirements of the holidays, Mr. Behymer hit upon this striking feature, and along with the pictures he has staged a choir that sings the Christmas classics fitting to the various scenes presented. The run of the film will begin on Christmas Eve and will close on New Year's night.

The prices are to be popular—25 cents—with a few reserved seats at 50 cents. Sunday-schools or churches that buy 500 seats will be given a 15 per cent. discount; 1000 seats, 40 per cent. discount, and in his desire to have everybody see the pictures, Mr. Behymer stated last night he would send automobiles to bring to the auditorium any old persons who had no means of getting there.

All the pictures show the magnificent scenery of Palestine, where the film was made, with the one exception of the flight into Egypt, which was made on the desert in the shadow of the pyramids and the sphinx. Many of them are so wonderfully striking and beautiful that it is difficult to tell which are the most attractive. The Wise Men en route to Bethlehem, the baptism of Christ by John, the raising of Jairus's daughter, the entry into Jerusalem, the betrayal by Judas, the denial by Peter, the scourging, the journey to the place of the crucifixion, and the scene at the tomb, are all wonderful portrayals in the greatest drama of all ages.

SPEEDING TRUCK'S VICTIM.

Old Man Struck by Machine as it Cuts Corner—It Disappears Following Accident.

Struck by an automobile truck as he was crossing at Third street and Santa Fe avenue early last night, Dan D. Sanford, 68 years of age, of No. 504 Buckeye street, Pasadena, was taken to the Receiving Hospital with a fracture of the left ankle and other injuries about the body. The truck was driven away immediately following the accident.

According to Mr. Sanford, the driver of the machine cut the corner at Third street and Santa Fe avenue while driving at a high rate of speed.

TO URGE ORDINANCE.

Gasoline Dealers Would do Away with Poor Product—First Dinner Well Attended.

Representatives of the Independent Petroleum Marketers' Association will appear before the Public Safety Committee of the City Council to urge the passage of an ordinance to standardize the gasoline sold in Los Angeles. This ordinance was recently introduced.

The association held its first dinner last night at the Hollenbeck and appointed a committee of six to appear before the Public Safety Committee. The advisability of an advertising campaign was discussed at length and a plan for co-operative advertising of all independent petroleum products will soon be devised, it is stated.

The meeting was presided over by John Topham. Those present were T. W. Okey, G. B. Gallagher, W. J. Wallace, E. B. Gilmore, George L. Machris, A. P. Machris, Victor Machris, A. E. Hurley, T. W. Strobridge, S. Fleisher, John Bacigalupi, Frank P. W. Hill, W. F. Mitchell, G. H. Gillons, J. F. Vordemark, Charles W. Bowman, G. L. Holton, F. R. Kellogg and J. A. Brown. Mr. Okey is president and Mr. Gallagher secretary.

WATER USERS WIN.

Ordering that all deposits made by consumers for water connections shall be returned, and that the charge be immediately discontinued, the State Railroad Commission handed down a decision yesterday on the complaint brought by John Neugier and C. H. M. Shibley against J. Benton Van Nuys and others. The complaints alleged that a deposit of $20 was required before they could secure water connections to certain property in San Gabriel.

AMERICAN FIGHTS FOR THE FRENCH.

SAN BERNARDINO MAN, WOUNDED BY A SHELL, LIES IN TRENCH THREE DAYS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, Dec. 14.—The American volunteers are now fighting near Lille. One of them, Herbert Lytton, of San Bernardino, Cal., was brought to Paris wounded by a shell splinter four inches long, which entered his spine.

The Californian lay paralyzed in the trenches three days before he was picked up, but he has regained the use of his limbs and speech, thanks to active operation by Dr. Theodore Rice of New York, who removed the splinter. Lytton says the American contingent is doing splendidly.

GERMAN INVASION OF POLAND FAILS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Dec. 15, 5:19 a.m.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Times says:

"The German invasion reached its high-water mark last Saturday. Having failed to undermine and overthrow the Russian wall, the invasion has now ceased to threaten a further inroad into Poland and interest is stimulated in the next move of the Russian staff, which a few days ago intimated that the Russian armies were ready to retire to more favorable positions behind Warsaw.

"Now that the Russian army has splendidly responded to the situation, this will not be necessary, and the next move will be a maneuver toward the German flank."

MAY CONFISCATE SAGAN ESTATE.

BRESLAU, Dec. 14 (via Berlin to London, Dec. 15, 12:55 a.m.)—The Breslaur Zeitung demands the confiscation of the principality of Sagan, which stands in the name of Prince Howard of Sagan, son of Duke Helie and the Duchess of Talleyrand. The Duchess was Anna Gould of New York. The confiscation is demanded as a reprisal against the alleged confiscation of German property in France.

The principality of Sagan embraces the handsome castle of Sagan and twenty-four estates, aggregating 60,000 acres. Duke Helie renounced his title of Prince of Sagan in favor of his son at the time of his father's death in 1910.

ILLINOIS GRAIN FOR THE BELGIANS.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Grain for the relief of famine sufferers in Belgium is to be contributed by the farmers of Illinois and the slogan of the subcommittee appointed today to hasten the shipment of the cereals is "a carload of grain from every shipping station in Illinois."

The plan is to utilize the elevators at all stations in Illinois to receive and hold contributions from individual farmers. Arrangements have been made to haul the grain to the coast without cost and it will then be transported by the Rockefeller Foundation to Belgium. A similar organization in Iowa has contributed more than 100,000 bushels and the Illinois committee hopes to exceed that amount.

SCHWAB STATEMENT PRINTED IN BERLIN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Dec. 14 (via London, Dec. 15, 2:45 a.m.)—Most of the newspapers here printed yesterday Secretary of State Bryan's announcement that Charles M. Schwab had informed him that the Fore River Shipbuilding Company would submit to the views of President Wilson and not build submarine boats for any of the European belligerents.

GERMAN RETREAT IS CONFIRMED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROTTERDAM, Dec. 15 (via London, 3:45 a.m.)—The newspaper La Belgique says that the retreat of the Germans toward prepared positions east of the Yser is confirmed. Masses of troops have been concentrated along a line embracing Bruges, Thielt and Courtrai, with general headquarters at Thielt.

British Crew is Landed.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

CALLAO (Peru) Dec. 14.—The German steamer Rhakotis has landed here the crew of the British collier North Wales, which was sunk off the coast of Chile some time ago by the German cruiser Dresden after the Dresden had taken her coal. The British Consul provided the men with lodgings and will send them by steamer to Panama.

Dutch Seize Sixteen Vessels.

LONDON, Dec. 15, 3:09 a.m.—The Daily Chronicle's Amsterdam correspondent says sixteen vessels containing grain, which the Germans sent from Antwerp, have been detained by the Dutch at Hansweert, Holland, at the mouth of the River Scheldt.

Classified Liners.

Times Classified rates: The rate for inserting Want Ads in the Daily Times is 1c per word each insertion; in the Sunday issue, 1½c per word each insertion; minimum charge, 25c; except under the following classifications, the rate for which is 2c per word daily, 3c per word Sunday, minimum charge 50c daily, 25c Sunday: "Society Meetings," "Personals," "Special Notices," "Church Notices," "Miscellaneous," "Stocks and Bonds," "Money to Loan," "Money Wanted," "Real Estate," "Chattels," "Medical," "Detectives," "Sanatoriums" and "Baths and Massage."

Minimum space for classified advertisements ordered for more than one insertion, 14 words.

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in The Times office before 8 o'clock Saturday night. Other classified "Want," "To Let," etc., received over counter or by telephone until 11 p.m., Saturday. Ads received after closing hours for each division will be inserted under heading "Too Late to Classify." Rate 1½ cents per word.

The Sunday circulation of The Times exceeds 85,000 copies, and more "liners" are regularly printed in its columns than in the two other Los Angeles newspapers combined.

Telephone your want advertisements. Ring up "The Times," Main 8200, Home 10201, any time of day or night, and secure prompt and careful attention.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephone advertisements.

The Times will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times in payment for "liners," as no mistake can be rectified without them.

The Times will not accept phone or verbal orders to discontinue or change "till forbid" advertisements.

The Times constantly endeavors to render its patrons satisfactory and efficient service, and it will appreciate complaints of, and make a proper adjustment for any material errors it may make in printed matter.

"Be quick to kick if things seem wrong. But kick to us, and make it strong."

DISTANT SERVICE FOR TIMES PATRONS.

For the convenience of persons who may desire to reply to classified advertisements printed in The Times, send communications to this newspaper, and have letters and other advertisements inserted. Answer letter boxes have been placed in various downtown buildings for the purpose indicated. Collections will be made from these boxes every hour.

Each piece of advertising copy must contain the name and address of the advertiser, number of letter box, or initials by which it is desired that the announcement be printed.

FOR SALE—

IN THE "BLUE RIBBON" DISTRICT.

NORTH WHITTIER HEIGHTS.

LEMON, ORANGE, GRAPEFRUIT AND WALNUT LAND.

TRACTS OF 5 ACRES AND UP.

ALSO YOUNG PLANTED GROVES.

The North Whittier Heights property is located on the slopes of the Whittier hills and in close proximity to the celebrated Whittier citrus and walnut district, which other sections concede to be the leads in citrus and walnut orchards that pay, and in general prosperity.

It is being sold in unclanted tracts of 5 to 50 acres, or in tracts planted to lemon, orange, grapefruit and grafted walnut trees and on easy terms if desired. We will also contract to plant and care for orchards for those who desire to have us do so. Many of the most successful orchardists of the Southland have invested in this property, which is an assurance that it has the soil, water and climatic conditions necessary for the greate, success and, in its desirability for an ideal suburban home site, it is without a peer in all the Southland.

We shall be pleased to take prospective buyers out by auto to see this property and district any day in the week. Call, phone or write for full information and descriptive folder.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD

Civic Center Meeting.

The Twentieth-street Civic Center will meet this evening at the Twentieth-street school for the consideration of important neighborhood matters. A good attendance is desired.

Dr. Johnson on Unemployed.

Dr. Millbank Johnson, chairman of the Municipal Charities Commission, will address the brotherhood of the First Presbyterian Church this evening on "What Shall the City do to Meet the Needs of the Unemployed?" The meeting will be held in the church auditorium

Colorado Christmas Tree.

The Colorado Society will have a Christmas tree Friday evening in the Friday Morning Clubhouse, No. 940 South Figueroa street. There will be presents for all, with a programme followed by dancing and cards. All former Colorado residents will be welcomed.

Motorcycle Injury.

J. Ralph Campbell, a collector for the Board of Trade, residing at No. 1431 West Thirty-eighth street, was painfully injured in the groin yesterday when his motorcycle hit a delivery wagon at Thirty-sixth street and Vermont avenue.

Girl's Ankle Fractured.

Vera Havaland, 5 years old, No. 402 North Hill street, sustained a fracture of the left ankle yesterday when she was run down by an automobile driven by W. P. Treichel of Paulina, Or., Mr. Treichel took the girl to the Receiving Hospital and then to her home.

Runs Down, Drives on.

F. M. Hull of No. 757 South Alvarado street, a linotype operator employed by The Times, sustained severe abrasions of the face and body yesterday when he was run down by an automobile at Sixth and Flower streets. The driver did not stop to aid him. Mr. Hull was riding a bicycle.

No Blame for Death.

Following an investigation yesterday, Coroner Hartwell signed a certificate of accidental death in the case of Mrs. S. J. Snyder, who was fatally injured December 4 when an automobile in which she was riding collided with a street car at Twelfth street and Grand avenue.

Harris Goes It Alone.

Control of the Knick-Harris special patrol was taken over yesterday by Nick Harris. This follows the retirement of F. A. Knick, who will soon go to San Diego. Twenty-six special Harris policemen are patroling the residence districts, and Mr. Harris has just opened an office at Third street and Normandie avenue.

Warmth for Belgian Children.

The net result of the "War Zone Talks" given in the Ebell Clubhouse on the evening of the 5th inst., was a cash fund of $102. It was expended in Los Angeles for forty-five dozen children's underwear and fifteen dozen children's hose, which have been forwarded for the relief of the Belgian refugees.

Road Work for Many.

One hundred men were put to work by the county yesterday repairing breaks made by last winter's storms, and it is expected that fifty more men and twenty teams will be given similar employment tomorrow. This will make a total of more than 500 men given employment on road and flood control work by the county in the last two weeks.

Call for Investigation.

About a dozen women, representing the Executive Committee of the Congress of Mothers of the first district, composed of the city and adjacent towns, met yesterday in the Hall of Records and passed resolutions demanding an immediate investigation of conditions at Juvenile Hall. They also passed a vote of entire confidence in Mrs. P. T. Anderson, the deposed probation officer.

Deserving Case.

The United Charities has interested itself in the case of a boy of 19, recently from Memphis, and point to whose appeal for work is lent by the fact that both his legs have been cut off at the knee. He can still walk, after a fashion, and an effort is being made to get him a place where he can learn one of the trades that do not require much walking or standing—such as bench work or cigar-making. He will serve his apprenticeship for room and board. Anyone who can help him is asked to notify the United Charities, No. 121 West Temple street. phones F5206 or Main 8266.

What Shall Solons Discuss?

Preparatory to starting work on the programme for the meeting of the legislators-elect at the Chamber of Commerce Friday and Saturday, the committee in charge of the affairs issued a request yesterday to interested organizations that Secretary Wiggins be immediately notified of the subjects they wish to discuss. The opening session will begin at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

And No Defeats.

SIX VICTORIES IN SUCCESSION.

FIELD DAY FOR LOS ANGELES INVESTMENT COMPANY.

Five Judges Rule Favorably to the Corporation in Cases Similar to Many Pending and Planned. "Money Back" Denied to Several Where No Good Cause is Shown.

Yesterday was a day of victories for the Los Angeles Investment Company in the local Superior Court; verdicts favorable having been rendered in six cases. A majority of these were brought by stockholders attempting to rescind purchases on grounds of misrepresentation of the stock. One of these was brought by Dewitt E. Slocum, who declared that at the time of purchase he was a minor and that therefore the sale to him was illegal.

Judge Wellborn, on hearing that the plaintiff had waited more than eight months after coming of legal age to bring the action, refused to rescind, holding that the time elapsed between purchase and action was unreasonable. He however granted the plaintiff's attorney a week to secure evidence to the contrary.

In Departments One, Six and Seven judges refused Henry Knodell, Thomas W. Draper, Martha Cooper and Mary Cooper, respectively, the privilege of returning their stock for money invested. In the case of Knodell, the plaintiff admitted the correctness of the demurrer. In the other three cases, demurrers entered by Attorney Tuller for the Los Angeles Investment Company showing the impracticability of returning money invested and lack of reason for so doing, were all sustained.

Three cases of the same kind scheduled on the calendar of Department Four were held over at the request of the plaintiffs, Carrie and Karl Kauffman and Walter K. Mitchell. Date was not set for another hearing.

C. L. Bagley, in Department Four, failed to obtain a transfer to higher court of the hearing of the suit of the investment company against him for the collection of $46,000 due. The United States Supreme Court, on similar actions, has ruled against a transfer and the court therefore set the date for the Bagley trial for March 18.

"The rulings of the majority of judges of the Superior bench today in favor of the Los Angeles Investment Company will effectually stop a great many similar suits to secure a return of money spent for stock of the company," said Attorney Tuller, appearing for the law firm of O'Melveny, Stevens & Millikan. "The rulings will also have direct bearing on numerous suits that have already been filed and are set for dates in the near future."

THOSE DUM-DUMS FOUND.

The mooted question of which belligerent carries dum-dum cartridges came up in Police Court yesterday. Raymond Robertson said he is not a fighting man, but admitted having fifty dum-dums and an automatic pistol in his possession. He was sentenced to sixty days in jail by Judge White.

HOW GOOD THAT MUSTEROLE FEELS

It Gets to That Sore Spot Like Magic

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard and other home simples.

It does the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, minus the plaster and minus the blister!

You simply rub MUSTEROLE on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone.

No muss, no bother. Just comforting, soothing relief — first a gentle glow, then a delightful sense of coolness. And best of all, no blisters like the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to make.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet and Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia.)

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. H. T. Sinclair and Mrs. F. A. Hennessey of Nordhoff are in Los Angeles on a pleasure trip. They are registered at the Clark.

R. D. Richards and daughter, Miss Maude Elizabeth, No. 2208 South Western avenue, have returned from San Francisco. They passed two weeks in that city and vicinity.

Guests at the Hollenbeck include E. W. Settlers, miner from Death Valley; Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Spencer of San Luis Obispo; Parker Barrett, oil operator, and Fred W. Tegler, hotel owner, both of Bakersfield.

Cave J. Couts, wealthy ranch owner of San Juan Capistrano and one of the heirs of Mrs. Arcadia de Baker, is at the Angelus and also R. H. Tuttle, division superintendent of the Santa Fe Railroad at Winslow.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Taylor of Boston are at the Alexandria. Among other guests are P. L. Foster, dry goods merchant of New York City; and M. W. Sperry, motor car manufacturer, and Mrs. Sperry of Detroit.

Hugh Boyd, newspaper publisher of Brunswick, N. J., has returned to Los Angeles for the winter season and is registered at the Westminster. He brought his motor car as in former seasons and is prepared to enjoy six months in the southland.

The arrivals at the Clark yesterday included the following: R. D. Yoakum, lumber dealer of Austin; John Joseph, grape grower, and Mrs. Joseph of Fresno; D. A. Miller, lumber dealer of Seattle, and C. M. Kellogg, banker of San Francisco.

Among the guests at the Stowell are Dr. F. P. Dennis of Orange, Guy N. Travilla, expert diver, appearing here this week, who obtained his early training at Santa Catalina Island; M. L. Hopper, shoe dealer, and Mrs. Hopper of Portland, and A. T. Carlton, oil operator of Phoenix.

Jack London, the fiction writer, is in Los Angeles on a business trip, registered at the Alexandria. Other guests at the same hotel are Max Grab, dry goods merchant of New York City; William F. Ryan, bond broker of New York City, and H. H. Williams, grain dealer, and Mrs. Williams of Chicago.

BUS MEN ORGANIZE.

Get Attorney to Look After Their Rights and Want Regulation to Include Street Car Men.

The Automobile Owners' and Drivers' Association, composed principally of drivers of the jitney busses, has retained Attorney William Durham as general counsel and has requested him to keep them continually in their rights.

In addition, Attorney Durham is drawing up an ordinance which is to be placed before the City Council asking regulation of the auto busses and including therein all drivers of public vehicles, motormen of street cars not excepted. The association contends that at the present time the city has no right to call for an examination of "jitney" bus drivers when request for license is made, on the grounds that this is in violation of the constitutional rights of a citizen in the enjoyment of his property, and insists that if drivers must go through such an examination, motormen on street cars should have to do likewise.

A Foe to Tuberculosis

The Journal of the American Medical Association, in its issue of August 9, 1913, reviewing an article on "The Influence of Calcium Salts on Constitution and Health," said:

"They (the authors) report numbers of concrete instances in which patients gained in vitality and energy after taking calcium."

Doctors seem to agree that in tuberculosis and chronic throat and bronchial affections, lowered vitality and lost energy are conditions that must be overcome.

One of the constituents of Eckman's Alterative is calcium (lime,) so combined with other ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the average person. To this, in part, is due its widespread success in the treatment of these distressing and disastrous troubles.

By preventing, as well as arresting the ravages of the tubercle bacilli, Eckman's Alterative performs a service, which even some ethical practitioners have acknowledged to their patients. We do not make wholesale claims for it, but our knowledge of what it has done warrants the statement that IT CAN HELP.

It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, hence a trial is safe. Should your druggist be out of it, you can order through or direct from the makers.

CAMELS SEEKING FAKE ORGANIZER.

ORGANIZATION WANTS MAN WHO MADE BILLS BEHIND ITS NAME.

The Camels of the World, a little-heard-of national organization with head offices in Los Angeles, is seeking J. Ryan, who, it is charged, pretended to be an organizer for the order and by the merit of that introduction is alleged to have secured much valuable credit in Salt Lake City. Burt B. Bloom, Supreme Commissioner of the Camels of the World, with offices in the Black building, denied yesterday that he knew any J. Ryan and that such a person had any authority from the order to transact any business.

According to Mr. Bloom a person signing himself "J. Ryan" wrote to the Supreme Commissioner asking if the territory incorporating Salt Lake City and Butte was available for an organizer familiar with conditions there. Mr. Bloom answered him that the territory was available, but the letter, after being forwarded from several cities, was finally returned to the Supreme Commissioner, not having been called for. Nothing more was heard from the inquisitive Mr. Ryan until yesterday.

In the mails came frantic inquiries from Salt Lake City about this organizer who had been busy in a certain way. It is alleged his principal activity was in amassing debts for board and room, and he is also charged with having collected fees, the payment of which bestowed empty honors and standing. Mr. Bloom notified the police of Salt Lake City yesterday regarding the alleged delinquency of Mr. Ryan.

SENTENCE DELAYED.

In the United States District Court yesterday the matter of sentencing Charles S. McKelvey and W. H. Stevens, convicted of using the mails in a blackmail proposition, went over for two weeks, on account of the absence of their attorney, S. M. Johnston.

PUBLICITY AS CITY BUILDER.

Exposition Chief Lauds Good Done San Diego.

Ten Thousand from Here Plan to See Opening.

Publicity as a city-builder and sovereign antidote for business depression was lauded here yesterday by G. A. Davidson, president of the Panama-California Exposition and of the Southern Trust and Savings Bank of San Diego.

"San Diego had 35,000 people when we first started talking exposition five years ago," said Mr. Davidson. "Today it has 90,000 people and is still growing. Seventy-five per cent. of this wonderful growth is due to the publicity we have obtained from the exposition."

With $10,000,000 invested in buildings and exhibits and not a cent of indebtedness, the exposition will open at 12:01 a.m. January 1, to an attendance that will confound all prophesies, according to Mr. Davidson.

"I believe that 90 per cent. of those who come to California in 1915 will visit San Diego, and Los Angeles by the way," said Mr. Davidson. "I also firmly believe that no expositions ever opened under fairer auspices than our two in California will open, for the European war has diverted the attention of many—and they among the most prosperous of our inhabitants—to our own country. I believe that 1915 will be by far the biggest year in the State's history."

As an old railroad man, the only one who ever climbed to the presidency of a great exposition, Mr. Davidson has his eye on traffic conditions. While here for a two-day's visit, beginning Sunday, he talked with many traffic men, and left last night assured that the railroads are making extra preparations to handle the travel the coming year.

OUR OWN.

"The San Diego exposition is California's own exposition," said Mr. Davidson. "It is an exhibit of our life and our products and possibilities. We expect all Southlanders' aid in making it a success, and bespeak the aid of all the people of the Southwest, for the flavor of our exposition is the flavor, among other things, of Southwestern life."

That the Southland and the Southwest are forward with best wishes for the beautiful show is shown by the fact that the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association is fostering a movement to get 10,000 Los

MILLION SMUDGE POTS SET OUT FOR J. FROST.

Mercury Hits the Danger Line in Exposed Places, but Damage is Small Except to the Tenderest Vegetation — Forecaster Says There will be Little to Fear Until After the Holidays.

ENTRENCHED under cover of a battery of 1,000,000 firepots, with videttes hourly scanning the thermometers for signs of a sally of Jack Frost from his mountain lair, the fruit growers of the State stand ready to battle to the death for the safety of their $35,000,000 citrus crop.

According to the white paper of the United States Weather Bureau and the rule of averages, there is little real danger from the great white terror until after Christmas. The frost of last night and the night before did no damage, except to tender vegetation, though the mercury at both Pomona and San Bernardino dropped to 28 deg. This is usually considered the danger point with owners of unprotected groves.

Though counselling growers to be continually on their guard, United States Weather Forecaster Carpenter asserted yesterday that the records show that killing frost in Southern California is more a case of nerves than a real danger this early in the season.

"The freeze of 1912-13 is the only one of its kind on record," he said. "Yet our records, by inference, run back 145 years to the time when the padres planted a cactus hedge at San Diego Mission. This hedge went unscathed through frost after frost until the winter of 1912-13, when it was severely damaged. In the Weather Bureau's own records from 1849 to date, the 1912-13 frost period stands out as the only one in which severe damage occurred."

SMUDGING BEGINS.

No reports of frost damage were received yesterday by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, though all districts reported the frost patrols as active and smudging being done in exposed groves. At the office of the Fruit Growers' Supply Company, it was asserted that the growers have 5,000,000 gallons of distillate on hand for "firing." This is sufficient oil for two nights of continuous "firing."

NOW ASKING COUNCIL TO FLOP ONCE MORE.

Forces Behind Charter Amendments at Work on City Solons for Reconsideration of Thirty-thousand-dollar Election Ordinance — Movement Takes Definite Form with Earl-Haynes Combination Cracking the Whip.

A DEFINITE movement is afoot to get the City Council to reconsider its action in killing the $30,000 special election ordinance and go on record in favor of submitting the ten proposed charter amendments to the people on the last day of this year.

This movement is based upon the theory that if three Councilmen flopped once, twice or thrice, they can flop again with equal consistency.

The Council passed a resolution declaring it to be its intention to call an election on the 31st inst. The ordinance fixing voting precinct boundaries and naming judges, in other words, providing the election machinery based upon that resolution, was killed Saturday. The votes of President Whiffen and Councilmen Bryant and Williams, which were changed overnight to support the resolution, after they said they wouldn't, are the same votes that made possible the defeat of the ordinance Saturday when they switched.

But the Council did not take any action in rescinding the original resolution. This, the City Attorney holds, is still operative, and the election ordinance may be passed under it up to within five days preceding the date set for the election.

The movement to get the Council to reconsider was given impetus yesterday when eighty members of the Women's City Club, as individuals, signed a petition to the Council asking it to change its voting mind. Another communication signed by the Charter Amendment Committee of One Hundred was also addressed to the Council. This campaign committee believes there is still hope for the amendments being voted upon before the Legislature convenes, and yesterday opened headquarters in the Hollingsworth building. From this place the committee aims to carry on a campaign just as if the Council had paved the way for the election.

FOR FINAL ASSAULT.

The forces at work behind the Efficiency Commission's charter programme yesterday gathered strength to make a final assault upon the Council in an effort to force the reconsideration of the action tabling the ordinance. Efficiency Director Burks appeared before the Women's City Club and discussed the amendments from every angle. He seemed hopeful that the cause he has championed is not yet lost.

The constitutional amendment passed at the polls in November which relates to charter elections has caused all the confusion into which the whole matter has fallen. This amendment provides that cities may adopt complete new charters at any time, even during the session of a Legislature, and have that same session ratify the election. But in the matter of charter amendments, the election must be held before a session and not during it, unless, in the Theft Bureau.

ORGANIZED TO HUNT DOWN AUTO THIEVES.

MOVED to action by the systematic thefts of cars, the Automobile Club of Southern California has created a "theft bureau" to promote the recovery of stolen cars and the prosecution of the thieves. It has the backing of the 6500 members of the club, who own 2800 insured cars.

The new bureau is under the management of Ralph Reynolds and the official title of the theft bureau is the Inter-insurance Exchange of the Automobile Club of Southern California. One striking instance of the necessity for such a bureau was furnished by the Superior Court last week in the case of George Kelly, who was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary. He confessed that he had stolen more than twenty-five cars a month for more than a year, and that he realized a splendid income from the operations.

The existence of organized gangs that are preying upon motorists is well known to the authorities, and the extent of their depredations, as fully exposed in The Times, involves an industry that bleeds the motoring public of more than $500,000 a year, besides causing endless trouble. It is this industry which the new bureau intends to eradicate.

The valuable automobile of George H. Pike was stolen recently from its stand near the Consolidated Realty building. The loss was reported to the local officials, but through agents of the automobile club it was learned that the machine was in San Diego. Chase was given and the machine was detected as it was driven toward the border by the thieves.

The pursuers realised that the car would pass the international boundary, and therefore out of American jurisdiction, unless unusual action was taken, so the gasoline tank of the stolen machine was riddled by shots from their revolvers, and the fuel gradually leaked away, stopping the fugitives before they reached the line.

With the establishment of the theft bureau, the old bureau for the detection of auto thieves, operated from the District Attorney's office by the insurance companies, will be disbanded. The Chief of Police has a strong special detail after auto thieves and that department and the Sheriff's office have expressed a willingness to co-operate with the theft bureau. All employees of the bureau will be given the proper authority to make arrests.

It is the intention of the bureau to employ a squad of motorcycle scouts to patrol the congested districts and highways. Relentless pursuit will follow the disappearance of each motor car, and the local judges have indicated the extent of their powerful assistance by establishing the standard of severity of punishment expressed in the sentence of six years given Kelly.

LAYS BIG ODDS AGAINST NOOSE.

"Hundred to One I Go Free," Says Frank Nutall.

Said to Show Plot Against Rich Old Woman.

One year ago today in a Grand-avenue boarding-house, Frank J. Nutall, 28 years of age, met Mrs. Helen McCombs, 70 years old, a wealthy eastern widow. Yesterday he was placed on trial in Judge Craig's court charged with having murdered her for her $30,000 estate. The jury was selected yesterday and the introduction of testimony will begin this morning.

The debonair defendant's fate hangs in a large degree in a bundle of lovemissives alleged to have been penned by Nutall to the woman old enough to be his grandmother. These epistles are in the possession of the prosecution and, according to Deputy District Attorney Shannon, form the strongest link in the chain of circumstantial evidence woven about the accused.

Nutall only laughed when informed that the State had the letters. In fact he smiled continually during the court proceedings and said the chances are 100 to 1 in his favor. Deputy Shannon, who is prosecuting the case, believes the contents of the letters will prove conclusively to the jurors that Nutall deliberately lured Mrs. McCombs to her death on the mountain road in Laurel Canyon.

STATE'S CASE.

Deputy Shannon will produce circumstantial evidence to prove that Nutall made love to the aged widow and, after inducing her to make a will in his favor, giving him the bulk of her $30,000 estate, purposely frightened her into jumping out of an automobile while it was descending a steep road at the summit of Lookout Mountain. He contends that Nutall intended to cause her to end her life under circumstances indicating an accident, because they had quarreled and there was reason to believe she would shun his company and make a new will in favor of near relatives. He says he will also prove that Nutall, although he had a wife living in Gardena, posed as an unmarried man and had promised to marry the widow. Also that he consulted a fortune teller

PICTURE CLEARS DEATH MYSTERY.

WOMAN WHO KILLED HERSELF AT SANTA BARBARA IS IDENTIFIED.

The identification of "Mrs. Alice G. Bush" as Mrs. Frances Allen of Los Angeles was established yesterday beyond the shadow of a doubt by L. E. Gagnier, the Santa Barbara undertaker, when he saw Mrs. Allen's picture as reproduced in The Times.

The picture was taken to the hotel men and by them at once identified as that of the woman who had registered at the Arlington and Edgerly apartments at Santa Barbara, as "Mrs. Bush of Chicago," later taking her own life.

"This absolutely removes all doubt and establishes the identity of the deceased," said Mr. Gagnier.

The vault was opened and the features of the dead compared with the picture of Mrs. Allen and Coroner Ruiz officially stated that the remains are those of Mrs. Allen. Late in the afternoon Undertaker Gagnier received instructions from Mrs. Allen's relatives in New York to have the remains taken to Rosedale Cemetery and buried beside those of her husband. This will be done tomorrow.

SECURES LIBERTY FOR MINUTE ONLY.

ALLEGED UNDESIRABLE WOMAN WILL FACE CHARGES OF FEDERAL OFFICERS.

Freed from custody without a struggle, Mrs. H. S. Bettinger of Bakersfield was arrested again yesterday on the same charge almost within the minute. It is alleged she is an undesirable alien, while she claims citizenship through an eleventh-hour marriage.

Her freedom was won in the United States District Court, when it was shown the warrant on which she was arrested was signed by the Assistant Secretary of Labor while the Secretary was in Washington—an unauthorized act. The new arrest was made with a warrant signed legally by the Secretary.

It is charged that Mrs. Bettinger, a Frenchwoman, about 65 years of age, has been connected with immoral resorts in Bakersfield. She married Bettinger recently, two days after she had been arrested for deportation as an undesirable alien. Bettinger is an American citizen. Claiming citizenship because of this, the woman registered as a Democrat the same day she changed her name.

She will now press habeas corpus proceedings.

"OTHER WOMAN" KILLS HIS CASE.

Bumiller Fails to Get Any Alimony Reduction.

Admits He and Mrs. Mayhew Still Go Together.

Has to Borrow Money to Pay Ordered Support.

The application of Joseph F. Bumiller for a reduction of alimony which he was ordered by the court to pay at the time Mrs. Eckley B. Bumiller obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce, was denied by Judge Monroe yesterday after a hearing which brought to the stand the three members of the eternal triangle.

In denying the application, the court declared that he hated matters to come up in which his acquaintances are involved, but, he went on:

"When they do come up, I decide them just the same."

His decision did not spare Mr. Bumiller. Mrs. Bumiller won her divorce on the ground of the misconduct of Mr. Bumiller with Mrs. Mabel Mayhew. On the stand yesterday Mr. Bumiller complained that he had not seen his children.

"As far as that is concerned," said the court, "Mrs. Bumiller has the matter in her own hands. The suit for divorce was brought on the ground of adultery. Both the defendant and the co-respondent made a default. Since the case was tried it is admitted by both Mr. Bumiller and Mrs. Mayhew that they have been in each other's company; that he has been to dinner with her and then went to her apartments at the Fuller-Golden apartments. Under those circumstances, no order can be made in regard to the children."

The evidence of Mr. Bumiller showed that he retained his membership in the California Club. He said it cost him about $15 a month.

"I don't think the court should reduce the alimony as long as Mr. Bumiller has anything to do with the co-respondent," said the court, "and the money he pays for club expenses will not be considered."

Mr. Bumiller testified that he had earned since April 13, last, when the alimony order of $250 a month was made, only $1150. He said that he had borrowed $2800, and spent it principally for alimony.

"Why did you name $250 a month as alimony for your wife?" he was asked.

SAYS HASN'T IT.

"It was with the expectation that I could make it. I wanted my family to have it. I was more generous than my means allowed."

"What is the present status of the real estate business?"

"It is absolutely flat," was the reply.

"I suppose your honor will take judicial cognizance of what the business is now?" queried the attorney.

"I don't know why I should," retorted the court.

"Why don't you try something else?" the court inquired.

"I think I will have to pretty soon," replied Mr. Bumiller.

"Are you able to meet the payment of $250 a month?" the attorney asked.

"No, the condition of my business does not warrant it."

Under cross-examination Mr. Bumiller admitted, as he had previously, that he had spent an average of $25 a month in entertaining Mrs. Mayhew. He had no knowledge of meeting two of his daughters while he was in her company.

"You have been on the street with her haven't you?" asked the court.

"I have, yes," was the admission.

WHAT SHE SAYS.

When Mrs. Mayhew was called she was asked how many times she had been out with Mr. Bumiller since June 15.

"I haven't figured it out," she replied. She admitted she had been taken to dinner by him once a week until October 1, and only once or twice since then. She denied that he gave her money or spent anything for her clothes.

"Has he taken you to any other place?" asked the court.

"Yes, to the movies."

"Has he gone to your apartments?"

"Occasionally, for dinner."

Mr. Mayhew, the husband, who is separated from his wife, was a candid witness. He said he gave his wife money.

"She knows any time she wants money, all she has to do is to phone me and get it."

"Do you know whether Mr. Bumiller has given her money?"

"I should hope not," he replied.

LABOR BAROMETER.

Bible Institute Evangelist Declares Indications Point to Better Conditions Than Last Year.

At the "Mars Hill" meeting held on Los Angeles street, between First and Second, on Sunday night, William Mullen, who conducts the street work of the Bible Institute, carefully polled the crowd. There were 1600 men, he declares, and he feels that despite the hard-times cry the conditions are much better than at the same time last year.

Out of this great crowd on Sunday night, but 120 accepted the free supper, whereas at the same time last year the average number was close to 400. In the entire crowd, but two of the sixteen men who claimed to be residents of Los Angeles out of work, professed to be destitute. These two were told by Mr. Mullen to register with him at the close of the meeting and he would see that they had work the next day. That they failed to do so was sufficient proof to the evangelist that they were not residents of the city. The other fourteen assented to the statement that while they are out of work they are not destitute. Those who ate the free supper were all single men and all non-residents, making a good showing for the local labor situation.

soon after making her acquaintance and then boasted to certain women friends that he had been given a "love powder" that would make the woman madly infatuated with him. Deputy District Attorney Richardson will be one of the star witnesses for the State. It is alleged that Nutall made damaging statements to him after his arrest, among others one to the effect that Mrs. McCombs had not drawn a will in his favor.

Attorney Domingues, for the defense, claims that the death of Mrs. McCombs was due to an accident and that Nutall did not plan it.

LOVE LETTERS.

The State says Nutall wrote Mrs. McCombs at least once a day while she was living in San Francisco. Dated February 6, one letter is in part as follows:

"My Dear Helen: I want to know if you and I are sweethearts or just friends. Now you have a chance to square yourself and renew your sweetheart and husband so act quick. I want you to answer at once. Why don't you leave San Francisco and come down here and you and I will be married at once? Now if you care enough about me I want to know. Of course talk is cheap and I want to know if you really mean business. Now come, but if you think more of friends up there in 'Frisco than me that's up to you. Lovingly, Frank."

A letter February 8 says in part: "I am so lonesome; I wish you were here today; we would go to one of the beaches. I don't see why you don't come back, dearie. I suppose you have a reason. I wish you would not be so fickle. You sometimes want me and then sometimes you don't care. I would like to have a heart-to-heart talk with you. This is a better town than San Francisco, and the climate is much better. If you have a sweetheart up there I am pleased that you are happy, because I wouldn't want to deprive you of any pleasure, but I don't think you have a sweetheart up there, but he is down here in Los Angeles. So please leave there at once and come here, where you will be happy ever after. I will say by-by, with oceans of love and a shipload of kisses. Your devoted and loving sweetheart. FRANK."

On February 13: "If you love me as much as you say, what is a little money in a lifetime? Why, don't you send me a check for $50 or $100? I'll be only too glad to go up and bring you back. But dearie, I haven't any money. I would give you a bear hug if you were here. Lovingly yours, "FRANK."

Scores of similar letters were written by the accused to the gray-haired widow, according to the prosecution.

DEFENSE'S CASE.

Attorney Domingues claims the brakes failed to work, and that, after losing control of the machine, Nutall drove it against the embankment on the uphill side to prevent it from running farther down the hill. Deputy Shannon admits the car did not go over the embankment into the ravine, but that Mrs. McCombs was killed by jumping.

The defendant's counsel used twelve peremptory challenges and the State four, and three talesmen were excused for cause.

Nutall was dressed in a light checkered suit and appeared perfectly at ease. His young wife, who refused to have anything to do with him after the details of the alleged murder were published, will testify for her husband. The State has also summoned the wife to appear as a witness, but it is reported that she will not testify against her husband. The prosecution was counting on certain damaging testimony which it was reported she could give against Nutall. Mrs. Adeline, Nutall, aged mother of the defendant, sat with his wife and her sister, Mrs. Charles Madden, during the monotonous examination of the prospective jurors.

Nutall will probably take the stand in his own behalf. Deputy Shannon, in his examination of the jurors, indicated that he will demand the death penalty if Nutall is convicted. Several jurors were excused because they objected to the death penalty. Two others were excused because they said they would not convict on circumstantial evidence. The case against Nutall is wholly circumstantial.

Following are the twelve jurors: John Noble, Newton J. Burrud, H. D. Kinney, U. M. Butler, C. D. Graham, A. W. Bunker, F. G. Winter, Stephen Buhr, Frank Escallier, Jr., J. N. Bribich, George C. Tucker and C. H. Paddock.

OASIS FOR TRAVELERS.

Soda Fountain Innovation for New Southern Pacific Station; Supplies to be Purchased Here.

Those who have felt the need of a stimulating draught of "fizzwater," fresh from the fountain, as preparation for a railroad trip, will have their wants supplied when the new Southern Pacific station is thrown open to the public in its entirety.

Arriving here yesterday from San Francisco to solicit bids for fixtures for the new station, General Purchasing Agent Rhoades announced that a soda fountain is to be included in the equipment of the big passenger terminal.

Though a number of the big union passenger stations of the East have drug stores as adjuncts, it is said the Los Angeles station will be the first in which a soda fountain will be featured alongside the ubiquitous cigar stand.

Mr. Rhoades expects to let the contract for the electric fixtures for the new station and for the kitchen equipment here. He stated yesterday that, under orders of President Sproule, he expects to make monthly trips here to place orders for supplies and that much stuff now purchased in the north will hereafter be bought in Los Angeles.

INDIANS MUST THIRST.

Alleged Chief Bootlegger of Soboba Reservation Pleads Guilty; May Get Stiff Sentence.

Fernando Ceredo, whom Indian Agent Hall of the Soboba Reservation says has been at the bottom of the bootlegging business there for a long time, pleaded guilty in Judge Bledsoe's court yesterday to the charge that he sold liquor to an Indian, but the matter of sentence went over until Thursday morning.

A letter was presented the court from Mr. Hall, in which it was declared that Ceredo was the chief offender on the reservation, and Judge Bledsoe refused to sentence Ceredo until Mr. Hall shall have had an opportunity to go on the stand and swear to some of his allegations. If he does, and proves his charges, Ceredo is booked for as much as the law will allow.

LICENSED IN SAN JOSE.

A marriage license was issued at San Jose yesterday to Frank Hall and Jeanne M. A. Auber, both giving Los Angeles as their home.

Principals in the Nutall Murder Trial.

Frank J. Nutall and his women relatives,

In attendance at court yesterday, the opening day of his trial for the alleged murder of Mrs. Helen McCombs. From left to right, the women are Mrs. Frank J. Nutall (who did not wish to be photographed,) Mrs. Adeline Nutall, the defendant's mother, and Mrs. Charles Madden, sister of the younger Mrs. Nutall.

Ask Council to Flop.

latter case, the action is not ratified until the next succeeding session.

It was for the purpose of having the adopted amendments ratified at the coming session that the proposed election was hurriedly arranged and successfully launched until the ordinance was killed Saturday.

The Committee of One Hundred has assurance that every possible influence will be brought to bear upon the Councilmen to effect the last grand switch.

"ABSURD," SAYS SNOWDEN.

"It is absurd," said Councilman Snowden yesterday. "Why, there isn't a chance of the ordinance passing. I can't conceive how any man who voted Saturday against that ordinance could now vote for it. The conditions haven't changed. It will take the request of one of those who voted against the ordinance to bring it up for reconsideration, and I don't believe any of them will do it."

Councilman Snowden led the opposition to the election and with Councilman Betkouski was very lonely for a time, but on Saturday these two became a majority, thanks to the flopping of President Whitten and Councilmen "Me Too" Bryant and Williams.

The Earl-Haynes political combination redoubled its efforts yesterday to force a reconsideration by the Council. This combination stands back of the demand for an election. Whether it will prove strong enough to change enough votes to win is another matter. Meyer Lissner is lined up against the Earl-Haynes forces on this issue. He is opposed to most of the matters suggested, and is against the general idea of holding an expensive election. The general election discord between Lissner and Earl has entered into city politics.

PASS KEY JOB.

A pass key thief early last night entered the home of F. M. Bell of No. 2627 Harvard boulevard, and took about $150 worth of jewelry. The Bell family was away at the time.

6% A Lasting Remembrance

Give real serious thought to this matter of Christmas giving.

Are there not certain instances where you would like to give something substantial? Something that will last far into the future—something that will continue to be a benefit and pleasure to the recipient from year to year?

Consider our 6 per cent Investment Certificates issued in amounts of $100 or any multiple thereof. Isn't there someone dear to you, to whom a gift of one of these Certificates would bring more genuine delight and happiness than anything else you could think of?

Then if it is "more blessed to give than to receive" think how much greater measure of the joy of giving you will experience from the act of bestowing so helpful a gift.

These Certificates can be given to anyone, old or young, for there is no worry or special knowledge required on the part of the recipient. Their value does not fluctuate; the interest is collected every six months by merely clipping a coupon and presenting it for payment. And above all, they are absolutely safe.

WHY A TRUST COMPANY?

Because, in the case of Title Insurance and Trust Company, its capital and reserve funds afford ample protection to the beneficiaries of an estate, while the private fortune of an individual trustee is likely, in only a few cases, to be sufficient to afford complete safety.

By naming this strong institution as executor under your will you give your estate the benefit and protection of its financial responsibility.

What It's Made Of

and also in the advertising.

Choice whole wheat is separated into kernel and outer-coat—combined with a small amount of wholesome molasses, roasted separately and skilfully blended to give Postum a delicious, snappy flavour similar to high-grade Java coffee. But Postum is free from caffeine and tannin, the drugs that make coffee harmful.

Anyone with signs of nervousness, indigestion, heart flutter, sleeplessness or other ills often caused by coffee, can learn something of value by quitting coffee and using Postum.

Delicious—Healthful—Economical

Postum now comes in two forms:
Regular Postum—must be boiled to bring out the rich flavor. 15c and 25c per package.
Instant Postum—soluble form, made in the cup with hot water instantly. 30c and 50c per tin.
Both kinds are delicious, cost per cup about the same, sold by Grocers everywhere.

YULETIDE NOT FOR ORPHANS.

Little Public Help for Santa this Year.

City's Wards Sorrow in Wreck of Hopes.

Kindness may Yet Give Them Glad Surprise.

Tuesday is not a pleasant hour any day for those who watch over the children in the Los Angeles Orphans' Home. From a time of capers and romps it has become a time for sorrow and tears. For those who are housed within the protective arms of the city know that Santa Claus is not going to call.

Just a few weeks ago it had been a busy time in the institution at Washington street and Warring avenue. The hours from 7:30 until 9, when the children came quietly along the corridors with the little gifts of drowsiness in their hands. A pillow would fly, a chair grow taut, and a snicker from under the blankets deep would give the nursery signals that the fun was on. And the attendants were not averse, and the fun not too furious, to enjoy the thrill and the chill of excitement that came surging through the home. The days were as bright as Christmas, and the spirit as romantic as the mistletoe. With the intuition of youth, the little ones who had lost their fathers and mothers through misfortune or choice—and both were represented—sensed the coming of the old fellow, who is known as Nicholas, and they wondered what he was going to bring them.

SANTA NEEDS HELP.

But the fact that they were not the only children of Santa Claus; that somehow he always had to have help in serving them. There is something about being an orphan, they say, that drops one from the lists of almost every person with a pack of toys to travel the trail of the reindeer with a sleigh and a reindeer that always had to tug and punch through the cold-cuffs of that indifferent old public, to make it realize that Santa Claus needs some help in sending presents to children who live in an orphan's nursery, and have no one to call mamma but the favorite nurse, and no one to call papa but the city marshal.

Most of the children there, ranging from 6 to 12 years, read the papers and heralded the coming of the good man of the North. They knew that a great Santa Claus ship was to sail to the lands that are cold. They read that the little children in Belgium were to have snug beds, but the children there knew something cheery so when someone was asking for support, the children there, and the demand of Yuletide. The children at the orphanage, however, knew that the people of France and England need toys when their fathers were at war, and the little ones knew they could need so much, too; and Mary Cressey said she didn't want Christmas 'cause they wanted to say "Yuru-pee," and then put her head in the pillow, for she could help but cry, as she told the others, especially when one was thinking so much on Christmas. But it would come every year.

DISAPPOINTED HOPES.

Looking around among the children they could not expect much for this year, what with all the people needing help for Santa Claus. In the days it is all right. There are the studies and the games to be played, and the little chores. But when the chill and the thrill of the Christmas spirit come into the home, it is the time for saying "Santa brings me a ring," and "Santa brings me a doll dressed in pink with yellow in the hair." They think of it when they start to say it, and sometimes they do say it with a brave shadowing of the face, but generally it is only the thought and a snuggle into the covers. And all the corridors it comes, the hopeless faces of the orphans who think the end of the year is not to dawn. Letters would be sent to Mrs. J. W. Gates, chairman of the Christmas committee, No. 1934 La Salle avenue, or to W. L. Lonyear, cashier of the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank, or to A. C. Balch at the Alexandria that presents could be sent out in time.

Time enough should come, it is a wonderful thing—wonderful Christmas morning and on the eve before Christmas, the bedtime when the attendants nerve themselves with strained faces and go among the beds, from which the sounds of the fun and frolic of old Santa had but one sound—that of tears upon the wrack.

BUILD MOTOR CARS AT HARBOR.

PLANT LET FOR PLANT TO BUILD OUT TRUCKS AND ROADSTERS.

Plans for the manufacture of low and popular-priced roadsters to be started at once by the Motor Company of Los Angeles, a suburb of Harbor City, in the harbor industrial district. The project was given out for the first time two weeks ago. The announcement was made by the company of a factory in the new industrial district. It became a possibility when the Rochester Company of this city was awarded the contract for the construction of a factory on the tract.

The manufacturing company will incorporate, each 25x100 feet and one story in height. Later, as the market grows, the plant will be enlarged. The cars to be made will be the product of the manufacturers of a distinctly Southern type, according to the statement of those interested.

The factory project for the harbor district was presented yesterday to the incorporation papers to be known as the Tuna Canning Company. The capital stock of the company is $100,000 and its announced purpose is the construction of a canning plant at Long Beach. The incorporators are Roland E. Heflon of Los Angeles, E. F. Yeomans, E. F. Hamilton of Long Beach.

-plant that Acorn- now!

You—the Mother or Father of that young boy—have you ever considered that you owe it to the lad to see that he is taught now the value of money!

Unquestionably, you want your boy to be successful, to be a man, to play a man's part throughout life, and do you realize that the essence of success is founded upon thrift—knowing the value of a Dollar.

You—the fond Mother and Father — may be planning to send your boy to college, to give him an education that will enable him to earn considerable sums of money, but unless you have instilled in this boy in childhood what it means to lay by each week, each month, each year, a definite amount of money; or in other words, unless you have given the boy a home education in systematic saving, the chances are that, no matter how brilliant, how well educated your boy may become, he will have a hard struggle in the battle of life.

Many wise Mothers and Fathers are giving their boys, and girls too, a liberal education in systematic saving through the medium of the 50 PAYMENT PLAN SAVINGS CERTIFICATES issued by this Bank.

Many parents have these certificates issued in the name of their children and are sending the young man or young girl to our Bank each week with the money necessary to make the weekly payment.

Call and let us explain the 50 PAYMENT PLAN SAVINGS CERTIFICATE to you and what this system means in educating your boy or your girl in the habit of thrift.

ONE RECEIVER; ANOTHER ASKED.

HOME BUILDING COMPANY IS IN MUCH LITIGATION.

Creditors Declare Assets, Estimated of Large Value, will go to Ruin Unless Looked After, and Make Their Point—Big Bill for Electric Power Also to Fore.

The affairs of the Gibraltar Investment and Home Building Company were involved in several actions in the Federal court yesterday. Petitioning creditors are very active, with the result that one receiver was named for the corporation and another petitioned for.

Early in the day Judge Bledsoe appointed F. S. Kelley receiver, on the petition of W. J. Polkinghorn and other creditors. It was said the property of the alleged bankrupt consists of nursery stock and trees; that it has been abandoned by the officers and agents of the company, and will go to ruin if not looked after. Receiver Kelley immediately qualified in a bond of $20,000.

Later, an action was filed in court by H. R. Bouldin, against the Gibraltar Investment and Home Building Company, N. L. Levering, J. P. Transue, W. J. Hennessey, C. C. Randall, John E. Wiles and C. B. Davis, board of directors of the corporation, praying that the assets be marshalled, the liens and priorities of all creditors and stockholders be ascertained, and a receiver be appointed. Mr. Bouldin alleges that the company is indebted to the Southern Sierras Water Company in $3780 for electric power.

The petition further sets out that the assets of the Gibraltar Investment and Home Building Company are about $1,100,000; that the value of the real estate is $700,000, on which there are incumbrances amounting to $250,000; that other assets, consisting of nursery stock and trees, are worth $395,000, and that the equity of the company is not less than $780,000 in the entire property.

The Gibraltar Investment and Home Building Company has been before the State Supreme Court recently. C. Edgar Elliott, an eastern financier, opposed the appointment of S. F. Kelley as receiver in a suit brought some time ago by other creditors. Elliott says he is a creditor to the extent of $60,000, and the court intimated that if he could prove that the action of the San Bernardino county court would be rescinded.

ESTATE "SETTLED" AGAIN.

For the third time the State Supreme Court has "disposed" of the case involving the estate of the late Martha Walden, who died in this city about six years ago, leaving an estate valued at about $200,000. After a bitter fight Judge Rives, in the local Superior Court, decided that the legal heirs of the woman were Martha Munro, Wilhelmina W. Johnston, Martha Moodie, Sarah Jane Moodie, Robert and Andrew Ross, all residing in Ireland. An appeal was taken from the judgment by Rachael P. Maher and Passalie Costa, who claimed an interest in the estate, but the court decides against them, affirming the judgment of Judge Rives.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) The greatest single stride for prosperity since the beginning of the great war was the restoration to full trading of all shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange. This step indicates the absence of all fear of foreign liquidation: of complete confidence in the stability of all American securities, and optimism for the future. Trading was active, gains ranging from $1 to $7 a share, with no losses recorded. Copper shares were especially strong on advices of higher prices abroad and an increasing demand. If there was any foreign selling it was not noticed. Enormous increases in the domestic visible supply of wheat caused bears to take profits, with a small decline in prices, though export demand somewhat increased. Reports from industrial centers all sing the same song—busy and getting busier.

(Abroad:) The Canadian government has decided to borrow $100,000,000 now and the same amount each year that the war lasts. The form of the loan is not stated.

NO HURRY.

Every two or three days somebody wires hopefully yet unofficially from Mexico City or Juarez to the effect that sooner or later the Mexicans will cease firing upon Naco. Meanwhile a few more American citizens have been shot.

QUITE LIKELY.

It is said that an adventuress who is making history for a rich man back East has managed to raise a considerable fortune in Los Angeles by trailing along with a few interesting men when they least suspected her. We have often heard that several susceptible gentlemen live in Los Angeles.

MAKING PICTURES.

The art is by no means limited to the movies. You cannot step out of a cafeteria here, if you have that vice along with your others, without having a camera stare you in the face like death or taxes, and if you have a bungalow some enterprising photographer will be there to take it with a climbing rose and your own smiling features on the doorstep three days out of a week. You owe it to your good looks to fall for this at every opportunity.

WAR AND TRADE.

Everybody is predicting that the United States will have a big share of the world's trade at the close of the European war. Our people will still be alive and our ships in good condition. The increase of business will probably amount to more than the interest and the principal of what is sent to the Belgians. Besides, our country will have all of those perfectly good Belgian orphans growing up for future usefulness. There is nothing like catching your foreign trade and orphans early.

THE HYSTERICAL HIP.

The lady who has it did not cultivate it on purpose. It was precipitated by a car accident and a jury awarded her $1500 damages. We have known several women with a hysterical laugh who ought to receive more money than that by way of consolation every day of their lives and then their accounts would not be squared if it was the fault of anybody else that they had it. When they laugh the world does not laugh with them. It can't and preserve its sense of humor. Nothing in this world is sadder than an ugly laugh. People should study laughter as a fine art. It is akin to music.

PARCEL POST FREIGHT.

A Colorado mercantile firm brought two tons of oats to their store in fifty-pound sacks for $50 less than the shipment would cost if it had been sent as freight. The Bache Review remarks that as the parcel post was instituted after the last period at which the mails were officially weighed to fix the lump sum for transportation, the railways are carrying all the additional parcel post matter without cost to the government.

Hence in the Colorado instance the clever tradesman saves $50, the government gets the postage and the railway which carried the oats gets nothing. Commodities of all sorts, including crude ores, are being transported in similar fashion by parcel post.

BATTLE-AXES AND BULLDOGS.

Husbands in Ohio have no rights that wives are bound to respect. James Lynch of Cincinnati, veterinarian and horse auctioneer, wanted a place at the family table and a seat in the parlor. Mrs. Lynch, with a hot skillet, drove him from the table and set the dog on him when he tried to enter the parlor. Lynch applied to the Superior Court for a mandatory injunction to compel his wife to drop the skillet and tie up the dog.

"Maybe if you go into the Common Pleas with an alimony case for the husband you might get support," said Judge Pugh, "but this court has no jurisdiction to grant the injunction you ask. There is no law and no court on the face of the earth that will compel a wife to entertain her husband in her home."

"But," declared counsel for Lynch, "the Common Pleas Court declared in a decision a few days ago that a husband should never complain that he is forced out of his home, and that he can enter with a battle-ax if necessary."

PROFIT AND REFORM.

Many people have heard of Al Jennings. Modesty is not one of Jennings's characteristics, and he hungers for the flesh pots of publicity. He was a common, ordinary train robber in Oklahoma until he got caught; after which he sojourned in the penitentiary for a while. Released therefrom he reformed to run for a political job, District Attorney or something. Shortly afterwards he wrote a book; and about the same time he was candidate for the nomination (for anybody can be a candidate) for Governor of Oklahoma. This book spilled the whitewash all over Mr. Jennings. "Crool" circumstances simply kicked him into a lawless life. And he was such a good bandit—he never killed anybody. Poor marksmanship may explain that part, for it is certain that he tried to. He calls upon sympathetic men and women to witness that he was unjustly sent to prison on a technicality. He says he was an outlaw, but was too clever to be convicted on a straight charge, so they railroaded him. And the final chapters of this book spout high ambitions and determinations to reform Oklahoma. Oh, yes, Mr. Jennings was strong on the holy stuff. You see, the book was published at the proper time to be a valuable campaign document while Mr. Jennings was a candidate for the nomination for Governor. And to hear him tell it he was some campaigner! Quite a remarkable man. Hot-tempered, full of southern blood, very courageous and protuberantly determined to be a potential factor for the political good of his State.

As the ex-outlaw candidate for the nomination for Governor he secured much publicity, but few votes. The election came and passed. Political reform seems to have oozed out of the erstwhile militant holy-roller. He is going into the movina-picture business now, according to the latest reports, and become a kinetic hero. And for the first time in our life we learn that among this remarkable Mr. Jennings's accomplishments is that of having collaborated with O. Henry. (Strange that one who collaborated with O. Henry should have been induced, by reasons that appear obvious, to turn over the manuscript of his confessional book to another for edition and revision.)

And may the time come when all the professional reform has oozed out of Hiram Johnson, and he will also find it profitable to pose before the movie camera.

SPATTISH.

Bespatted, you stand; spatless, you are a rank outsider. The spat is the sterling mark of fashion, and it is better to be out of the world than out of the fashion.

Some feet wear spats with the easy grace that bespeaks the aristocrat. Some feet look as if they were born in spats; some feet have obviously acquired spats. Some feet should certainly have spats thrust upon them. Spatless feet look naked and ashamed.

Spats have become a necessity. It is unthinkable that spats should have never been. They are the quintessential essence of tone, of class. They make a patrician foot look more patrician and veil the contortions of the plebeian foot.

Walking down Broadway one sees all kinds of spats; elderly, gentlemanly spats, nuttish spats, grande dameish spats, girlish spats, modest, refined spats, ostentatious vulgar spats, cheap spats, dear spats, doggish, horsey spats, statesmanlike spats, rakish spats, cheeky spats, dainty spats, clumsy spats. But it is better to be ill-spatted than unspatted.

To be spatted, correctly spatted, is to be self-confident, unafraid. The spatless are the timid. They cut no figure. There is a legend to the effect that, with spats, one's entree is assured anywhere. Pierpont Morgan himself will hasten to receive the man in spats. Unspatted, he must state his business via three office boys, two clerks and a private secretary. Then he'll have to call another day.

The origin of the spat is veiled in mystery. Is its revival to be laid at the door of Paris or New York? We are told that America now makes her own fashions. If the spat is a democratic self-expression there is hope for Democracy. A bespatted Democracy could never be guilty of hasty indiscretion; there is poise, decorum, culture about the spat. Some spats are better than other spats, but there are no bad spats.

Pope warned us never be the first to don a fashion, nor the last to espouse one. Gazing with meditative eye upon the spat one murmurs resignedly, "The spat it shall be." Conservative lingerers, Republicans, ministers' wives reluctantly but ultimately acquire spats. "To spat or not to spat" is no longer the question. Doubtfully but definitely one spats.

There has always been a small exclusive coterie of people in England who have been ever loyal to the spat—notably members of Parliament and Girton girls. The spat would therefore seem to denote wisdom, modern, enlightened wisdom, jaunty, carefree wisdom, hopeful, self-confident wisdom. Bishops have favored an elongated spat for decades.

The spat has no particular use; it is a mark of inward, invisible grace, of finer understanding, of status, of place. It means chiefly that we know our worth, that we are frankly superior, that whatever the state of our soul we are strong on uppers.

WHAT PAN-AMERICA COULD DO.

A thorough working agreement between all the nations of the American continent could, without the aid of treaties or the piling up of armaments, go a very long way toward insuring universal peace. The Western Hemisphere in fact is fast becoming the chief source of the world's food supplies. As final arbiter of the world's destinies we must look not to emperors and presidents or rulers or financiers or admirals or generals, but to the man behind the plow.

Every month devoted by the European nations to the destruction of life and property makes their dependence on the farmers of North and South America more pronounced. The time will come when a combined food-producing America can say to a divided crop-destroying Europe, "This war must cease or we will be compelled, in the interest of humanity, to starve you out of your hatreds, enmities and blood lusts." Such a step is not pleasant to contemplate; but are the battlefields of Europe any less horrible?

So far we have provided many free meals for the hungry and the destitute, the victims of this epidemic of passion and murder. Charity called so loudly on their behalf. We have also sold food supplies to provide for the able-bodied men in active conflict, according to the recognized ethics of trade. If we could devise a plan to feed only the women and children and the helpless of Europe and cut off all food supplies used for continuing vast armies in the field, Pan-America would be in a position to dictate a cessation of hostilities and to compel the rulers and war-makers to come to some speedy settlement. And by a general declaration, understood clearly by everyone to be no scrap of paper, that in the future no product of any American field, no wheat, no cotton, no fruit, no canned meats would be shipped under any consideration to nations engaged in the wicked work of war, then universal peace could be pretty nearly enforced from the two poles to the equator.

The farming areas of Germany and France are less in crop value than the farming land that could be developed in our three Pacific States alone. Add the large territory of Russia to that of Germany and France, and even then Europe as a producer of foodstuffs is an insignificant factor compared with the fertile continents north and south of Panama. Europe has done wonders in the past in taking full advantage of every acre of tillable soil. In this respect America is far behind her.

Were our whole continent as completely developed agriculturally as is that of Europe surplus supplies could be piled up here to an extent at present beyond the dreams of the most imaginative optimist.

So perhaps developing the farming land of the Western Hemisphere is one of the surest safeguards against the recurrence of such a war as has been so suddenly sprung upon civilization. When Europe starts to reconstruct her damaged interests she will find out how the salvation of victors and vanquished alike depend on the peaceful farmers of the two Americas, and she will thank her lucky stars that one-half of the world had sufficient sanity to keep out of the whirlpool. Then, being dependent on us for the necessities of life, she will be very ready to listen to what we may propose in the interests of a lasting peace.

We shall have no Hague tribunal with no authority to back up its decisions. We shall be able to say, "You will live together in amity from now on or go hungry to war." The hand that holds the key to the larder rocks the world. And the world is better rocked quietly by Ceres than convulsively by Mars.

THE CASE OF THE SACRAMENTO.

The Sacramento, formerly a Hamburg-American line ship, passed into American ownership and was admitted to American registry at San Francisco late in September. Soon afterward she cleared with a cargo of coal for Valparaiso. The coal was purchased in San Francisco for $7 per ton. As the same quality of coal was selling freely in Valparaiso at $7 per ton there was ground for suspicion that the coal was really intended for a German warship. But the transfer of registry was regular, neither the British nor the French nor the Russian Consul protested, and the sailing of the Sacramento could not be prevented.

Late last month the vessel arrived in Valparaiso in ballast. Her captain alleged that she had been stopped on the high seas by a German war vessel and her cargo seized.

This on the face of things would seem to show an inexcusable outrage on the American flag, for which the United States might demand indemnity from Germany. But the circumstances taken all together tend to show that the whole transaction was a put-up job, that the ownership of the vessel remained in German hands, notwithstanding her apparent transfer to American ownership, that the ship was in truth acting as a tender to the German fleet, and that she took the American flag merely to enable her to get to sea.

If this can be established the ship can be, and ought to be, seized by the United States government the first time she enters an American port and confiscated for breach of faith.

Chile is greatly disturbed over the Sacramento incident. If a cargo of coal on an American ship consigned to Valparaiso can be seized by German vessels, or a cargo of Chilean nitrates or iron ore consigned to San Francisco on an American vessel can be seized by a British or French or German ship of war, the commerce of Chile becomes a mere shuttlecock to be tossed between the battledores of war, and Chile, which is 10,000 miles from the seat of war, is deprived of all the advantages of a peaceful commerce.

Chile asks that the three-mile limit within which the ships of warring nations shall not enter may be extended to 100 miles. If Peru and Ecuador and Colombia on the Pacific, and Brazil and Argentina on the Atlantic, should, in co-operation with the United States, demand and obtain a 100-mile limit, coastwise trade could proceed unmolested by the warring powers.

The demand of the South American nations is that Europe should not thrust its quarrels upon them. It is a reasonable demand and should be acceded to.

LEARN SOMETHING.

Learn something every day; you'll surely find it pay; the more you know the more you'll go along the upward way. Learn something every hour, and rise to fame and power; it's ill to find a stagnant mind, a brain that's turning sour. Read books that dish up facts in sparkling cataracts; oh, read of guys renowned and wise, their virtues and their acts. It's well to have some fun, when daily toil is done, to drink some pop, or whip a cop, or spend a little mon. But pleasure isn't all that counts on this round ball, and if you hone for that alone, your fortune will be small. Before you go to bed, have something in your head—a fact on file that's worth your while, a slice of mental bread. The great men gone before have left all kinds of lore, where boy and girl may find the pearl of wisdom held in store. Why waste the golden day on cheap old Bertha Clay, or all the tribes of tinhorn scribes who wrote for piece-work pay? Oh, read the good and great, the scribes of high estate, for he who roams their noble tomes will find a golden freight! Learn something true and fine! Dig deep in Learning's mine! With love regard the soaring Bard, the Sage's printed line! WALT MASON.

When John Henry was Jilted.

[Philadelphia Telegraph:] At a social affair the other evening the conversation drifted to the trials and triumphs of beautiful love, when Miss Regina Rambo of Atlanta, who is known as "The Little Daughter of the South," was reminded of an accident along that line.

John Henry was engaged to be married to Maude Marie, Miss Rambo said, when for some trivial cause the usual quarrel ensued. Drawing herself to an imperious height the flashing beauty removed her ring.

"Take your ring!" she angrily exclaimed, "and in return I shall expect you to send me everything in your possession that belongs to me."

"All I have, Maude Marie," sadly replied John Henry, "is a photograph and a lock of your hair. I don't suppose you will want the photograph, but you might care for the hair as a souvenir."

"As a souvenir!" haughtily rejoined the angered beauty. "As a souvenir of what, pray tell me?"

"Of other days, Maud Marie," was the joltful response of John Henry, "of the time when you were a brunette."

INOPPORTUNE MOTHERS.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

New York is still in the throes of the controversy as to whether a teacher who is misguided enough to have a baby should be compelled to relinquish her profession. A year ago a lady was inconsiderate enough to ask for leave of absence without pay while she retired into domestic life to attend to a little affair of this nature, and the board peremptorily dismissed her.

Now another misguided female is asking for the same permission, and the board reaffirms its decision. Teachers who are foolish enough to be married and consummate the marriage must forego their profession. New York is officially agreed that a teacher who is also a mother cannot be regarded as a suitable person for reinstatement after the act.

The idea is that her husband should henceforth maintain her. Which is, of course, good theory but weak practice. The chances are that she is much more capable of maintaining her husband. He may be an entirely worthy person and yet be sadly inefficient as a provider.

It is likewise regarded as essential that she should remain at home and mind her own baby. A charming ideal which fortune has a way of frustrating all too often.

This tender consideration for the teacher's baby is very sweet, of course, and does the New York board infinite credit; but, looking at the question from the point of view of cold justice, isn't the teacher likewise entitled to a little consideration? At least as much as the soldier.

In times of war the volunteer soldier is treated with the utmost consideration. Firms fall over each other with offers to hold his job for him and give his wife half pay while he is away. The civil service, in particular, is most thoughtful in this respect. Yet he only goes to lose life, not to give it.

One would have thought that the teacher brave enough to risk motherhood should receive every encouragement. The state needs babies and it is reasonable to suppose that a teacher's baby would be a very high-grade desirable type of baby. If she is willing, at her own expense, to use a six months' leave of absence for such creditable purposes, would it not be more consistent of the board to allow her husband half pay while his wife is sacrificing her income and serving her country?

But instead there is a marked tendency to encourage the inefficient mother, who can only do one thing, and that badly, by giving mother's pensions, baby bounties and what not, while handicapping the capable efficient mother who has insured independent self-support with study, training and application.

After all, school duties only take at most seven hours out of the twenty-four for the baby to be taken care of by some unaccomplished but worthy female during that time, who certainly needs the job. Indeed, such a baby would have the advantage of the influence of both kinds of women, the plain, domestic kind and the educated kind. And its teacher-mother would be able to feel that she was using her abilities to the utmost advantage of the many, rather than the exclusive advantages of the few.

Of course the old tradition that the husband should provide for the family will die hard. But we all know that the poor wretch finds it an increasingly difficult task, often quite beyond his poor capacity, with the best will in the world. Even if his own wife is deleted from the competitive market against him, he is up against the very expert competition of all the other females. It is no use whining that women are displacing men in the industrial world. They are, and they will continue to do so—and many an overburdened father of a large family of daughters is privately very grateful that they have taken their own support into their own hands.

The idea that women can't possibly be good mothers and good providers as well will take a long time to die, but all of us know dozens of instances where she is doing that very thing, with wonderful efficiency, too. Indeed, the woman who earns her own living makes an ideal mother, for she has a much broader outlook and rarely nags and fusses her children like the lady whose activities are reduced to one or two children inside four walls, dependent on the earning capacity of a rather inefficient, selfish man who is out of work half the year. That sort of thing is desperately hard on the endurance and temper of the mother, whereas if she is herself a contributor to the domestic exchequer, both the financial and temperamental stress is considerably relieved.

Doubtless it is somewhat wounding to the vanity of the average man to have his wife self-supporting. It makes it so much more difficult for him to assert his authority. But in practice it makes for good comradeship and removes that most prolific cause of dissension, money disputes. How many homes are absolutely blighted by petty disputes of money only the sorry inmates know.

And the happiest people are those who are putting their abilities to profitable use. So many, many women are far more suited to various professions than to domestic work! It seems so foolish to insist upon a woman washing dishes when she is capable of teaching the seventh grade. Or insisting upon a man being an incompetent clerk when he could wash dishes so beautifully. But we have got it into our stolid old heads that it is so much more dignified and worthy for masculinity to fail as book-keepers than to succeed as dish-washers.

The New York School Board won't be able to maintain its attitude on the teacher-mother question much longer. Insinuation to the contrary, motherhood does not impair either intellect or efficiency, and school teaching does not tend to undermine parental affection and loyal domestic duty. It is quite possible to be both a good mother and a good teacher; indeed one is both a better mother and a better teacher for belonging to both professions.

Geographers Expel Hedin.

[New York Times:] The Paris Geographical Society has unanimously expunged the name of Sven Hedin from the list of corresponding members, and addressed a request to the Grand Chancellor of the Legion of Honor to remove it from the roster of the order. In explanation the society records its opinion that the Swedish explorer committed a serious breach of the laws of honor in conducting through a neutral a violent anti-French campaign, and this despite the three especially warm receptions given him by the Geographical Society, to the members of which he professed his unalterable devotion to France. His attacks on England and Russia have caused equal indignation, particularly in view of the support he received from Russia during his first two journeys in Central Asia.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY AGNES THURNAU.

Among the southern women who attended the session of the Woman's Legislative Council held in San Francisco December 12 and 13 were Mrs. Frank Gibson, Mrs. Seward Simons, Mrs. Charles Farwell Edson of Los Angeles and Dr. Louise Hardy Clark of Riverside. These women are openly interested in politics, and there is certainly no criticism of that. Women must use the machinery they find at hand in order to do effectively the political work that lies before them to do. They must ally themselves with parties, of course. But beyond all party lines there lies a wonderful field of service which is essentially woman's. This includes juvenile legislation, housing, immigration, institutions for the indigent and infirm, prisons, all charities, and the like. The Woman's Legislative Council is a big thing. By far the biggest thing in women's politics in the State. It is very close in its feeling with the State Federation, and is composed of representatives from all women's organizations in the State. It will be seen at once that its capacity for usefulness in the political and legislative field is enormous. Mrs. Seward Simons is chairman of the southern division of the council and through her was presented the legislation favored by the women of the south.

The session of the council just closed in San Francisco is the greatest possible plea to take politics out of the State Federation. The principal objection that the Revision of Bylaws Committee could meet in framing bylaws to eliminate political activity from the federation, and one that they have already encountered is: "But if we take politics out of the federation where shall we have our organized political activity? We must indorse humane and wise legislation in a representative body, else what is our citizenship worth?" The answer is: The Woman's Legislative Council. There is an organization that is already formed, composed of federation women, and women from every woman's organization in the State. Delegates from any organization may be instructed to act in accordance with the wishes of the organization. The plan affords the utmost fair, comprehensive and effective arena for political activity. Let the federation alone. Go to the Woman's Legislative Council. That's the place for maneuvering and indorsing and playing politics. It's a fine body with a wider scope than the federation. Take political activities out of the federation and put them where they belong—in this council.

Mrs. Kinney not Present.

Many women in the north expressed regret that Mrs. Mary Kinney was not present at the session of the Woman's Legislative Council in San Francisco, December 12 and 13. Mrs. Kinney is an attorney, a woman of fine judicial temperament, a member of the council, and a keen student of the best legislation for women and children.

Daughters of Empire.

The Imperial Order Daughters of the British Empire have become interested in the Children's Hospital and have noted it as one of the charities which must come under their patronage, despite their heavy work for the relief of the allies' needy families. Dr. Chalmers Francis recently reviewed in a convincing manner the work of the hospital in this city and at the close of his talk before the order, the Queen of Alexandra Chapter voted to take five of the $5 shares in the hospital. Mrs. Gerald Ward presided at this meeting. Tea and a social hour followed the programme.

Native Daughters.

Los Angeles Parlor, No. 124, is very busy with plans for a benefit ball for the Children's Hospital. Miss Grace Culbert reports a splendid sale of tickets. Miss Margaret Maloney, president, has appointed the following reception committee: Miss Grace Culbert, Miss Katherine Baker, Mrs. A. K. Prather, Mrs. Alice Hamilton, Mrs. J. T. Curtin, Mrs. Jennie Elliott, Miss Grace Stoermer, Miss Anna J. Dempsey and Mrs. J. H. Adair.

Escholtzia D.A.R.

The Escholtzia Chapter, D.A.R., will give a colonial ball at Ebell clubhouse January 9th, the proceeds of which will be devoted to marking historical spots in Los Angeles by appropriate pieces of statuary. Perhaps no city so rich in history as Los Angeles has so few historical spots fittingly marked, and it is to be hoped that the chapter will realize from this affair a substantial sum. On January 5th they will give a musicale at Ebell clubhouse. This afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Labry, No. 541 North Hobart boulevard, the chapter will formally entertain. Mrs. Walter Robbins and her committee will be in charge of the tea tables; a musical programme has been arranged.

Woman's City.

After the regular programme Monday afternoon there was a meeting of the special committee which was called last week in reference to the National Marketing Commission proposed by David Lubin in his address to the club a week ago.

Art Exhibit.

Ebell club members will have charge today of the day's sale and exhibition of the California Art Club which opened in Blanchard Art Gallery last night. The committee receiving includes Mmes. Chappell G. Stanton, Chester C. Ashley, William L. Jones, Edward C. Bellows, Frank W. King, Herbert P. Barton, Eugene Pettigrew, Oliver C. Bryant, H. M. Voorhees, H. Montagu Porter, Ferguson Hardin, H. H. Harvey, Philip Wilson and Miss Laura Paxton. Tomorrow the Ruskin Art Club will be hostesses for the day. The entire hospitality committee of the club is in charge. Members are Mmes. C. J. Dockstader, E. S. Hodgin, J. A. Walls, Misses A. E. Wadleigh and Pansy Whitaker. Others clubs whose representatives will preside at the sale and exhibition are: College Women's Club, Hollywood Women's Club, Daughters of American Revolution, Amateurs Players Club, Wednesday Morning Club, Palette Club, Southern California Women's Press Club, Cosmos, Highland Ebell, Harmonica Musical Club and the Fine Arts League.

Friday Morning.

Miss Lutie Stearns will speak to the club at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon on "The Six Greatest Problems of the Day," and she will mention them and give her views of them, plainly, explicitly as they relate to women. Not long ago a very celebrated lecturer gave a lecture in this city on "The Five Greatest Problems," and as far as could be ascertained he discussed only one. Probably he thought the others did not count. Miss Stearns knows what the problems are and those who have heard her know that she does not fool around with merely pretty words when they would soften the blow with which she drives social truths home.

The Oldest and Largest Savings Bank in the Southwest

Security's Safeguards

Those who seek the safest paths in personal finance lean upon the best support. They want proved facts, not unsupported claims before giving their confidence or giving up their cash.

The promoter's chances lessen as the public learns to discriminate. Reflection and responsible advice are Security's safeguards.

At the Security Trust & Savings Bank the small investor, working and saving to build a competence, and the larger investor who is building well on his foundation of early thrift, find every aid to financial growth—friendly counsel, a safe rate of interest, and, through its Trust department the wisest administration of his accumulations for his family, should he be called from his activities.

Where's the Guest?

shark had established friendly relations. The stranger convinced the business man that they had met fifteen years ago in New York. The real Barnets are a well-known Jewish family of New York. It apears now that it was all a mistake about the meeting.

HOW HE WORKED.

The belief that Barnet had been known to the Los Angeles business man for fifteen years gave him an entering wedge with the banker. Barnet deposited a draft on a New York City bank for $5000 which had all the earmarks of genuineness.

"I've heard of a couple of mortgages which can be bought to advantage," Barnet said to the banker a few days later. "I may need $1800."

When Barnet was told that he could have the money he replied, "I won't take it today. There is no hurry. I want to look up the mortgages a little more."

Two days later Barnet returned to the bank with the anouncement, "Well, I've looked up the mortgages and find them to be all right. I've found another one for $700; so I'll take $2500."

The $2500 was furnished by the bank. After the disappearance of Barnet the bank learned that the draft was no good. Similar methods were used to defraud other banks.

Large orders for goods placed with several business houses by Barnet were made the basis for fraudulent practices. He succeeded in having a number of worthless checks cashed on the strength of the supposed new business.

"DEAD WIFE" TRICK.

All of Barnet's victims were shown a picture of his reputed dead wife. He carried the picture in his inside coat pocket and frequently displayed it. The melancholy mien of the stranger seemed to reflect the sad loss. The confidence man is about 45 years old, and has the appearance of a successful and conservative business man.

Barnet arrived at the Alexandria November 28 and engaged a high-priced suite. He showed considerable cash, and when he disappeared from the hotel on the 4th inst. without taking his baggage the management feared that perhaps something serious had happened to him and directed detectives to make a search. Then came the disclosure of his crooked operations. The search is going on with renewed vigor.

Hundreds of Imported Dolls, Toys, Games at Half

As Saturday's papers told, these represent imported goods that were damaged on the ocean, watersoaked or corroded, nicked, scratched, etc. Some of the dolls show very, very slight imperfections; on others the damage may be covered up by the dresses; some have a part of a finger off—all easily remedied at home or at a doll hospital at little expense.

Yet you may save a half on all of them—genuine Kestner dolls, from Germany, all sizes and kinds; and upon toys, games, books, velocipedes and a thousand other toys dear to children.

The opportunity is particularly good for those buying in quantities, and the savings are, of course, real.

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

WITH one more charity ball yet on the programme for the season, all society is putting forth special effort to make it as great a success as the past affairs have been. The proceeds of the ball, which will be given next Friday evening at the Hotel Virginia, will go to help swell the funds of the Children's Hospital and plans are now being completed by those in charge which will make the affair most brilliant.

The completed list of patrons and patronesses includes: Mr. and Mrs. Michael Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Banning, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William May Garland, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clark, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mason, Mr. and Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy, Mrs. Daniel L. McFarland, Col. and Mrs. Charles R. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mines, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Coombs and Mrs. Robert I. Rogers.

Informal Reception.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman Barnesby, who are touring Southern California with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Venderlip of New York City, were guests of honor last Tuesday at a reception given by Mrs. C. R. Crowe and Miss Crowe at the Hotel Westmoore. Invitations were for an informal reception whereby the many friends of Mrs. Barnesby, who was formerly Miss May Campell, daughter of Dr. J. W. Campell, former pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, were given an opportunity to welcome her to the home of her childhood days. Those assisting Mrs. Crowe were Mrs. O. H. Churchill, Mrs. J. B. Owens, Mrs. Paul Pauly, Miss Mollie Brown, Mrs. George Maurice Crowe and Mrs. Claude Holman. Following the reception dinner was served with covers laid for ten.

Auction Bridge.

Among the many pretty affairs for Mrs. Homer Matlock Curtice, who is leaving Los Angeles to reside in Tucson, Ariz., was an auction bridge luncheon given by Mrs. W. J. Schmidt in her beautiful home on West Thirty-first street, last Thursday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated in red carnations and ferns and the dining table was a mound of red and green foliage, with pretty baskets holding nuts and candies. Cards marked places for Mrs. Curtice, Mrs. Fred K. Butler, Mrs. Robert Grotte, Mrs. P. C. Isbell, Mrs. W. G. Trimble, Mrs. Jesse Vance, Mrs. A. O. Switzer, Mrs. H. A. Hulsmann, Mrs. W. J. Schmidt, Mrs. George L. Machris, Mrs. Henry Martin and Miss Gladys Littleton. The honoree was presented with a beautiful friendship book.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kadletz entertained last Wednesday evening with a beautifully appointed dinner at the Alexandria in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Osborn Miller. Name cards held places for the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lasek, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heintz, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hollingsworth, Mrs. W. R. Wherry, Miss Hollingsworth and Frank Kadletz.

Bridge Tea.

Mrs. A. P. Kendis, No. 1719 West Sixth street, will entertain Thursday of this week with the first of a series of afternoon bridge teas, complimentary to her house guests. Assisting Mrs. Kendis in receiving will be Mrs. Harry Roberts and Mrs. George W. Miller, two prominent young society brides, who are passing the winter at the Kendis apartments.

House Guest.

Mrs. Marius DuVal is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. Charles Lorraine Cole of San Francisco.

Recent Wedding.

Miss Matilda E. Back and Charles C. Muller of New York were married last Friday at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Back. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. O. Satzinger, a dinner was served, followed by a reception at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Muller have left on an extended automobile trip.

Luncheon and Box Party.

Miss Helen Drohn of Alhambra entertained the Algonquin Outing Club last Wednesday evening with a luncheon at the Chocolate Shop, followed by a box party at the Orpheum. Those who enjoyed the delightful affair were Miss Avis Ames, Miss Vera Holden, Miss Margaret Mitchell, Miss Helen Drohn, Mrs. Thomas Cecil Platz, Leonard Russell, Arthur Wheland, Artful Sutorius, Hugh Collins and Oscar Jones. The club is to hold its annual outing at its lodge in Little Bear Canyon, and expects to have a Christmas celebration with plenty of snow.

Luncheon.

Miss Bess Filbert entertained eight of her friends with a grill luncheon at Hotel Clark recently. The color scheme was effectively carried out in violet and green. After luncheon her guests were taken to the matinee, box seats at the Orpheum having been reserved.

Returned Home.

Miss Helen M. Lewis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Laurence Gregory of this city, for several months, has returned to her home in Helena, Mont.

Visit Ends.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Steinman of San Francisco, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Joe Isaacs, St. Andrews place, left recently for their home. The Steinmans, after being caught in the war zone of Europe, were glad to return to the States and see their many friends in Los Angeles once more. They will be domiciled at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, indefinitely.

Entertains with Luncheon.

Mrs. Earl R. Osborn, No. 901 West Eighteenth street, entertained recently with a Christmas luncheon in honor of Las Buenas Amigas Club. The home was beautiful with holiday decorations and thirty-two guests were present.

Visiting Here.

Miss Clyde Dyas of St. Louis is visiting at the home of B. H. Dyas, No. 630 Oxford boulevard. She will remain for an indefinite period.

BRITISH CLUB MOVES.

The British Overseas Club will open its new quarters in Burbank Hall tomorrow evening with a reception and dance. The Union Jack Club of Pasadena will be the special guests of the evening. An invitation is extended to all Britishers.

Miss Helen Hargis,

Who will take the part of Phryuia in the three-act comedy, "Endymion," given by the Westlake School for Girls tonight at the Gamut Club for the benefit of the Children's Hospital.

VAUDEVILLE AND PICTURES.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

IF YOU want to see a regular good old-fashioned vaudeville show without a single high-brow headache on the bills, go to the Orpheum this week.

Will Oakland and company are at the club. You know it by the fact that there are steins and poker chips on the table. Also, by your programme. Anyhow it's a valid excuse, if not a reason, for their very excellent singing. Will Oakland's singing of Emmett's "Lullaby" and the whole club's rendering of "Over the Alpine Mountains," were especially pleasing. The motion-picture travesty was amusing.

John Geiger's "talking violin" does. Both in literal language and that of art, his violin speaks delightfully. Violin imitations are usually painful in the extreme, but while Mr. Geiger does imitate brass bands and bugle calls and organs and things, he does it artistically, and his act is a novelty. His instrument is an excellent one, and while he seems at times to be merely getting away with freak stuff, he really brings forth some most pleasing music.

Elphye Snowden has some good pedal stunts, assisted by Walter Ross. Her Argentine tango is especially good and she inhabits a sparkling gown that's a dream. Her songs aren't very new, but they get over well.

E. Alyn Warren & Co., have a tabloid melodrama called "The Last Trick," with a good deal of scenery chewing in it. But it's snappy from start to finish and full of surprises.

Sascha Piatov and Kitty Glaser carry off the limit of encores in their ballroom dances. Mr. Piatov is quite the best of the men ballroom dancers we have had. The couple work together excellently and show some terpsichorean novelties.

Knocking over chairs and tables doesn't sound particularly funny, but Hubert Dyer does it in his acrobatic comedy act in a way to elicit a lot of laughs from the crowd. He has a rag-doll method of working that's very amusing and evokes roars in his finale of dodging his partner, Peter Alvin, who is working on the rings.

The Three Travilla Brothers with their diving seals do a sensational turn in which the brothers remain under water four whole minutes!

Hippodrome.

Marcell and Bell are "elastic dancers" on the new Hip bill, and are quite the most unique terpsichorean novelty in black and white that the house has offered in some time.

Claire and Barker, in musical comedy oddities, have a blithe and pretty offering and another act which also has novelty for its keynote is contributed by Ray Healy, whose whistling and imitations are unimpeachable.

Royal and Elliott offer an interesting sketch in "The End of the Trail," in which they introduce a surprise in the person of Reece Gardiner, who plays the part of the hold-up man. The Lightning Mayes do some daring trapeze work. Gardner, West and Sunshine, with comedy singing and talking, are the seventh act.

Tally's Broadway.

"The Ghost Breaker," at Tally's Broadway, this week, is delightfully played and artistically filmed.

There is an intricate plot, involving a man who tries to frighten people away from hidden treasure by disguising his servants as ghosts and a keen Yankee who proves himself a ghost tamer. There's a murder, too, and a mix-up which points to the hero as the perpetrator, but naturally he comes out all right in the last film.

H. B. Warner plays the part of the ghost breaker most acceptably. He is humorous and dramatic by turns as his role demands, and fulfills entirely one's ideal of the part.

A feature of the noon performance at Tally's is the excellent music by Charles Demorest, who prepares a special programme on the organ for that hour.

Quinn's Superba.

"The Conspiracy," the first of the Frohman pictures, is being shown at the Superba this week.

John Emerson as "Winthrop Claverling," gives the same remarkable characterization that he did in the oral play, and Lois Meredith, the late star of "Help Wanted," in the role of "Margaret Towne," is a valuable adjunct to the success of the play. As a detective comedy drama of the highest class, "The Conspiracy" is a decided success. It teems with baffling mystery and weird deduction, thrilling situations and romantic love making.

Mr. Emerson is an impersonator of eccentric character roles par excellence, and Miss Meredith is a splendid drawing card.

Quinn's Garrick.

"The Union Eternal" at Quinn's Garrick is meeting with due success, partly because of the beautiful and touching story told, but in still greater degree to the talent of the young artist, Yvette Andreyor, a very lovely woman.

The photography of the picture is most pleasing, and altogether "The Union Eternal" is a delight to the eye.

Mozart.

In the unfolding of the story, her ignorance of the world, her natural innocence, her unfamiliarity with social usages, her hot temper lead to many strong situations in the play.

Jardin de Danse.

The Jardin de Danse's new holiday diversion, The Snow Festival, was ushered in last evening with all the pictorial splendor and attractiveness that a battalion of decorative artists have been able to produce.

The management makes the statement that patrons of the Jardin de Danse will find this dance institution more than ordinarily attractive during the Snow Festival, which will last until New Year's day.

Miller's.

Miller's Theater this week is offering the first of their big photo-dramas, "The Thief," with beautiful Dorothy Donnelly in the title role.

Miss Donnelly created the role of "Madame X," and her work in that play stamped her as among the foremost of America's emotional actresses.

Republic.

"The Battle of the Sexes," D. W. Griffith's masterpiece of society and the underworld in five realistic reels, is the feature film showing in Bert Levy's Republic Theater this week in connection with six new acts of crackerjack vaudeville. The Griffith film is a top-notcher of New York society life, into which creeps a woman who steals away a husband and breaks up a happy home. Fay Tincher plays the role and does it well. Her characterization of the luring creature without a soul is really remarkable. The beautiful Gish girls are, also, a big feature of the picture.

Elaborate preparations are being made at the Republic this week for the coming of the big six-reel comedy, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," with Marie Dressler, Mabel Normand and Charlie Chaplin, next week. In six reels it is the biggest comedy picture ever made, and will be given its first showing at the Republic next Monday.

Woodley.

Two stellar three reel features make an ideal programme at the Woodley theater this week. Francis X. Bushman is seen in a three reel Essanay, "The Plum Tree," which is a nother contest picture. In this film is supposed to be the missing paragraph from the story of the same name published in the Ladies' World recently.

The other is a thrilling railroad story, "418" it is called, and an entire train is wrecked in order to produce realistic effects. It is a Broadway all star photoplay from the Vitagraph studio, with Anita Stewart supported by an all star cast. It is without doubt one of the best films sent out of the Vitagraph studio for some time. Both pictures will be seen at the Woodley all this week in connection with the famous pipe organ concerts.

Clune's Auditorium.

The scenic effects in the picture are magnificent. The tapestries used in the scenes of Bigot's castle in Quebec came from the Yerkes mansion in Chicago and are valued at $20,000.

There are twenty-four principals in the cast, which includes the renowned names of Lionel Barrymore, Millicent Evans, Lois Meredith and Thomas Jefferson.

Clune's Broadway.

A Vitagraph comedy full of fun and laughter is a "Strand of Blonde Hair," in which Jay Dwiggins is featured as Bunny. Other pleasing photoplays are "One Kiss," a farce comedy, and Gertrude McCoy in "The Stenographer."

"The Man from the East" is the headliner for the last four days of the week. There will also be one of the popular George Ade Fables and a Christmas story, "The Greater Love."

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY TALKS HEART TOPICS.

Quarreling Before the Children.

"Of all the insults that harass the distress'd,
Sure the most bitter is a scornful jest;
Fate never wounds more deep the generous heart

No matter what a wife's grievance against her husband may be, it's a poor policy to upbraid him before his children. Above all else, let him enjoy a quiet, peaceful dinner. Whatever a wife has to say of a disquieting subject should be uttered in the privacy of their own room, where there's no one to see the angry looks that dart between them or to hear the bitter words of recrimination.

I have just received a most interesting letter on this subject, which should be of world-wide interest to those who have marital troubles to complain of. Mrs. H. writes: "I have a plan to make happy homes bearable. I have tried it out and know its value. I married when I was 18. Three children came to me before I knew my husband to be a worthless scamp. By that time my eldest boy was 13 and my youngest girl 6. I had a long and terrible communion with my own heart. After carefully weighing the awful discovery I made, I concluded that for the children's sake it was wisest and best that they should never know their father as he really was or the sorrow that had blighted our home. When we all met at the breakfast table, I wore a smiling face and had a cheery word for him as he passed out. Our dinner table was always like a happy reunion. The children's hearts were kept light and happy because they knew nothing of the bitterness which existed between my husband and myself. They grew to manhood and womanhood and were happily married ere the secret I had kept so long and so faithfully leaked out, not from my lips, but because of his finally clearing out with one who had charmed him away from me for years and gained an ascendency over him. The children came about me with tears in their eyes, asking why I had borne my burden alone and in silence.

"That you might have a happy home life," I answered simply and truthfully. Their gratitude was unspeakable. It is a lesson which each has ever since carried out in his or her domestic life—never to have controversies or quarrels before their children, no matter what the provocation was. When our children go out in the world they should carry with them the memory of an unclouded childhood and a happy home life to look back upon."

This wife's letter speaks volumes. It would do a world of good if wives would but heed. No wise result can be obtained by quarreling before one's little ones. Boys and girls are sure to take side with one parent or the other, right or wrong. They usually pity the one who is entitled to the most blame. Even the worst of husbands will appreciate the wife who treats him well before his sons and daughters.

MISS LIBBEY'S REPLIES TO YOUR LETTERS.

Correct name and address must be given, not to print, but to insure attention. Use ink. Write on one side of paper only. Address Miss Libbey, No. 916 President street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Should She be Jealous?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am in love with a fellow several years my senior. He goes with two girls besides me. I am jealous, but suppose I ought not to be. He says he loves me and I should not be jealous. Please advise if I should be jealous.
"B."

Jealously is a serpent your heart should keep free from. If he goes with other girls it's tit-for-tat that you can find company of the other sex who will suit you better. Or you may be unreasonably jealous. Try him again.

Working Men are American Kings.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a girl of 18 very much in love with a young man of 23. He works every third night; never comes to see me except those nights then in his working clothes. Can you tell me if he loves me. I am tall and have light hair and considered good looking. He is dark-haired and has dark eyes. Anxious for an early reply. E. K. P."

No doubt the young man's employment keeps him working late. By the time he reached his boarding place and finished dining it would be too late to call upon you. Do not consider his clothes. It is his character and habits that count most. Working clothes are the emblems of America's kings.

RARE VERSION OF OLD STORY.

Caesar and Cleopatra Reign at the Majestic.

Shaw's Most Vivid Play is Splendidly Done.

Bright Satire Proves to be Playable.

BY HENRY CHRISTEEN WARNACK

"Caesar and Cleopatra" acts as well as it reads, and it reads delightfully. In it Shaw satirizes Britain for being British, the feminist movement for having women in it, and war for killing men instead of collecting taxes from them.

Dramatically speaking, the biggest fault with this biggest Shawsian play, so admirably presented at the Majestic last night and to be repeated tonight and at Wednesday's matinee by Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson and Miss Laura Cowie, is that it ends where Cleopatra's big experiences begin.

In this version, offered faithfully, with fine effort and vivid interest, by the rare English actor and his lovely, if not always forceful, leading woman, we only succeed in launching the Egyptian lady of cruelty, power, romance and auburn hair. We merely lay a sort of foundation for Shakespeare and Sardou, which they have been so good as to build upon in their humble and somewhat serious fashion.

Events and persons are not sacred merely because they are ancient, and Shaw has a perfect right to make them almost natural and human if he chooses. Had he come a little nearer the truth he might have been more convincing, but the chances are that he would have been far less amusing.

Rest assured, gentle reader, I feel just as you do about the story of "Caesar and Cleopatra."

Candor compels us both to disagree with Bernard Shaw on this momentous and timely subject. History also invites an opposite view, however much we may regret the fact.

It would be far from me to meddle, and you would be just as loath to listen to gossip about a queen. You know, queens are much too scarce to deal with lightly. Besides, Cleopatra was a woman—very much of a woman. She was so much of a woman, indeed, that the Shaw version is vastly more delicate than it is plausible. Still, history says that Egypt had a little Caesar. Cleopatra was his mother and Julius Caesar his father. The Caesarina lived until he was 14 years of age. By that time his mother had become an interesting woman, and seems to have found much to interest herself in turn.

It is good to know that so lovely and vital a lady did not find life lonesome on the Nile, and we cannot be too grateful to Bernard Shaw, who is nothing if not delicate, for giving us this very subtle introduction to the lady's career.

He shows us a very wilful and spiteful small person of 16 who suspects a good deal about life and seems willing to take a chance.

He also shows us a Caesar who has a kind heart and a cruel sword, an unselfish conqueror, with advanced ideas on government, a big understanding of fate and a high appreciation of the doctrine of non-resistence.

In Shaw's play Cleopatra is a Queen because Caesar told her to be, and in so far as that goes, I think he is right about all the Cleopatras in the world. I don't agree with Shaw about anything else in the book which I think is by far the most interesting thing he ever wrote and certainly it is one of the most playable. We all wanted it, we have had it, and those of us who saw it are glad of it.

Sir Johnston has a head made for the wreath of bay leaves, cheeks as lean as Caesar's, a fit sense of humor and a voice that would certainly appeal to a Sphinx. An Irish woman once told me her voice could [illegible] bushes. He was a delight and a piece better than be done.

Miss Cowie better than tempted in She is wonderful at 16, having grace and proper amount little artist is Shaw meant ful little lass way and thing and Miss Cowie this conception. She has the Flatteries emphasis and George Apollodorus, not well done Hayes brings joy of the part. Frank Lacey man all best the soldier. Ian of quaint Pothinus and tus to remind none of us can The entire cast and I suggest all of Shaw has inspired Thank you, ine treat.

Billiards.

IVORY MASTERS AT HIGH PLAY.

Melbourne Inman Defeats Willie Hoppe.

British Champion Best at His Own Game.

American Expected to Reverse Tonight.

Melbourne Inman, the world's strongest exponent of the English game of billiards, last night gave a splendid exhibition of his skill by trouncing Willie Hoppe before a fine audience at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The British champion scored 751 points in sixteen innings, with high break of 237, and an average of 46 15-16. Hoppe made 293 points, with high break of 93 and an average of 18 5-16.

Hoppe, our own world champion at all styles of balkline, simply looked as if he would like to say, "Just wait until tomorrow night and see who is the goat," while his opponent rolled up his tallies of "cannons," "in-offs," "pot-in-offs" and other side-winding things pertinent to the bloomin' game.

Willie is to be commiserated, for he showed remarkable skill in handling the little balls, yet was up against such mastery of position play and direct execution as to cast him in deep shadow. His best run, or break, occurred in the fourth inning, when he nursed the ivories in true American style until compelled by the rules to abandon direct caroms, after which he soon lost control, stopping at 93.

Few spectacular shots were made, except as their inherent difficulty made them appear such to experts, but the constancy of performance seemed a marvel to the many proficients present.

Inman, in running his 227, played a winning hazard on Hoppe's ball, and, having thus lost the use of it, ran the last forty points on the lone red. This gave Angelenos a definite idea of the manner of executing the difficult losing hazards consecutively in the side pockets.

Near the middle of this run Inman found his cue ball at the rear of a line of three on the end rail and seemed threatened with disaster, but a brilliant "smash and follow through" cleared his path to a losing hazard in the corner pocket, and he continued his way without further trouble.

Hoppe made twenty-six points off the red in the fifteenth inning, stopping at thirty-five.

Scores by innings were as follows:

Inman—19, 6, 0, 3, 3, 227, 85, 3, 42, 6, 43, 168, 21, 51, 54, 14. Total, 751; average, 46 15-16.

Hoppe—0, 6, 2, 93, 2, 0, 4, 2, 9, 11, 21, 23, 55, 0, 35, 15. Total, 293; average, 18 5-16.

Following the game Inman gave an exhibition of fancy shots, wherein he made the balls sit up and beg, chase each other out of baskets, and do other stunts hitherto supposed to be out of their line.

Tonight the two champions are to play 500 points at 18-2 balkline, an exhibition which shows Hoppe at his best, and that is the best ever known, according to Ora Morningstar, W. A. Spinka, George Kirkland and other experts who commented upon last night's entertainment.

NO SUNDAY BALL FOR BROOKFEDS.

WARD DENIES THAT HE WILL RETIRE OR GIVE UP HIS STOCK.

The report that the Brooklyn Federal team would play Sunday ball next season was denied by President Ward. "There will be no transfer of my stock as has been rumored," he said. "And as long as I have a dollar invested in the club it will not play Sunday ball. As schedule maker, I will attempt to arrange the dates so that Brooklyn and the other clubs will be put to the least possible inconvenience on this account."

Abe Attell's Wife Sues Him for Divorce — Bad Luck Changed Him.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 14.—While her attorney was preparing divorce proceedings, Mrs. Ethel Egan Attell, wife of the former featherweight champion pugilist of the world, today told her story—the story on which she seeks divorce from the former fistic master.

"Mr. Attell is not the worst man in the world," she said, "but I am starting proceedings because we have reached a stage where it is best for both of us to part. Mr. Attell's attitude toward me has changed since he lost the championship to Johnny Kilbane. I had shared in his success and was perfectly willing to share his misfortune, if you would call it that."

She asks $200 a month alimony.

ILLINOIS TO MEET BEARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

URBANA (Ill.) Dec. 14.—Twenty Illinois track athletes will be sent to Berkeley, Cal., during the eastern vacation to meet the University of California in a dual meet. This was decided on today by the board of control, which formally accepted an invitation from California, which defrays the expenses of the trip. The Coast stars believe they can defeat Harry Gill's champions in their own climate. Gill will have an advantage in training in the Armory on the new cinder track.

RED SOX WANT JACK LEARY.

LANNIN ANXIOUS TO FIX UP DEAL FOR RICKEY'S PLAYER.

Though Manager Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Browns is quoted as saying that he would not consider a trade of Del Gainer for Jack Leary, President Lannin of the Boston Red Sox still is hopeful of landing Leary. Rumor has it that he has now offered both Gainer and Catcher Chet Thomas for Leary, or, if that is not acceptable, he will put Harold Janvrin in a deal. Jack Leary is immensely popular in Boston and would be a big asset to the Red Sox, even outside his playing ability.

BRAVES TO USE FENWAY PARK.

OLD PARK TOO SMALL FOR A WORLD'S CHAMPION TEAM.

At the annual meeting of the Boston National League Club held one day last week President Gaffney was re-elected and the announcement made that the Braves would use Fenway Park as a playing ground next season until July at least, by which time the club expects to have a new home of its own. In any event, it is stated, the old Walpole street grounds have been used by the Braves for the last time, as they are unsuited for a championship team and the patronage it draws.

The Twin City Motor Speedway, a $1,000,000 corporation, has been incorporated under the laws of South Dakota. A speedway will be constructed near Minneapolis and St. Paul for automobile and aeroplane races.

FIGHT FANS MOB REFEREE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE]

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 14.—A general riot which called out a posse from the Sheriff's office late tonight followed the awarding of the decision in the ninth round of a scheduled twelve-round go between Kid Trujillo and Herb White of Stockton, to the former at Harlem Springs.

Referee J. E. Maginnis of Los Angeles was attacked by a mob of 200 infuriated fans who had their money placed on White, and badly beaten. He escaped from the ring and barricaded himself in a storeroom until the Sheriff's deputies arrived. No arrests were made. It is declared by Dr. F. M. Gardner that Trujillo was not fouled.

Hoppe (above) and Inman,

COLLEGES DECIDE TO HOLD CROSS COUNTRY.

First Intercollegiate Long-distance Race Ever Held in South to Come in January—U.S.C. and Pomona are Anxious to Have It—Occidental will Enter, but Thinks Date Rather Late.

BY HOWARD W. ANGUS.

THE first intercollegiate cross-country race ever run in Southern California will be held early in January. The athletic managers of U. S.C., Pomona and Occidental have agreed upon it. Whittier will enter runners willingly.

The day and the hour have still to be fixed, and the course selected. But it will probably be run out in the Occidental district, where there are wide stretches of open country, dirt roads and plenty of hills. It will be held as near New Year's Day as possible, so it will be over before the hard training for the meets begins.

U.S.C. and Pomona are especially strong for the race. Occidental, while willing enough to take part in it, is not nearly as excited over it.

GLAZE FOR IT.

"I hope Pomona and Occidental go in for this in earnest," said Coach Glaze. "The south needs the cross-country. Its big weakness seems to be the shortage of long-distance men. The cross-country develops them as nothing else can. It is the reason for Cornell's successes in the mile and two-mile.

"Until the cross-country was taken up in earnest in this country England had everything in the long distances. Now we hold our own."

PIPAL Calls.

Coach Pipal of Occidental thought it a little late, although he expressed himself as anxious to see the cross-country introduced in the south.

"I wish the colleges had agreed on it sooner," he said. "It should be run before Christmas. After New Year's I intend to begin training the men for their special events. I will enter men, however, among them Bill Annin.

"I would like to see it run New Year's Day at the Tournament of Roses."

ANNUAL EVENT.

The cross-country will become an annual event. Hereafter it will be held before Christmas.

With it will come the long-distance runners. The south has been notably weak in these.

Experts have laid the blame on the lack of the long runs on the rough roads. One thing is certain—that wherever cross-countries flourish milers and two-milers of ability are plentiful.

DEVELOPS MILERS.

Pomona, where it has been an interclass race for years, has produced practically all of the south's long-distance men—Fisher, Hilmrod and Sturgis.

Occidental has had the race for six years. Two men took it seriously, Bill Annin and Paul Pritchard. They have become exceptional runners.

COL. RUPPERT BUYS YANKS

McGraw Calls Off the Dooin-McGee Trade.

McCredie Gets Outfielders for Bancroft.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

FRENCH LICK (Ind.) Dec. 14.—The New York American League club has been sold to Col. Jacob Ruppert. The price is about $450,000. Col. Ruppert will not acquire any interest in the Federal League.

This is the substance of statements made here today by Col. Ruppert and President James A. Gilmore of the Federal League, who conferred regarding the proposed establishment of a Federal League club in New York. After the conference Col. Ruppert said:

"I have already purchased the Yankees. The price is the only thing that remains to be settled. This probably will be $450,000."

"I am afraid we were too late," said Mr. Gilmore, "as Col. Ruppert already has purchased the Yankees. I shall return to Chicago at once and try to find another backer for the New York club. I may interest Pat Hanahan and Mr. Seelbach of Louisville."

Col. Ruppert said George Gust and Tillinghurst Huston were associated with him in the deal for the New York club. He said Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and Huston would come to French Lick Thursday to complete the deal.

The question of manager for the club has not been considered yet, Col. Ruppert said, but a report was current here tonight that Hugh Jennings of the Detroit club is Ruppert's favorite for the place. Ruppert characterized the report that Connie Mack would pilot the club as absurd.

It was reported that Gilmore and Weegham would go to Louisville tonight or tomorrow to confer with Hanahan and Seelbach regarding the proposed New York Federal League club.

Capt. T. L. Huston, who is associated with Col. Jacob Ruppert in the negotiations for the purchase of the New York Americans, left for French Lick tonight for a conference with Col. Ruppert. Frank Farrell, president and part owner of the club, was reported to have started for Chicago.

It is understood that Col. Ruppert and Capt. Huston will assume charge of the club's affairs at once and that Col. Ruppert will fill the office of manager.

President Frank J. Navin of the Detroit baseball club said tonight that Hughie Jennings would not manage the New York Americans next year.

"I know nothing of it," said Mr. Navin. "Jennings is under contract to me."

GIANT-PHILLIES DEAL OFF.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The deal between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia club, involving Doolin, Lobert and Magee and several players under contract to play with New York, has been abandoned, according to Manager McGraw. The trade fell through, the Giants leader said, because the Philadelphia management refused to consider any deal in which Lobert and Magee were mentioned. It was also stated today that Manager McGraw considered Doolin's demand for $7500 a year for three years a trifle excessive, especially when it would be necessary to give several players for him.

There are, it is estimated, 22,000,000 horses in this country; more than four times as many as in 1860, and nearly one-fourth of all the horses in the world.

CHAMPS AND NEAR-CHAMPS IN BATTLES

KNOCKED COLD BY C. WHITE.

KENOSHA (Wis.) Dec. 14.—Charlie White made short work of Jimmy Murphy, his rival from Chicago, tonight, stopping him with two short left hooks to the jaw in the second round. Murphy did not show anything in the short time he was in the ring, while White, playing his usual foxy game, waited through the first period, letting Jimmy lead for a minute in the second and slipped over the famous left.

Here Murphy made good the promises made in his camp, that he would not quit. He staggered for a second and then went down, rolled over and took the count of four. He came up for more, helpless, but dazed, only to run into another left directly beneath the eye, a right cross that found its mark on his jaw and to make matters sure, Charlie "copped" him with a left hook just as before he left his feet. Down Jimmy went and he could not arise. Among the rabid Murphy supporters the quick ending was a surprise, especially after they kidded themselves along into thinking that their boy had an even chance after going through the first period without getting any the worst of the battling.

JOE MANDOT'S FIGHT A DRAW.

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Dec. 14.—Joe Mandot of New Orleans gave Frankie Callahan of Brooklyn a severe beating here tonight for eight rounds and received a draw verdict from Referee Haack. Callahan had the advantage in one round only, the third, when he staggered Mandot against the ropes with a right to the jaw.

From the fourth round on it was Mandot's fight. In the sixth, seventh and eighth it looked like Mandot would surely finish his man. He staggered Callahan a dozen times in these three rounds and Callahan sought refuge in clinches. Mandot tried hard to knock Callahan out and Callahan's gameness alone kept him going.

EASY JOB FOR J. KILBANE.

FEATHERWEIGHT CHAMPION TOYS WITH HOUCK'S BEST BOXING BLOWS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world and an emigrant to the lightweight division, occupied eighteen minutes of his time tonight by giving Willie Houck of this city a boxing lesson in the weekly festivities conducted by the Olympia Athletic Association.

A crowded house saw the performance, among the spectators being Freddie Welsh, champion lightweight, whom Kilbane firmly believes he can whip without trouble or undue excitement.

After the third round there was nothing to the encounter except the Cleveland champion. While Houck was a willing worker he met class and he isn't able to connect whenever it is his misfortune to trifle with class. Kilbane's lightning left played a merry tattoo about the placid and Teutonic features of his Mount Airy opponent and all the while his right kept drumming against Houck's head, face and body.

SAN DIEGO'S LAST FIGHT.

TOMMY M'FARLAND IS TO BOX THE SAILOR BANTAM CHAMPION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 14.—The last fight here before boxing becomes illegal will be Wednesday night, when Frankie Kirk, lightweight champion of the United States navy, and Tommy McFarland of San Francisco will box twenty rounds. Roy Moore will box Lucky Cowan of the U.S.S. Virginia. Since Eddie Miller ran out of their scheduled go here Moore claims the Coast bantam championship.

FRANKIE BURNS SHOWS CLASS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 14.—Frankie Burns, Jersey City bantam, tonight so severely punished Chick Hayes of Indianapolis that Referee Burke stopped the bout in the thirteenth round and gave Burns the decision.

Against the masterly work of Burns, Hayes had no chance. Not in years has a man been seen in a local ring who fought a more terrific battle than Burns did, seldom missing, always going in and apparently untiring. Burns hundreds of times sent crashing rights and lefts through Hayes's guard and there was not a blow which did not carry pounds of steam.

Game to the core, Hayes on one or two occasions refused to drop to the floor just when it appeared that his physical being had reached the limit of its endurance. In the twelfth round, especially, Hayes was caught flush on the chin with a smashing right cross and he was knocked back on the ropes dazed. Burns was on him like a wild cat, but was unable to get in an effective blow before the bell rang.

Hayes never had a chance. He was up against his master at every turn of the game. The best was conceded at being for the bantamweight championship. Burns claiming that Kid Williams can no longer make the weight.

In Again.

BILL PICKENS REINSTATED.

A.A.A. to Take Him Back New Year's.

Pickens Made Application a Year Ago.

Oldfield's Race with Jack Johnson Trouble.

Bill Pickens, the arch rebel of the automobile world, has been forgiven by the American Automobile Association. His peacock feather and his yellow jacket have been restored; the kings of motordom called him back yesterday. He will be reinstated formally New Year's Day.

Away back in 1910 Pickens called their wrath down upon his head when he put on a race between Barney Oldfield and Mister Arthur Johnson. They kicked him out of the association.

Pickens struck back. He played all kinds of funny tricks on them. He buzzed around their heads like a bumble bee. He had one-armed men get licenses from them. He told jokes on them and spun yarns about them that stuck like a pin.

But a year and a half ago Bill Pickens got very quiet and was as good as a boy before Christmas. He asked to be reinstated six months later.

The American Automobile Association kept him waiting a year. They reinstated everybody else they could think of before they acted on Pickens.

Pickens will probably break back into the automobile game again and manage racers as well as Lincoln Beachey.

HOLIDAY SEASON ELECTRIC TIME.

EVEN IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BATTERY WAGONS HAVE WINTER INNINGS.

This is the season for electrics. It is just at this time in the year when "Milady" prefers the cozy coupe, electrically operated, to the open car. The mother, wife or sister and, in many cases, the male head of the family, can be seen driving to the theater, on the shopping trip or on the busy round of calls in the closed machine.

Over the wonderful boulevards of Southern California the operation of an electric is more than a pleasure and that this style of motor car is becoming more and more popular is shown by the fact that sales are increasing day after day. The ease of control, the low upkeep cost and the dainty appearance of electrics are the greatest factors in the sale of this type of vehicle.

In California, cars of all descriptions can be driven the year round and even trips to the beaches in the electrics are not at all unusual in the winter as well as the summer months. The fair motorist, operating an electric need never fear the possibility of a lack of gasoline or the freezing of a radiator and when the meter with which all cars are equipped shows that the current supply is getting low it is an easy matter to place the car on "charge" over night and the following morning it is ready for another one-hundred-mile trip.

The local agencies for the Baker, Ohio, Woods and Detroit electrics report new converts daily to the electric machine and the indications are that more cars of this kind will be sold this season than ever before.

FROM PORTLAND IS HARD TRIP.

MOTORIST STOPS OFF IN SAN FRANCISCO AND GETS BASEBALL DOPE.

After a hard run down the coast from Portland, a large part of which traveling was done in the rain and practically all on soft and muddy roads, A. E. Rawlings, a contractor from the northern city, arrived in Los Angeles Wednesday morning.

Several days ago the party, consisting of Rawlings, his wife and his partner, John E. Hathorn, encountered the storm at San Francisco, reported as one of the worst in years. Near San Jose the Hup went into the wholesale rescue business and had the distinction of pulling two different cars and a baker's wagon out of the mud.

The Cuesta Pass presented a tough climb to every car that attempted it and although several cars ahead were sliding around like a ship without a rudder Rawlings took a chance and made the grade in splendid fashion.

Although this is the fifth time Rawlings has made the trip from the north, his inclination for outside recreation by no means stops at motoring. He is a baseball fan clear through and in mentioning the subject does not hesitate to state that his friend, Mr. McCredie of pennant fame, will, in accordance with precedent, annex the Coast League flag in the coming season. However, he does admit this subject is an open question.

"In San Francisco," said Rawlings, "I noted a great rejuvenation of the baseball fever. I believe the shakeup in the Coast League will prove a big boost for baseball in the West.

"The Bay City fans are behind Hen Berry to a man and from Tom Dermody's reputation as a major-league ball player and good fellow I look for an aggressive argument from the Angel band next year."

CHICAGO'S BIG SPEEDWAY PLAN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Five hundred miles will be the length of the initial automobile race over the new Chicago speedway, it was decided at a meeting here last night of the executive board of the Speedway Park Association, and Clifford Ireland, representing the American Automobile Association. Although the date of the race was not fixed, June 19 was tentatively selected.

Bill Pickens,

The automobile rebel, who has been received back into the fold by the A.A.A.

Officials Picked.

FRANK LOWRY WILL START OLDFIELD-BURMAN RACE.

FRANK LOWRY was agreed on last night as starter for the Burman-Oldfield match race at Ascot Park, Sunday.

Lowry, who has acted as assistant to Fred Wagner at most of the big road races run in this country during the past five years, was readily acceptable to both the speed king and the master driver when his name was proposed. One of Oldfield's friends tried to make an objection because Lowry acted as Burman's adviser-in-chief during the past summer, but Barney quickly overruled this by accepting Lowry for the post.

Paul Derkum has been selected as assistant starter.

With the selection last night of Lowry, and the acceptance during the afternoon of Don Lee as referee, the two star pilots have completed all details for their meeting. The full list of officials was submitted to Standish Mitchell for the approval of the A.A.A. Since those chosen are representative automobile dealers and enthusiasts, it is expected the roster will be o k'd without question. Mitchell has received word from A.A.A. headquarters in New York that a sanction for the race had been granted, and the necessary papers were on the way.

The full list of officials:

Referee, Don Lee; judges, Waller Chanslor, Perry H. Greer and Joe McDuffee; chief timer, Guy West; clerk of course, George Adair; starter, Frank Lowry; assistant starter, Paul Derkum; Technical Committee, W. E. Bush, Clarence Smith and H. D. Ryus.

More Speed.

VENICE SPEED TRACK IS PRACTICALLY ASSURED.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, Dec. 14.—The Venice road race is practically assured today for the Trustees and property owners have sanctioned the speed events, and Leon T. Shettler and Paul J. C. Derkum have been gathering material and going ahead with the promotion of the affair. Citizens and property owners are all boosting for the duels of the speed demons, and a definite announcement will be made in a few days. A gold-lined purse of $2000 is almost assured, and the Finance Committee will be in meeting tomorrow to get that matter consummated without delay.

Everywhere inquiry has disclosed a track full of most enthusiastic boosters who are not only willing but anxious that Venice should come to the front with a road race. This event will be more thrilling than either the Santa Monica or Corona events, for it has a course that will permit of viewing the racers practically all the time, a three and one-half-mile track, with straight stretches that will permit of absolute record speed. By next week a date will be announced and the project formally announced. Already one of the recent Corona winners has driven over the "Prest-o" (elliptical, pressed O) track, and a sure enough speed battle may be looked for in the second month of 1915.

ENDING TOUR OF THE WORLD.

Dr. E. S. McKee of Cincinnati, who is returning to his home in the East after a 75,000-mile tour around the world, has taken a side trip to San Francisco in a Studebaker touring car. While in the northern part of the State the doctor intends to spend a great deal of the time visiting points of interest in and around the bay counties.

Dr. McKee has been spending the past week visiting his brother-in-law in Pasadena, and intends to return from his northern motor trip in time to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives in Southern California.

The Studebaker party also included Dr. George E. Malsbory, secretary of the Society of Statistics and Prevention of Tuberculosis, together with Dr. H. J. Ingersol and wife.

The Chink.

M'CREDIE'S CHINESE PITCHER SEEN HERE.

Akana Played with the Chinese Team from University of Hawaii, Which Walloped Occidental College Boys Last Winter — Mathewson and Ed Walsh Gave Him Pitching Lessons.

BY DONALD O'BRIEN.

IF Akana, the half-caste Chinese pitcher signed by McCredie in Honolulu, turns out to be a star it will be another instance of the local baseball managers being asleep at the switch.

Akana played in Los Angeles last winter and was recognized as having the promise of being a great pitcher.

You needn't get ready to see a Chink come out in a pigtail and padded Chinese shoes when he plays here, or to hear him talking about "You catchum ball." He is a young university student and talks much better English than about nine-tenths of the American baseball players.

When he came here last winter, it was as one of a Chinese baseball team from the University of Hawaii. The Chinese boys played Occidental College and won the game. Akana played first base as the Occidental were not considered good enough to require the services of a pitcher of his top-side talent. They took advantage of this game to try out a young pitcher named Ako.

I sat on the bench with the Chinese boys. I expected to hear them talking the scrambled English of a Chinese vegetable peddler. Just as I sat down with them, one of the Chinese boys tried to slide home and the umpire called him out.

"For the love of Mike," he said, taking a seat beside me, "can you beat that guy? He ought to get a job cracking safes. He is wasted just umpiring college baseball games."

After the game the Chinese boys had a big banquet down in Chinatown, given by the Chinese merchants, and asked me to be their guest. Akana constituted himself my especial guide, philosopher and friend, from helping me to eat shark's fin to explaining to me the shortcomings of American college baseball. He did the latter most delicately.

I asked him what he thought of the various college teams they had played against since their arrival in the United States; they had by that time met and beaten several college collections of stars.

"Have you any connection with the institution that we met this afternoon?" asked Akana.

I replied that I had none.

"Then," he said, "you will pardon me if I say that the college baseball players we have seen so far seem rather crude. They are fine athletes and good fellows and charming gentlemen, but we are just a little disappointed in the kind of ball they play.

"We came all the way over from Hawaii expecting to learn a lot about inside baseball from the American college men, but we were surprised to see them pulling stuff that we had given up a long time as being bush-league tricks."

Akana told me that he had been already to see one world series. While on a previous tour to the United States, he had met both Christy Mathewson and Ed Walsh. Both of these world-famous pitchers had been very kind to him, having taken the trouble to show him all kinds of stuff. In other words, Akana can pitch the fade-away as shown to him by Big Six himself, and the spitball straight from the lessons of the spitball king.

The Chinese boy, being a half-caste, is rather large and strong. He talks both Hawaiian and Chinese as well as English. Much of the coaching of this team was done in Chinese. He is said to have plenty of speed and is a fair hitter. I found, however, that none of the Chinese depended much on their hitting. They seemed to have no special desire to make extra-base hits. Their idea of baseball is to get on first base; then get around the rest of the way by speed and skill.

SOME FACTS ABOUT MY LIFE.

J. HANS WAGNER.
(In Baseball Magazine.)

"I WAS born on February 24, 1874, so if I live till that date this winter I shall be 41 years old. That is old for a ball player, they say. At least there are not many of us hanging around the big leagues at that age, I guess. I won't say that I am the oldest ball player in the big leagues, for I don't know. But I guess I am in the senior class.

"I was born in Carnegie and always lived here, though the town wasn't named Carnegie then. It was called Mansfield when I first saw it, but as it was a great mining and milling place Mr. Carnegie had considerable reputation hereabouts and the citizens decided to rename it for him. I guess the old town hasn't suffered any from the change.

"I was born three or four blocks from where I now live, and had four brothers and one sister. My brothers were, in the order of their age, Charles, Al, Louis, myself and Bill. I had also a sister Carrie, now Mrs. Gallagher. Carrie was younger than I and older than Bill. Bill was the baby of the family.

"Charles and Bill took up the barbers' trade. One of them lives in Ohio, and one in Pennsylvania, though not in Carnegie. My brother Al works for the Pittsburgh club. I also work for the Pittsburgh club. Lou makes a living here in Carnegie.

"None of us is married. The three of us who live in Carnegie 'bach' in our house and take our meals outside. There are hotels in Carnegie where you can get something to eat if you have the price.

"I played baseball when I was a kid, and liked the game. I liked all kinds of outdoor sport then, and do now. I was pretty fast on my feet when I was a kid. I know we used to run foot races every night up and down this very street, which is now called Railroad avenue. We used to run in the dirt and thought nothing of running fifteen or twenty sprints in an evening. I have competed in a sprint with semi-professionals and won the race. I have been timed quite often, once at a hundred yards in ten seconds. This is fast, not many can do it, and I won't say that my timer was correct. People have been led astray by my style of running. In my prime I was told I did not look as though I was running fast, because I took such long strides. That is true, I did take long strides. So does Beecher, who is a deceiving runner, too. But Beecher gets there, and that was my object. It never made any difference to me how many strides I took as long as I took enough to land me where I was going.

"I played baseball when I was a kid, but that didn't amount to much. There was no money in it. I went to school here in Carnegie and learned a few things. Then I had to go to work. It is a mining country here, and the coal mines are what they call surface mines. That is, they don't sink a shaft as they do in some parts, but work into a sidehill from the surface. I was a coal miner for about a year. I didn't do any breaker work like some of the other ball players who have started that way. I was pretty husky for my age and did general work in the mine for pay. It was hard work, but good exercise. I did not work a whole year in the mine. Then I went into a mill and worked for about a year. That was also good exercise.

"When I was 16 I started playing ball here in earnest. I began in 1891 and played that season, also in '92 and '93. In '94 I played with the St. Luke Club of Mansfield, which was then the name of this town before it was changed to Carnegie.

"The latter part of the season of '94 I went away to play ball. That was on account of my brother Al. He was playing with the club at Dennison, O., and told the manager he had a brother who could play ball. They believed him and sent for me. I finished the season there.

"In '96 I played with three different clubs. One of them was Steubenville, O., which was managed by George Moreland. Moreland sent for me and wanted me to play. He said he would give me $35 a month. I told him I wanted $40. He wrote me, 'I will pay you $35 a month, and that is all I will pay you; if you don't want it you can stay home.' So I went. There weren't so many jobs open in baseball in those days. A player didn't have as much choice as to where he would go or what he would get. And I needed the money. I stayed at Steubenville only a few weeks. I was also at Warren of the Iron and Oil League, but most of the season I spent at Adrian, Mich., where I played between two and three months. I managed the club there and did pretty well. We finished in second place.

"My legs have slowed up some in the past few years. That has hurt my fielding a little, as I can't cover so much ground as I used to do. It has slowed me up as a base-stealer, too, though so long as a man can get the start on the pitcher and slide well he can steal a fair number of bases a year even after he has slowed up a bit."

GEORGE GIBSON OFTEN YANKED.

LEADING PIRATE SLUGGER A POOR MAN IN A PINCH.

It is a singular fact that though George Gibson was the leading Pirate batsman of the season, he should have been taken out for a pinch hitter oftener than any man on the team. One of Fred Clarke's commonest habits was to yank out the veteran backstop for Hyatt or some one else to bat, when in fact Gibson was batting better than Ham or any man on the roster, barring Costello, who managed to hit .397 in a limited number of games.

Hooked a Diamond Ring.

[Cleveland Plain Dealer:] Twelve years ago Charles Miller, Deputy State Fire Marshal of Columbus, while fishing at Lakeview, near Lima, lost a $200 diamond studded ring. He has recovered the ring in a local jewelry store.

Floyd Walters of Lakeview, while fishing, brought up the ring and finding Mr. Miller's name engraved inside, turned it over to a jeweler for safe keeping.

Mr. Miller identified the ring.

NO FOX HUNTS IN MEXICO.

The Members of the French and German Colonies are in Europe Hunting Each Other.

[Mexican Herald:] It is not likely that the fox hunts, which were so popular among the German and French colonies for several years prior to last April, will be resumed for some time. The German Riding Club, which was a very strong organization and possessed some of the best riders in Mexico, has been greatly reduced in membership on account of the European war, which obliged many of the members to join their regiments in the German army.

The political situation of the republic has also acted as a deterrent to holding any public functions, the members of the riding club preferring to wait until a later period before resuming their accustomed fox hunts. During the rainy season it is hardly ever feasible to hold the hunts, owing to the soft and marshy condition of the country roads, but heretofore the fox hunts have always been held during the closing months of the year and during the spring months, before the beginning of the rainy season.

The French Riding Club has been almost disbanded by the departure of most of the members to take part in the European war. Only a few of the younger men, who are too young to join the army, remain in the city, and there are not a sufficient number of them to hold a fox hunt.

THE BILLY GOAT'S DAY.

Stirred up the New York Police by a Rear Attack and then Drove the Crowd Out of Harlem Market.

[New York Sun:] A large goat, of the type euphemistically known as William, was taken into custody yesterday by Policeman Fallon, of the East One Hundred and Fourth-street station, who preferred charges of disorderly conduct, disturbing the peace and resisting arrest.

Fallon was standing in the middle of First avenue, near Ninety-eighth street, when the goat slipped up from the rear and made an unprovoked attack on him, upsetting him completely. The goat then charged on into the Harlem Market, overturning peddlers' carts and driving people out of that flourishing mart in a headlong dash for cover.

Fallon pursued undauntedly, cornered the goat at Second avenue and One Hundredth street, and got a rope around his horns; but the goat contumaciously refused to accompany him, and Policeman Gowan had to be summoned to assist in the removal of the prisoner to the station. Lieut. Shevlin ordered the goat taken to the pound at Twenty-fourth street and Avenue A.

The Rifles.

DESERT SHOOTER WINS MEDAL.

ASTONISHING SCORES AT THE GOVERNMENT CONTEST.

Although the Turnout of Marksmen was Very Small the Scores at the Targets Were Surprisingly Good—Previous Winners Were Debarred from Taking Part.

A nice glittery gold and bronze medal went to desert rat O. H. Scriven, Sunday at the Glendale rifle range, from the Board of the Promotion of Rifle Practice of the War Department. With a clean ten-shot possible on the man target at 200 yards, 47 at 300 to back up this, and 46 to clinch the matter at 500, Scriven won the annual shoot for the medal given each year to the high man, by the aforesaid board.

The programmed shoot took in ten shots timed fire at 200 yards on the silhouette target, time 1½ minutes for the ten shots, slow fire prone at 200, and slow fire prone at 500, possible 150 points.

The cold day, and the damp range—with probable cold striking in through the shoes of some of them—kept most of the shooters away. A bare eleven men fired on the range all day. As winners of the government medal in the past years are barred from taking another, Sergt. Smith, Aikin, V. F. Grace, Crossman, R. P. Umsted and E. C. Price, winners in the various years since 1908, found themselves barred from competition. Jackson, Watkins and Hubbs were also out of it for having won medals in other clubs in years gone by.

The scores were astonishingly high despite the small turnout. Three possibles of ten shots into the figure of a prone man at 200 yards were put on by the ten men firing, while in the entire California State shoot at Sacramento in October, participated in by the militia, not one possible was made at this range out of 120 men firing. To back up this trio of 50's were two 49's, and two 48's. The 300-yard range proved a stumbling block, while the 500-yard work was very poor. With the big scores at 200, however, it is doubtful if anyone would have crowded Scriven out, had the whole club been on deck with its shooting clothes on.

Goldsborough, with a fighting chance for the medal if he got a possible at 500, put on a wide black "two" at one fell shot and backed this up with a three for good measure. Frank Payne, with another fighting chance at 500, where 48 would have given him the medal, was unable to come across with the right score. The pace of the desert man was too fast, and this was the whole story.

REDLANDS GOLFERS PLAYING FOR CUP.

MORRIS PHILLIPS PUTS UP CUP FOR SWEEPSTAKES—GRAY HAS FIRST LEG.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Dec. 14.—In connection with the Saturday sweepstakes at the Redlands Country Club there will be a competition among the golfers for a cup that has been presented by Morris Phillips. Mr. Phillips is considered the crack player of the club. His handicap has been reduced to one. Great interest is being taken in the contest and it is believed that it will result in a large contingent out for each "sweep."

The poor golfers have the same chance to win in this contest as the best, their handicap being a great aid for them. The cup is to be played for every Saturday afternoon, the player winning three times, not necessarily in succession, to become the possessor. On Saturday, when there are team matches here or abroad, there will be no competition. L. R. Clay is the first man to get a leg in the contest with his net of 78 in the Saturday "sweep," Phillips, who won, eliminating himself from the contest.

ARMY AVIATORS TO GET EARLY START.

CAPT. COWAN SAYS FLIGHTS WILL BE MADE FROM WHITTIER ROAD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 14.—The Mackey trophy aerial contest will begin at 8 o'clock Friday morning from a point on the Whittier road near Los Angeles. Fourteen aviators will then start their flights. The other aeroplanes will fly soon after. So Capt. A. S. Cowan announces.

The marines, cavalry and artillery will leave for their positions tomorrow or Wednesday. There will be at least 1500 of them.

The contest is to test the efficency of the air scouts in war time. Their only way of distinguishing the different divisions will be by the uniform and formations.

SIMPLE TRAINING FOR THE CHIFEDS.

NO MORE BRASS BANDS FOR THE NEAR PENNANT WINNERS.

The Chicago Feds, according to President Weeghman, will train at Shreveport again next spring, but there won't be any of the special train stuff, receptions with brass bands, etc. The Chifeds won't go to Shreveport until March 15, will stay a couple of weeks and work their way back playing in such cities as they can find unattached or college teams willing to meet them.

MIKE DONLIN TO BE A MANAGER.

FORMER GIANTS' STAR DRAWS A RELEASE—HAS SOME OFFERS.

One of the interesting announcements of the past week was that the New York Giants had given Mike Donlin a ten-day notice of his release. Several propositions as manager for minor league teams are said to be open to Mike if he cares to accept them. Mike's official position with the Giants in the past season was pinch hitter, but he made a batting mark of only .141 in thirty-one trips to the plate.

BIG PARK FOR THE ATHLETICS.

SYNDICATE FORMED TO BUILD HUGE PLANT FOR BIG STRUGGLER.

In Philadelphia they must be figuring on the Athletics coming back. Plans are announced of the formation of a stock company to build a stadium with a seating capacity of 80,000 people. The idea is to use it for all sorts of athletic events—and world series ball games. Gov. Tener is said to favor the idea. Perhaps he has hopes for the Phillies, too.

BARNEY DREYFUSS REGULAR MARTYR.

COULD HAVE SOLD HENDRIX OR KONETCHY FOR GOOD HARD CASH.

It has cost Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Pirates $30,000 in two years to preserve the good name of baseball. He says he could have sold Claude Hendrix for $15,000 and Ed Konetchy for the same amount, but that he refused to make the deal because he did not want it said he was helping some other club pennantward. Now both players are gone.

BAUM LOPS AN UMPIRE'S HEAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—The first step of President Baum to reduce the Coast League umpire staff to conform with the wishes of the directors for a single-umpire system was taken today, when he presented Gerald Hayes with his unconditional release. Two others of last season's forces are due to receive the same treatment, but President Baum declares that he has not reached a decision on the others to go.

Many rumors have been aired, and one of them has it that Ed Finney, Red Heid and Billy Phyle are reasonably sure of their berths. This leaves Guthrie and McCarthy out in the cold. Perhaps one of the two will be retained as utility official in case some accident or sickness should befall one.

THE FEDS GET JIMMY AUSTIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Dec. 14.—Manager E. T. Oakes of the Pittsburgh Federal League baseball club, announced late today that he had signed James Austin, third baseman of the St. Louis American League Club. Austin, Oakes said, had signed a two-year contract. He refused to state the salary involved.

CHARLEY WAGNER NURSING HIS ARM.

RED SOX SHORTSTOP HOPES TO BE ABLE TO PLAY AGAIN.

Charley Wagner of the Boston Red Sox will go to Hot Springs early in February and begin a course of treatment through which he expects his arm, crippled by rheumatism, to come back as good as ever.

CHARLIE EBBETTS HAS SOME HOPES.

SAYS FOOTBALL SOON WILL DRAW LESS THAN BASE-BALL.

"Baseball at some future date may draw just as big a crowd as this," remarked President Charles H. Ebbets of the Brooklyn club, as he gazed at the vast assemblage in the Yale bowl for the Yale-Harvard game. Then he added, "You know baseball is still in its infancy."

BRESNAHAN VERY BOLD AND FRANK.

GIVES NAMES OF PLAYERS WHO ARE NOT GOOD ENOUGH FOR THE CUBS.

Roger Bresnahan makes no bones about what players he does not desire to keep as Cubs. He announces that Leach, Keating, Corriden, Stack, Smith and Pierce do not suit him.

FEDS DON'T TELL WHAT THEY WILL DO TO CARE FOR HIM.

Mordecai Brown, who was promised by the Federals that he would be taken care of, was in Chicago at the Fed meeting to see what plans had been made for his future, but it is said he got little information and returned to his home in Indiana declined to the notion that you can take nothing for granted in baseball.

SAILOR TO PLAY ON NORFOLK TEAM.

BIG FIRST BASEMAN SIGNED FOR THE COMING SEASON WITH VIRGINIA.

The Norfolk club of the Virginia League has drawn on Uncle Sam's navy for a first baseman. It has signed Allen Brown, who first worked for the dreadnaught Delaware's team and made a great reputation. He is only 19 years of age, but he stands an inch over six feet and weighs 185 pounds. His enlistment in the navy expires January 1.

EVERS ON WAY TO GOOD HEALTH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The condition of Capt. Johnny Evers of the Boston Braves, who is suffering with pneumonia, is steadily improving, it was announced tonight at the hotel where he has been ill for a week. At one time Evers's condition was considered critical.

EVERYMOTHER
Worries Over Her Children

—Every interest in life is secondary to their welfare. Her chief anxiety is to have them go out into the world fully armed and equipped to win an honorable position.

She realizes keenly that the formation of a correct reading habit now will go far toward fitting them mentally to cope with the future.

While THE LITERARY DIGEST is read weekly by nearly a million "grown-ups" it is especially welcome in homes where there are young folks, for it answers the countless "whys" of youth—the questions that they are always asking about the great events in the world about them, and which parents would not be able to answer so well without its aid.

And the young folks are not only delighted—they thrive mentally.

It is not "dry" or "heavy" reading for the youthful mind, for the DIGEST presents all the news of the world except the vicious and morbid, and explains the facts in the news in clean language and graphic pictures.

THE LITERARY DIGEST encourages young people (and "grown-ups" too, for that matter) to think for themselves, to form impartial and correct judgment on live subjects, because while all the facts from all sides are presented, there is no editorial attempt to color or bias them.

Ask any school-teacher anywhere and he or she will be sure to agree that "bright" children are the rule in homes where the DIGEST is a weekly visitor. Reading it enables them to take a respectful and intelligent part in discussions—at school, at home, anywhere.

AT THE STAGE DOOR

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Gertrude Hoffman is to appear in motion pictures for the Tiffany Company during the present week.

* * *

If there are any lip-readers present at the film production of "The Goose-Girl," they will probably laugh in a spot where laughs aren't expected.

When Sydney Dean was appearing before the king, the other day out at the Lasky studio, and was supposed to be quoting from a ponderous book in the royal presence, he was really reciting:

"I never saw a purple cow, I never hope to see one; but I can tell you anyhow, I'd rather see than be one!"

* * *

Dill of Kolb & Dill tells a funny hunting story on his long partner.

"When we were up in Stockton," said Mr. Dill, "a member of one of the famous hunting clubs told us about a ranch where the duck hunting was supposed to be exceptionally fine.

"At 4 o'clock in the morning everybody was up and ready to go. It was a raw, chill morning, but everybody was cheerful. They waited around the hotel lobby for five hours for the hunting citizen to appear. Finally a messenger arrived with a note. The hunters gathered round and read: 'I am very sorry to disappoint you, but my friend, the owner of the ranch, says he won't allow any duck hunters on his property because he's afraid they will make a mistake and shoot a cow.'"

Mr. Kolb looked up cheerfully.

"Ducks grow as big as cows out here? Good! I'm sure I can hit one that size, and I'm going anyhow!"

And go he did, and brought home a fine brace of ducks.

Forbes-Robertson, in speaking of "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," the other day, said he never had expected it to be a money-maker.

"Jerome K. Jerome read the manuscript to Mrs. Forbes-Robertson and myself, one evening, and we liked it tremendously. I took it at once, though we all agreed it was accepted merely because of the beauty of the central idea in the play, not because we thought it could have any popular appeal.

"Yes, it is a hard part to play, my role in that piece. I have no real acting to do. The actor who plays that part must simply make himself felt, that's all. It's merely a matter of personality."

* * *

Forbes-Robertson has two brothers in the war, one an officer at the front, the other belonging to the National Reserves. He has likewise many friends in the English army.

"Robin Gray, who was killed in battle, was one of my dearest friends," he said.

* * *

In speaking of Maxine Elliot, his sister-in-law, the noted actor said:

"My sister-in-law has been trying for a long time to get permission from the government to go to the front, and it has been denied. I just received word today that she has taken one of her own motors, fully equipped for hospital purposes, and gone to Paris. Wonderfully brave, I call it, risking encountering those German barbarians!"

* * *

"It was when I first became a member of Mansfield's company," he said. "We were rehearsing 'Beau Brummel' one day and, wanting to ask the noted actor something, I timidly touched him on the arm. He turned as quick as a wink:

"'Why don't you wear gloves?' he said.

"'I—I—why,' I stammered; 'I didn't think it was necessary.'

"I thought he meant why didn't I wear gloves in his presence.

"Mansfield only answered drily: 'That's your cue!' So it was, and if ever I wanted to exit through the floor, it was at that minute."

Carlyle Blackwell's picture, Richard Harding Davis's "Unfinished Chapter," which he has recently completed for the Favorite Players Film Company, was given its premiere run at Cline's Broadway Theater on Saturday night.

Mr. Blackwell appeared at his best in the part of the hero, a young engineer who goes to South Africa for the English Geographic Society and encounters all sorts of thrilling adventures.

The photoplay gives opportunity for much excellent photography, and there are some wonderful night scenes, a most artistic silhouette, showing the long train of Zulu runners ascending a hill in the moonlight, a tropical thunderstorm (nobody but the Creator and Carlyle Blackwell know how the elements were made to obey Mr. Blackwell!) and some fascinating Zulu village pictures, showing thousands of Africans dressed in their shields and little else.

Miss Ruth Hartman as the hero's sweetheart, did some fine acting, and John Sheehan as Lord Reggie, did some delightful comedy work. Henry Kernan played the part of Mr. Edgerton with dignity and force, and George McDaniel appeared to advantage as Mr. Trevalyan.

* * *

Smiles wreathed the face of Manager Fountain of the Hip the other day as he approached the theater and saw a line of autos in front, reaching almost from Second to Third streets. "Dream of my life come true!" he gasped gleefully. And the fact that they proved to be jitney busses didn't dampen his ardor half as much as the sudden shower.

January 16 has been set as the date when the queens of tragedy and the kings of comedy from Filmland will frolic on the ballroom floor of Burbank Auditorium.

Miss Nanna Bryant, who plays the role of "the girl" with Kolb and Dill at the Morosco, is the same little girl who gave such a tremendously big performance as the star in "The Traffic."

Nannette Flack, prima donna with Kolb and Dill at the Morosco, has the distinction of being the first woman who ever ascended to the top of the Tower of Jewels, 435 feet high, an exposition feature in San Francisco.

During the San Francisco engagement of the company Miss Flack obtained permission to ascend the tower, which she did by means of freight elevators, rude ladders and winding stairways. The trip is a hazardous one, but Miss Flack succeeded in making it and in bringing away one of the jewels as a souvenir.

John D. Callicott, manager of Woodley's Theater, is strong for educational films. This week he inaugurates the policy of one educational picture each week with a competent lecturer telling the story at the same time.

* * *

Dorothy Gish, the Mutual film star who was injured in an auto accident recently, has received literally thousands of letters since her mishap. One day she received 273 letters and seventy-two telegrams!

One letter from a little girl was from Canada, and was addressed simply "Dorothy Gish, Moving Picture Actress," without naming city or State.

Rivals Benjamin Franklin's fame, doesn't it, when somebody addressed a letter to him, "Benjamin Franklin, the World!"

Miss Gish is recovering slowly, and will probably be about in the course of a couple of weeks.

* * *

Jane Urban, who has just gone north with the Gaiety company, is planning at the end of her San Francisco engagement to go into vaudeville with Percy Bronson.

Marie Dressler,

Mabel Normand and Charlie Chaplin as they appear in the biggest comedy motion picture ever made, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," in six reels—coming to the Republic Theater next week.

WALTER M'CREDIE GETS FIELDERS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 14.—Walter H. McCredie, manager of the Portland baseball team, today announced that two infielders, Milton Reed and Joe Murphy, had been obtained from the Philadelphia Nationals in exchange for shortstop David Bancroft of Portland. Negotiations for the trade were begun some time ago, but only now completed.

Golf.

MIDWICK INAUGURATES NEW FORM OF TOURNEY.

Ladies at that Country Club are to Have a Series of Golf Competition — Altadena has Added to the Links and is Making Preparations for a Serious Golf Career.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

THE Midwick Country Club inaugurates a new form of golf tournament this morning on the class system recently adopted by the San Gabriel Country Club for their Saturday competitions.

There is a most encouraging number of entries and all Midwick's best golfers are supporting the innovation. There will be no qualifying round but pairings were drawn last night from the names entered. Players are divided into three classes. Class A includes all the handicaps to 7; class B comprises the handicaps between 8 and 15; class C takes care of the rest.

The drawings in class A are Jack Jevne and Le Roy Armstrong; E. H. Williams a bye; J. M. Hixon a bye; A. M. Goodhue a bye; Arthur Braly a bye; W. K. Jewett a bye; Conde Jones a bye; E. S. Armstrong and R. E. Hunter.

The byes enable those players to start out on their second-round matches. There is the widest latitude regarding time of play, each man arranging a date with his opponent, so long as the match is settled by Saturday.

In class C G. S. Pettee plays J. C. Drake; Norwood Howard plays H. P. Guthrie; E. D. Lyman plays E. A. Bryant; George Deats plays George A. Weber; William M. Orr a bye; E. V. Armstrong a bye; Earl Cowan a bye; L. V. Starr a bye; J. F. Tanner plays A. C. Balch; W. H. Buckingham plays F. E. Wilcox; J. McWilliams plays A. L. Cheney; Gurney Newlin plays E. N. Hawkins; Edmund Parker plays E. B. Sadler, and W. A. Joyce plays Michael J. Connell.

There are desirable prizes for each class and the tournament must conclude before the New Year.

THE LADIES.

This afternoon the ladies of the Midwick Club will also hold a golf competition-handicap match play against bogey, eighteen holes. They, too, have a goodly number of entries. This has become a weekly event now, Mrs. J. M. Hixon having been last week's winner.

AT ALTADENA.

The Altadena Country Club has engaged Louis Berrien for their golf professional and they intend making a very pronounced and definite golf debut at last. So far they have chiefly distinguished themselves in social channels.

Now, however, the course is being brought up to form. The outer nine holes are already in good shape and the rest are fast reaching that stage of perfection where it is positively necessary to hold a golf invitation tournament and show off your links. To which end they announce a tournament, open to all golf players, on December 24, and visitors will be welcomed all day.

Golf is to positively become a serious raison d'etre at Altadena—after two years. It has always seemed such a pity that that fine course, with its great possibilities, its natural hazards, its unequalled scenery, should be allowed to run to waste. The severe sand storm which attacked it soon after its inception seems to have discouraged further efforts. For some weeks now Watson, the course expert, has been giving it his attention and it is safe to say that Altadena will rank among the pleasant and desirable courses in the near future. The greens are in good condition and some new bunkers are in course of erection.

THE GOLF SCHEDULE.

After all the care that was bestowed upon it, one observes that there are several conflicting dates in the season's golf schedule by which some of our best players will be denied attendance at the invitation tournaments unless some change is arranged.

On the day of the Virginia invitation tournament, for instance—February 20th—the Annandale team is scheduled to visit the Orange County Club at Balboa to play their league match.

Likewise on the date of the semi-finals of the Los Angeles invitation tournament, March 13, Annandale takes her team to the Virginia Long Beach—which, is rather unkindly, presupposing that neither an Annandale or a Virginia star will figure in the finals. Whereas it is more than possible that, says W. W. Campbell and A. A. French, two gentlemen who played notable golf at Del Monte, will stand a very good chance of that honor.

League Opens.

PREPS PLAY FIRST CITY BASKETBALL GAMES TODAY.

THE city high school basketball league will open this afternoon. Los Angeles plays on Lincoln's outdoor court. Gardena will tackle the Tollers in the Manual gym. Poly will travel out to Hollywood. All of the games will start at 3:30 o'clock.

The practice games indicate a whirlwind season. The teams seem to be more evenly matched and better than last year. Manual and Lincoln seem to be slight favorites.

The Cliffdwellers play Lincoln today without Tad Wiseman. His loss is a serious blow to them. The tall, fighting center has been giving all the signals and is in every play. Hedford or Sherer will take his place.

Capt. Mosse and Abram will be the forwards, while Sherman and Johns will be the guards.

The strength of Gardena is speculative. But the Tollers have a strong quintette. Hughes and Klawitter are the forwards, Perry the center, and Tostenson and Henderson, guards. Hughes is the Manual star.

Poly has the advantage of Delaney in the Hollywood game. He is supposed to be a better player than "Red" Wilson, which is going some.

FISHERMAN GETS 59 FISH ON LINE.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Dec. 14.—A record catch of fifty-nine fish, totalling 285 pounds in weight, is claimed by J. P. Taylor, veteran fisherman of this city. Capt. Taylor made his sensational catch yesterday afternoon, while dangling his line over the side of the launch Kingfisher. There were ten other men aboard, all of whom solemnly vouch for the veracity of Capt. Taylor on this occasion.

Taylor was trolling with a special fishing device invented by himself. He felt a sudden pull on his line. The weight grew heavier and heavier, and he frantically requested the captain of the launch to back up. This was done, and with the help of half a dozen other fishermen, Taylor drew in a set-line containing fifty-nine grouppers, rock cod, white fish and one four-foot oil shark. It was the set line lost by Capt. A. H. Mason on the fishing banks two days before. The fish were hauled aboard and divided among the men of the party.

Good Things for the Women Folk

Meaty, Interesting Monthly Literature

"All the News All the Time"

THE WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION

To others it is a Cook Book—a source of ideas that makes every delightful surprise—a book of recipes that are good because they were and make good things.

To another large group it is an Embroidery Guide—a place to turn to for all that is loveliest and daintiest and most original in embroidery, knitting and crocheting.

To many it is a Book of Fashions—a counsellor that is dependable in matters of dress, because it tells the why and how as well as the what of fashion news.

To more than a million women, the Woman's Home Companion is a Friend and Companion and a source of inspiration—a warm and kindly place to which to turn in time of need, for strength and wise counsel and encouragement.

And thousands upon thousands of homely, practical suggestions that come as a boon to the woman who makes the home—time-saving, worry-saving, dollar-saving ideas that lift home making from drudgery to an occupation of distinction.

Because of the difference in time between Washington and San Diego the electric spark that will pulse in a flash across 3000 miles of wire to set the lights of the expo... sition grounds glowing will become "effective" at the Mother Mission City one minute after midnight.

"It will not be a brightly-lighted exposition, not compared with the electric city effects of Buffalo and others," said Mr. Davidson. "But I firmly believe that no exposition in history will be more beautiful, and that no other will have more of en... ticing flavor.

"The mission, the early California, the Spanish and the Moorish spirit have been blended in architecture, setting, and special events. "We have tried to create an exposition beau... tiful and unique, and have been told by those who know we did things in an architectural way that are worthy of preservation. As a matter of fact, most of the buildings are built to stay as an adornment for our park."

CITY'S ACHIEVEMENT

An exposition within a park is what the San Diego "show" will be, a park embellished by the people of that city by the expenditure on grounds and buildings of over $2,500,000, with $500,000 additional spent on contiguous grounds. The remainder of the $10,000,000 invest... ment in the exposition that is to be thrown open in two weeks hence for the delight and instruction of the people of all the world, is in ex... hibits and in buildings erected by States, and by California counties or aggregations of counties.

"A home exposition" is the way some of the railroad folders refer to that at San Diego. It is "a home exposition," both because one city built it, a rather restricted portion of the United States aiding, and be... cause it will have an appeal to all to come to the Southwest to make their home. Throughout, there will be the siren call of the Southwest, the Southwest of a romantic past, a glowing present, and an assured and golden future.

And the call will be one based on actual statistical showing of what any part of the Southwest offers in the way of a livelihood on the land. There will be model farms and in... formation in voluminous quantities on everything from carnation raising at Redondo Beach to hog-raising in the Imperial Valley. It will be a land show, with a difference.

Judge Pronounces First Penitentiary Sentence in Three Years for Ob... scene Picture Traffic.

Judge Bledsoe upset a custom in the United States District Court yesterday when he sentenced E. W. Ritter, a young man of this city, to three years in the Federal penitentiary at Mc... Neil's Island, for using the mails to send obscene pictures to clients all over the country.

Ritter was formerly a railroad man, and it was said for him that he was in the disreputable business to secure money for a brother who is in... capacitated by illness. But Judge Bledsoe said there were no extenuat... ing circumstances. The court refused to hear witnesses who offered to show that Ritter is of good moral char... acter, pointing out that he had con... fessed to a serious offense against the government, and that there is no way of estimating the damage his acts have caused.

The sentence was the first involving a penitentiary term for such an of... fense in the past three years at the local Federal court.

ESCAPES TWO BANDITS.

Springing from an alleyway on Wall street, between Ninth and Tenth streets early last night, two bandits, both armed with revolvers, attempted to hold up Fred Poelkey of No. 1352 West Forty-fifth street.

Mr. Poelkey, when ordered by one of the bandits to throw up his hands, called for help and fled. The two bandits gave chase, and only left his trail when several pedestrians, who had heard the shouts, ran from near... by buildings.

HABEAS CORPUS APPEAL.

The petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Ernest C. Reed, a local real estate man, will be argued before Judge James of the District Court of Appeal this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Reed is charged with swindling Asaph Sergeant of Daven... port, Iowa, out of a check for $5000 and ten shares of the American Se... curity Company, in return for land located in Moore county, Tex., that it is now alleged was incumbered and not even owned by Reed. The war... rant of rendition was issued by Gov. Johnson and Judge Willis denied the writ of habeas corpus, and a final ap... peal is made to the higher court.

COURT BUSY WITH JITNEY BUS MEN.

ONE FINED, ANOTHER REBUKED, THIRD CHARGED WITH INTOXICATION.

"Jitney" bus drivers kept the police and Police Courts busy yesterday. In addition to the regular list of acci... dents due to this traffic, one driver is in the City Jail awaiting trial on the charge of intoxication, one was fined, and another was given a lecture and a suspended jail sentence.

Begrad Stepanian was arrested for the third time for a traffic violation the police have long sought to pre... vent. He, like many other "jitney" drivers, stopped on a street intersec... tion in the thick of traffic to pick up a prospective passenger. Police Judge White learned that he was previously fined $3 by Judge Fredericksen and $10 by Judge Chambers for a similar offense.

"Such men as you," said Judge White, "are a menace to public safety and should not be allowed to endanger the lives of citizens by running one of these 5-cent busses. Your state... ment that you did not know you were violating a traffic ordinance is all the more reason why you should not drive one of these machines, for in this case ignorance is worse than cul... pability. I will give you a sentence of thirty days in jail, will suspend the sentence and place you on probation. I will also recommend to the Police Commission that your license be taken away from you, for I believe that the 'jitney' bus situation is so acute that the city is better off without such men as you in charge of a machine."

Paul M. Miller, who thought his "jitney" bus could go faster than a high-powered police machine driven by Patrolman Bradley, came in for a lecture from the same judge. Cheered on by his four passengers, Mr. Miller "put her in the high" up to thirty-seven miles an hour. The burst of speed cost him $35, which he paid in preference to spending twenty-five days in jail.

Elton P. Nettis, No. 128 West Forty-third street, also had a "burst of speed" of a different nature which he will have to explain in court today. He left his machine near First and Main streets and started out to seek a fight, according to Detectives King and Oaks. The detectives took the driver's badge away and locked him up in the City Jail.

Dr. M. Evangeline Jordan of No. 214 North Avenue Sixty-six complained to the police yesterday that she stopped her machine twenty feet in the rear of a street car near Third street and Broadway. A "jitney" bus, No. 120762, listed to Moses Uroff of No. 133 Salt Lake terrace, smashed into the rear of her automobile, damaging it con... siderably.

BREADWINNER FREED.

After spending a night in jail for speeding on a motorcycle, Harry Langford, 18 years old, came to the conclusion yesterday that hereafter he will put his feet on the brakes rather than the clutch when he feels the "speed mania" coming on. Police Judge White lectured the young man, gave him a suspended sentence of ten days in jail and put him on probation for two years. Though the boy is a three-time offender, he escaped a jail sentence because he is his mother's sole support.

DIES OF BURNS FROM GAS LEAK.

Youth Seizes Live Wire and is Severely Shocked.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Dec. 15.—Writhing in agony as the result of burns sustained yesterday morning as she was preparing the noonday meal, Mrs. Judson Fuller, 55 years old, of No. 174 Dearborn street, died yesterday afternoon shortly before 4 o'clock at the Pasadena Hospital.

Mrs. Fuller was at her home alone. In some way the gas leaked, and, a great flame bursting out, she was soon enveloped in a great mass of seething fire. She became frantic and ran, shrieking, from her home into that of her neighbor's, Mrs. J. H. Spencer, No. 182 Dearborn street.

By the time she reached the place her clothing was practically burned from her body, which was seared with burns. Mrs. Spencer telephoned for an ambulance, and, wrapping the suffering woman in a blanket, rushed her to the Pasadena Hospital, where everything known to the medical science was done to give relief. But it was only when by the influence of anesthetics that she was quieted until she found relief in death.

Mrs. Fuller was married only about a year ago to Judson Fuller, a painter, and it was for him that she was preparing the dainties which were to cost her her life.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist Church. Burial will follow in Mountain View Cemetery.

SEIZES LIVE WIRE.

With almost 3000 volts of electricity racing through his body, Otto White, a teamster, 19 years old, was hurled to the ground and rendered unconscious, and several fingers of his right hand were burned to a crisp, after having picked up a live wire yesterday morning on North Catalina avenue. The force of the shock threw him off his feet and his head struck the curb. The wire was jerked from his stiffened fingers as he fell.

William Reeves carried the boy to a place of safety, after which he was taken to his home in the Arroyo Seco by Reeves and Police Surgeon Coates. White picked the wire up, intending to get it out of the way of others who might happen to be passing.

BY APPOINTMENT.

Beginning with the first Monday in January, Pasadena constables will no longer be elected, but will serve by appointment instead. Constable Harley Newell will continue in office, wearing the title of deputy sheriff. Although Constable Walter C. Austin has not yet determined what he will do, his friends declare that he will probably not serve any longer, as he would not care to accept the straight salary of $125.

Until the new year they will continue to collect and keep fees in payment of their services. After that, article 5 of the new county charter will become effective and the constables will receive only their salaries, the fees being turned over to the County Treasurer the first Monday of each month.

MAILS SWAMPED.

Postmaster Clark McLain has received so many Santa Claus letters that he and his corps of assistants are overwhelmed and are begging to be spared from any more—that is, unless they are really from children whose parents are too poor to provide for their Christmas cheer.

All letters of this character are turned over to societies or charitably-inclined persons, and it will necessitate a lot of useless work in assorting the letters of the poorer children from those of the rich.

Postmaster McLain says: "Let your children write to Santa Claus if they wish to, but before the letters are mailed intercept them if you possibly can."

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, Dec. 14.—As a result of a raid by the police at 2 o'clock Sunday morning on the house at No. 901 West Philadelphia street, seven young men were arraigned before Judge A. B. Taylor this morning. Dr. Paul Wilson and E. J. Horseley were charged with violating the city ordinance against maintaining a place where liquor is distributed. The others were charged with being in such a place, and are Frank Gooch, Harold Chappel, Charles Worsham, Charles Hibbs, and Paul Reynolds.

When the raid was made two girls were in the house, Stella Bruyn Brown, a married woman, and Helen Hauswerth, a girl aged 18. The girls were allowed to go on their own recognizance, but failed to appear in court today.

The men pleaded not guilty today and will have their trial Thursday. The house raided has for some time been maintained by Dr. Wilson, Horseley and others as a bachelors' apartments.

IRRIGATION SYSTEM.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 14.—An extensive irrigation system is being installed at the colony of Lerdo in this county. The colony is backed by the same interests that controlled the San Joaquin Light and Power Company, and D. L. Wishon of the company has taken charge of the installation. Cement pipes are being laid through the entire tract where big olive groves were planted last spring. A similar system of cement pipes is being laid through the big orchard at Famosa. It is expected that the owners of the orchard will install pump irrigation to avoid the repetition of the shortage of water which has occurred during the last few years.

LAUNCH IN DISTRESS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, Dec. 14.—Excitement was created today when a disabled fishing launch appeared on the bay looking like a battleship half submerged. George Watson, out for the early fish in his power launch, had engine trouble and hoisted a white flag on a fish pole and the land-lubbers were firm in their convictions that the little vessel was a mighty war-dog in a sinking condition. Two Venice fishermen answered Watson's signal of distress and in their launch went out to the boat and towed it in the ten miles to shore.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Dec. 14.—Maj. R. R. Raymond, corps of United States engineers, in charge of the work of building the fortifications here, has put a ban on liquor. A circular issued over his signature from the engineer's office says:

"Employees of this office are forbidden to bring intoxicating liquor upon the United States reservation at San Pedro or Fort MacArthur.

"Violation of this prohibition will be ground for dismissal.

"No employee under the influence of liquor will be permitted to work or to remain on the reservation, and no pay will be allowed for time when incapacitated by means of liquor or other causes due to misconduct.

"No persons will be allowed on the reservation who are intoxicated or disorderly, or who have intoxicants in their possession.

"This office is not responsible for the acts of its employees while they are not on duty on the work, but nevertheless all employees are enjoined to avoid all disorderly or unseemly conduct at all times, especially the use of intoxicants to excess. Disregard of this injunction will reflect upon this office and the government service and will be considered by this office as indication of the undesirability of retaining offending employees in the service."

MORE FRUIT SHIPS.

As a result of the greater demand for refrigerating space with the increased movement of freight from this coast, W. R. Grace & Co. are arranging to dispatch three of their vessels to the Atlantic with consignments of perishable California products.

The steamer Santa Clara, which sailed from this port for San Francisco a few days ago, will on her return voyage pick up 500 tons of apples, vegetables and citrus fruits, which is all that can be carried in the refrigerating space. The Santa Cecelia, now loading at New York, and the Santa Catalina, now undergoing repairs at Portland, are also equipped with the same space for cold storage products.

The Santa Clara was the first vessel to make the experiment of taking perishable fruits in cold storage space. Before the Panama Canal was opened this steamer took 9000 boxes of apples from the Watsonville district to Montevideo. The experiment was a success and plans were then made to take shipments of this kind through the canal.

ATLANTIC COAL.

Station agents along the line of the Southern Pacific road will this winter for the first time burn coal shipped through this port from the Atlantic Coast. The steamer Henry T. Scott, due here tomorrow from New York, has 1000 tons for the railroad company.

Years ago the Southern Pacific used much coal shipped through this port. In the days before oil-burning engines it came in sailing vessels in full cargoes from British Columbia and from Australia. The last cargo shipped through this port came from Marshfield, Or., about five years ago, and was brought by the steamer Czarina, which was lost shortly afterward on the Coos Bay bar.

WARSHIP MAIL.

Eleven sacks of first-class and registered mail from the United States warships in Mexican and Central American waters kept the clerks at the local postoffice on the move for several hours today. The mail was brought up from the south yesterday by the cruiser Denver, now in the outer harbor, and included Christmas letters and packages from members of the various crews to friends and relatives at home.

DRIVER WHIPS TEAM TO DEATH.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

COVINA, Dec. 14.—William Mavis, a ranch hand, was seriously injured and two horses were instantly killed this morning when a Pacific Electric San Bernardino flyer struck the wagon belonging to William Aschenbrenner at the Lark Ellen-street crossing.

The driver said that he saw the train coming, but whipped his team to get across. The car struck the horses squarely, throwing them for nearly 100 feet. Mavis was taken to Covina, where Dr. J. D. Reed found that he had suffered a broken collar bone and severe scalp wounds.

STRIKES TRAMP WITH A HAMMER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Dec. 14.—After O. E. Lemus had struck a bold hobo in the face with a three-pound hammer, the hobo fired at him with a revolver. Then, evidently hoping to entice Lemus away from his home that revenge upon him might be secured, the Santa Fe Station at Gypsum was set afire.

Lemus is zanjero for the Anaheim Union Water Company in the Santa Ana Canyon. His home is near the place where the Gypsum station stood. Last night about 7:30 o'clock, three men went to Lemus's home and demanded food. Lemus said he had none cooked. One of the trio walked in, saying that he was going to cook something, regardless of what Lemus said. Lemus ordered him out of the house. The man advanced toward Lemus threateningly. Lemus reached for a three-pound hammer and threw it, striking the man squarely in the face. Lemus dodged out of the room, and the injured hobo retired out of the front door. Lemus then ran back into the house after a revolver, and when he appeared at the front door he was met by a shot from the tramp. The man he had struck with the hammer fired from the gate fifteen yards away. The bullet went into the house six feet from where Lemus stood.

Half an hour later fire broke out in the small station on the Santa Fe. The three hobos were seen near by, but the fact that neighbors gathered probably prevented them attacking Lemus.

The canyon was searched today by Under Sheriff Law, Deputy Veltal and Constable Heard, but the hobos were not found. Lemus is sure that he left a mark on the intruder's face.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Four masked men entered a tent occupied by Fred Schwendemann, Roy Barker, Fred Barker and Tom Moore, employees of the San Joaquin Fruit Company, and with revolvers compelled the fruit company employees to "elevate 'em," as ordered. Schwendemann lost $4.50, while $15 in paper money was overlooked.

Rev. Fred Staff, former pastor of the First Congregational Church, returned today from a trip of three and a half months that took him to Sweden, Norway and Denmark. The trip was taken for the recovery of health, a result that was accomplished. Rev. Mr. Staff says that grave anxiety exists in the three countries he visited lest they be drawn into the European struggle.

The Anaheim Sugar Company has demanded of the Board of Supervisors that $6339.89 tax money paid under protest be returned. The money was paid as taxes in the Anaheim-Fullerton road division, formed to do paving on a road between Anaheim and Fullerton. The company alleges that the division is illegally formed.

Morrill Newman was sentenced today to six months in jail for battery. His wife was the complainant. She said that she was struck by her husband, and that with a pistol he chased her out of the house.

Ralph and Floyd Smith, brothers, aged 17 and 15, and Clyde Higginson and Sam White, half-brothers, aged 12 and 16, are in the Juvenile Court on charges of burglarizing three houses near Fullerton. In each house they stole "funny papers," the Sunday supplements. A diamond ring, a gold watch, a razor, money and some cigars, were taken. The cigars did not taste good, evidently, for the boys threw them into a ditch.

WHALES ATTACK WHARF.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 14.—Several pilings of the Port Los Angeles pier were torn out last night by four whales which strayed from a school of fifteen seen in the vicinity of the wharf. Fishermen assert that the whales were blinded by the lights from the Japanese village, situated at the shore, and of the pier.

SEEK REVIVAL OF POLL TAX.

Deficiency in School Revenues Alarms Superintendents.

Tourists Now Pay Nothing to Educate Children.

Annual State Convention is Busy at Riverside.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 14.—How best to make up the deficiency in revenue suffered by the schools of the State by reason of the decision of the voters at the last election to do away with the poll tax is one of the problems that will have the attention of the city and county school superintendents of the State, many of whom were on hand when the annual convention opened here this afternoon.

The public schools of California will have $900,000 less money for their support the coming year as a result of the carrying of the amendment, and it will be incumbent on the Boards of Supervisors of the several counties to levy an assessment to meet this deficiency.

The amount that will have to be raised in this county—$14,000—will serve to indicate what additional burden the taxpayers of the State will have to meet.

"FREE" EDUCATION.

School men point to the fact that the only source of income the schools have had from the tourists who place hundreds of children in the public schools in Southern California during the winter months was the poll tax, assessed and collected in the several counties.

It is expected that the next Legislature will formulate some measure that will provide the income lost through the abolition of the poll tax, and at tomorrow's session the superintendents will discuss the matter of a substitute. The discussion will be led by Mark Keppel of Los Angeles and C. C. Starr of Fresno.

The opening session this afternoon was devoted to a consideration of supplemental text-books.

GRAND JURY DRAWN.

A new grand jury was empanelled in the Superior Court this morning, the names of the following being drawn: W. T. Dinsmore, foreman; A. L. Kumler, F. T. Morrison, Norman L. Dickson, W. S. Rather, J. T. Garner, F. W. Staider, Alxer East, C. P. Hancock, W. L. Percy, A. E. Davis, H. M. Harford, E. B. Cole, J. Vande Grift, R. J. Roulston, Joy G. Jameson, G. B. McGillivray, A. N. Youngiqve, F. A. Tetley.

The 1914 grand jury, which was dismissed on December 10, established a record of being in session almost an entire year. The report was withheld largely for the reason that the Sanitation Committee of that body wished to be assured that definite action was to be taken in the matter of installing a sewer in the southwestern portion of the city.

GOES TO JAIL FOR TEN YEARS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 14.—Ed Mallicoate, former police chauffeur, was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary today by Judge Sloan for the killing of Fred Collier, a marine. He was denied probation.

Mallicoate shot Collier on a vacant lot near the Police Station the night of August 3, and claimed he shot in self-defense as he tried to arrest Collier, whom he thought was holding up a civilian with other marines. Collier had no gun.

Attorney Dadmun, for Mallicoate, bitterly scored the conduct of the United States soldiers and marines today.

PRIVATE GROUNDS.

Driven to desperation by the steady stream of applicants for rooms, sidewalk concessions, and so forth, that appear daily at his elegant home, one of the show places here facing the exposition park, a citizen has placed a large sign in front of the house, which reads: "This is no free information bureau; we have no rooms to let; we have no concessions to sell."

Other residents in the section threaten to put up similar signs.

WOMAN'S WORK.

Mrs. F. G. Sanborn, president of the Woman's Board of the Panama-California Exposition at San Francisco, who is the guest of the San Diego exposition officials today, states that the woman's auxiliary boards of the San Francisco and the San Diego expositions will co-operate in the work during the next year to make the fair a success. She will address the San Diego club tomorrow on woman's work at the San Francisco fair.

THE TIMES has arranged a daily automobile paper delivery service between Los Angeles and San Diego, deliveries passing at San Diego about 7 a.m. daily. BEAUMONT HIGHWAY MEN CHAFE SORELY AT DELAY

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BEAUMONT, Dec. 14.—Impatient over the delay in the starting of construction work on the proposed new county highway system, the residents of portions of Riverside county are threatening to start proceedings to secure the resignation or dismissal of the county highway commissioners unless more rapid progress is made in the immediate future.

The members of the commission are S. C. Evans, W. B. Clancy and A. C. Campbell, all residents of Riverside. They were appointed by the County Supervisors.

More than a year ago a county bond issue of $1,125,000 was voted by the people of the county. The bonds were sold shortly thereafter and the money was received and has been on deposit in Riverside since May. With the exception of two or three small contracts, no construction work has been done on the highway system.

SEEK TO SUBSTANTIATE HIGH-SEAS MARR[illegible]

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Dec. 14.—Kenneth N. Bright, No. 4548 Western avenue, Los Angeles, assisted by detectives, has been here for two days endeavoring to learn the details of a double wedding on the high seas which took place off Long Beach just twenty years ago, in one of the launches plying from this beach.

To the widow and son of one of the men married on that occasion will go part of an estate valued at nearly $1,000,000. Neither Bright, who represents a Los Angeles title company, nor the detectives, would give the names of the parties.

According to Bright, a gay party of young people chartered one of the launches which plied from the first pier for a day's fishing in the channel. During the trip there was considerable talk about marriages on the high seas. Two of the young men aboard challenged their young women companions to [illegible] while afloat.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

MONROVIA, Dec. 14.—Three Monrovia boys had a narrow escape from spending last night in the mountains north of Monrovia, when they tried to penetrate the dense underbrush that lines the slopes and reach the firebreak before dark. As it was, they emerged from the hills at 9:30 o'clock, with hands and faces scratched and bleeding, clothing torn to shreds, and chilled to the bone. Their parents, fearing they had fallen into some canyon, were on the point of organizing a searching party when the boys reached home.

Their predicament was caused by their attempting to climb the dangerous Sawpit falls late in the afternoon. They climbed the slippery rocks at the side of the falls, but darkness came down suddenly, making a return too dangerous to attempt. Accordingly they started to make a detour to the firebreak, and started in to "buck" the mesquite, buckthorn, manzanita and juniper, that makes up the body of the mountain vegetation. For hours they crawled on hands and knees through the thorny thicket, and finally won their way to the trail.

Several years ago a party had a similar experience in the same locality, with the difference that they were compelled to pass the night on the mountain side, having reached a precipice from which they could not descend and the trail being too steep for them to return.

WHITTIER ENTERTAINMENT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, Dec. 14.—The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce will give an entertainment for the membership tomorrow evening at the Berry-Grand. The general subject to be exploited will be "Whittier, Past, Present and Future." Someone discovered recently that a score of years ago, Dr. W. V. Coffin went east to tell his friends there of the new Quaker colony in Los Angeles county, and that the young doctor took with him an admirable collection of stereopticon views of the young city. Tomorrow night the same lecture will be given to the Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. N. T. Edwards will speak on the Whittier of today. J. Clem Arnold will "dip his eye into the future" and tell of the greater Whittier-to-be.

BELDEN CASE NEARING END.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS ARE MADE BY THE ATTORNEYS.

Court Intimates a Decree of Divorce will be Granted, but He Failed to State Who Would Get It. Estate to be Appraised to Settle Question of Alimony.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—That the entry "Mr. and Mrs. George F. Belden" on the register of the Hotel Arlington, Santa Barbara, November 11, 1913, is in the handwriting of the millionaire who is fighting his wife's suit for a divorce, was the testimony today of a handwriting expert in Superior Judge Troutt's court. Belden testified he was in this city on that date, while Mrs. Belden's contention is that her spouse was accompanied on the alleged Santa Barbara outing by Mrs. Martha Clarke, named in the supplementary complaint as the co-respondent.

Following argument by counsel for both sides, Judge Troutt intimated there would be a decree granted in the case, but not stating in whose favor. A cross-complaint by Belden asks for a decree on the ground of cruelty. In order to be in a position to pass on the matter of possible alimony to Mrs. Belden, Judge Troutt stated on Wednesday, December 23, he would appoint appraisers to place a valuation on Belden's property.

In his closing address, the attorney for Belden said the testimony of the handwriting expert was "opinion" evidence and should not weigh against that of half a dozen witnesses that the millionaire was in this city at the home of his son, Josiah Belden, Sixteenth avenue and Lake street, on the day in question. He intimated that there may have been a "frame-up" as "it is not known where all the parties on the other side were at that time."

Josiah Belden, Mrs. Josiah Belden, Mrs. B. F. King, Mrs. Margaret Mee, Marshall Paris and others had testified last Saturday that the elder Belden was in San Francisco during the week of November 10, 1913.

PLEADS GUILTY OF FORGERY.

But a Cable from Holland Saves the Former Dutch Consul in Portland from Going to Prison.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 14.—J. W. Matthes, former local representative of the International Mortgage Bank of Apeldoorn, Holland, and ex-Vice-Consul for The Netherlands in Portland, pleaded guilty today to attempted forgery and was sentenced to from one to ten years in the penitentiary and afterward paroled by Circuit Judge McGinn.

Judge McGinn's action was based on a cablegram from the defrauded company, asking clemency for Matthes and W. J. Summers and Robert J. Snow, who were accused with him.

Final disposition of the cases against Snow and Summers will be made later. Summers is now in California, under heavy bond.

REFUSE SPECIAL ELECTION.

Alameda County Supervisors Turn Deaf Ear to Proponents of Panama-Pacific Appropriation.

OAKLAND, Dec. 14.—In spite of earnest appeals from representatives of many Chambers of Commerce and commercial organizations of the county, the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county refused today to call an election for a vote on the county's $1,000,000 appropriation to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, which was made technically possible by a State-wide vote on an initiative measure passed at the election of November 3.

The Supervisors who opposed submission of the bonding measure pointed out that more than half of the voters at the general election had voted "No" on the measure to make the special election possible, and that the passage of the bonds would require a two-thirds vote to carry.

LOS ANGELES MAN SENTENCED.

C. E. Cole is Given Three Months in Jail for Concealing a Quantity of Opium in His Trunk.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—C. E. Cole, an expressman of Los Angeles, was sentenced by Federal Judge Dooling today to three months in the Alameda County Jail on the charge of concealing seventy-two tins of opium. Cole was arrested on his arrival from the south, October 12, by Special Agent of the Treasury W. H. Tidwell. On his person, it is claimed by the government, was found a baggage check to a trunk containing the contraband.

AT MERCY OF CROOKS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Chief of Police White told a committee of the Civic League of Improvements Club today that San Francisco's police department is suffering from a shortage of patrolmen, and as a result he is utterly unable to cope with the crime wave which has struck the city.

Following the large increase of burglaries, hold-ups and robberies in the last few weeks, the league asked Chief White for a conference on means of suppression.

The police records show that criminals have exhibited unusual daring of late. They have entered office buildings and have frequently held up women.

"The modern crook is a high-class criminal, who outshines the ordinary policeman in brains a city block," said White.

"Here we are with the exposition nearly ready to open and the natural influx of crooks upon us. We cannot cope with crime under present conditions. Give us a full quota of men and we'll make a better showing."

PLAN TO TRY AGAIN.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VISALIA, Dec. 14.—Convinced that the recent bond election held to pass on $1,488,000 in good roads bonds, which failed to carry by 800 votes short of the necessary two-thirds, was lost largely through lack of a proper organization, officials of the Tulare County Good Roads Association have laid plans for calling another election in March, at which bonds of $1,750,000 for good roads purposes in this county will be submitted.

RESTRICTIONS ELIMINATED.

All Shares are Restored to the Active List.

Fear of Foreign Liquidation Comes to an End.

Especial Strength is Shown by Copper Group.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The unqualified success today of the first full session of open stock dealings caused the authorities of the exchange to decide to restore all shares to the list tomorrow. The issues thus placed in the open market include such internationals as Great Northern, Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, New York Central and Baltimore and Ohio, as well as other issues of speculative importance.

The action of the exchange was taken as an indication that all fear of foreign liquidation was at an end. It removed virtually all the restrictions which have been in force since July 30, except those which apply to cash dealings and sales under minimum prices. These will be continued as necessary safeguards against concerted or professional selling.

From start to finish, except for occasional wavering moments, today's movement of prices was upward, with special activity in the metal or copper group, and some of the higher-priced railways, including Reading, Lehigh and Northern Pacific. The demand for the coppers was ascribed to a variety of causes, including better trade prospects, their relatively low prices and their speculative disposition.

Long before it became known that the ban was to be lifted from the international list those shares moved up 2 to 4 points over Saturday. So far as it was possible to judge from surface conditions, Europe was in no sense a factor in the day's operations. Such selling as might have proceeded from that quarter left no impression upon quoted values. The day's business amounted to 226,000 shares, which compared favorably with the average for this period of the year.

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

Market Shows Strength Until Close, When Two Active Issues Weaken Slightly—Union Higher.

The market gave a very good account of itself yesterdap on the Stock Exchange. Features of strength developed in National Pacific and Union, although the latter was not traded in to any extent. National Pacific weakened toward the close. Los Angeles Investment was off at the opening, but then advanced to 53 cents, and later settled back two points to the early price. Union Oil stock sold at 50.00—3 points higher than the last sale on the exchange a few days ago. Opening at an advance of ¼, National Pacific sold up to 5¼ cents for a "high," and later lost ⅛ point. Associated Oil 5s were strong at 96¼. Ten shares of Union Provident sold at 48.50. Four thousand shares of United were traded in at .34⅜ off board, and 2000 shares of Mascot at .45. The latter is stronger, owing to the report that the company will begin dellivering its oil to the Standard in January.

COMMERCIAL.

Demand for dried fruit is continuing very active, and dealers are gradually advancing quotations as the demand will permit. Even peaches, which sold at a lower price than ever before known in the history of drying peaches in Southern California, have been moving upward, and another rise in the next few days is looked for. Apricots are getting a good call. Prunes, which advanced last week, are beginning to look to still higher levels. Apples are not moving as fast as most of the other fruits, for the reason that the fresh fruit is so very plentiful and is being shipped to all consuming points in the country, distribution of fresh apples being reported in a wider field in America than ever before known.

On the local market of vegetables yesterday morning several advances were reported, peas and beans both showing higher figures. Frost in some parts of Southern California was reported by producers, and this is going to mean immediate advances in numerous lines of vegetables. Summer squash showed an advance to $1.00@ 1.10 a lug box. Tomatoes were up to from 9 to 12 cents a pound, according to variety.

Receipts of eggs were 101 cases, and the local market was very firm at 38, while the northern market advanced to 44. Butter receipts were 50,430 pounds. The market was normal, and quotations on the opening of the market remained with the close of last week. Cheese was down the fractional gain of several days ago in the northern fresh variety. Receipts were 19,940 pounds.

Potatoes were in good call, and Lompoc as well as Salinas were moved a little better on the lower price existing. Receipts were 5268 sacks. Onion arrivals were 200

PORT ITEMS.

Immigration officers have not decided what to do with Rafael Quesada, a Jamaica negro who arrived here today as a stowaway on the steamer Coronal from Boston. The negro says he went to sleep on the steamer while she was being coaled at Charleston and whether he has a right to land here as a foreign port or not is a question passed to superior officers by the inspectors. The Coronal will discharge 600 tons here for the Emery line and proceed to San Francisco.

Lumber carriers arriving today were the Nanaimo from Eureka; Jeanie H. Higgins from Fort Bragg, Shoshone from Gray's Harbor, and Hoquiam from San Diego. The Higgins proceeded to San Diego with partial cargo, and the Multnomah to Portland to reload. After discharging Shoshone's cargo, The Alcatraz sailed for Greenwood in ballast.

Passenger carriers arriving were the Congress from San Diego and Yucatan from Portland, the former proceeded to Puget Sound and the Yucatan to San Diego. The Beaver sailed for San Francisco and Portland.

UNITED OIL TO PAY DIVIDEND.

Directors of the United Oil Company yesterday declared a dividend of ½ cent a share payable January 20, to stock of record January 10. This is the first disbursement in about three years, and the payment will aggregate $10,000.

A year and a half ago the company was nearly $200,000 in debt. This indebtedness has been steadily reduced from month to month, out of the earnings of the company, until the declaration of a dividend has been made possible. This is considered something of an achievement under the conditions which have prevailed in the oil business.

The present debt of the company amounts to less than $10,000, and this is partially offset by $5000 cash reserve. The management states that there will easily be $12,000 available for dividends in January, when the returns for oil are in. There will be even a larger surplus if 20,000 barrels now in storage are sold. The returns for oil and royalty profits last month amounted to over $18,000.

At the annual meeting last Saturday John R. Grant, and Ex-Judge Willis R. Morrison were elected directors, vice J. B. Hedrick and Charles Rittersbacher.

The company's stock has lately been quite strong.

ADVANCE COTTON FREIGHT RATES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

GALVESTON (Tex.) Dec. 14.—Ocean freight rates on cotton to Europe advanced sharply today to the highest on record here. On hundred pounds they are: Bremen, $3; Havre, Genoa and Barcelona, $1.15; Liverpool, $1.

Grain.

BEARS RULE WHEAT PIT.

FORCE PRICES DOWN NEARLY HALF-CENT AT CLOSE.

Unexpected Enlargement in the Domestic Visible Supply More Than Offset Strong European Cables and Weather Influences. Corn Returns Were Also Large.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Unexpected enlargement of the United States visible supply total acted as more than an offset in wheat today for an advance, due mainly to bullish cables. The market closed steady, but ¼ to ¼@⅝ under Saturday night. Other cereals, too, showed net declines, corn ⅛@¼ to ¼, and oats a shade to ⅛@⅜. Provisions gained 5 to 10. What chiefly upset the accuracy of predictions in regard to the visible supply of wheat was the fact that the report of stocks afloat at Buffalo exhibited an increase of 10,485,000 bushels, whereas the aggregate on the whole chain of lakes last week was only 7,165,000 bushels, with none at Buffalo. Rumors that the Kaiser would have to undergo a surgical operation tended further to weaken the market. As a result, prices crumbled rapidly in the last hour, and there was no sign of any important rally. Higher quotations at Liverpool had given the wheat market a decided lift at the outset. Corn, like wheat, was affected by an increase of the visible supply. At first, however, the tendency of prices was upward, in sympathy with other grain, and because of the lightness of country offerings in contrast with improved shipping demand, partly the result of zero weather emphasizing the call from feeders. Oats were swayed by the action of wheat and corn. Larger receipts of hogs failed to have much effect on the provision market.

Non-Assessable and Tax Free in California.

ASSETS AND EARNINGS BACK OF NEW STOCK.

(a) Its security rests upon a property of large value, serving with gas, electricity and water, constituting everyday necessities, the population of a territory which is large and constantly growing. This Company operates in thirty counties of Northern and Central California and does about 36 per cent. of the gas and electric business of the entire State of California. Every share of the new stock has back of it more than $100 of property value. This stock also has preference over other stock issues of the Company, which have a market value in excess of $20,000,000.

(b) The property has a large, well-proven and increasing earning capacity. It is a well recognized fact that business depressions have little influence on the earnings of public utilities of this character. In every one of the eight years since the organization of the company its earnings have been largely in excess of the amount of the annual dividends on this stock and, as shown in the foregoing table, the margin of safety during the past five years has been so large as to leave no doubt of the ability of the company to pay the dividends on this new stock regularly.

(c) The stock will have a recognized market value, thus making it available for ready cash sale or as security for loans.

We offer this stock at a minimum price authorized by the Railroad Commission and at the same price at which approximately $9,000,000 worth has been sold to our own stockholders and the public within the last five months.

Price $82.50 Per Share, Yielding 7.27%

EFFICIENCY IN ELEVATORS.

SUBJECT OF SPECIAL REPORT TO BE PRESENTED.

Warm Words Pass Over Proposed Change of Ordinance Separating Inspectors from Boiler Department—Director Burks Soon to Give Investigation Results.

Startling statements were made before a Council committee yesterday by Harold R. Hilton, chief engineer for the Central building, in regard to the local elevator situation. Mr. Hilton has been engaged recently in making an investigation for the Municipal Efficiency Commission, and it is understood his reports to this body contain statements similar in their trend to those he made yesterday.

The occasion was a hearing before the Public Welfare Committee of the Council on the proposed change in an ordinance that will provide for the separation of the position of elevator inspector from that of boiler inspector.

"More than 100 elevators in Los Angeles today have no safety devices, and yet they have been inspected by the city's representative and are allowed to run," declared Mr. Hilton.

"There isn't a man in the elevator inspection department now qualified to make elevator inspections properly. It's a disgrace the way elevators are allowed to run in this city. Not 10 per cent. of the elevators have devices whereby the boy could stop them if anything goes wrong."

Boiler-Inspector Carter was present. Some warm words followed Mr. Hilton's statement.

"You know why the situation has been as it was," said Mr. Carter, "and that I have taken steps to change conditions. I have determined that I shall run this office myself, and if I cannot do so I will get out."

Councilman Langdon, a member of the Welfare Committee, said:

"Well, Mr. Carter, we shall expect you to require safety devices on the elevators."

"They will be required," answered Mr. Carter.

The committee decided not to make its recommendation as to a separation of the two classes of duties until after it has a conference with the insurance companies that make a specialty of elevator insurance.

Municipal Efficiency Director Burks stated yesterday that the report of this commission on elevators, based on the investigation it has just completed, will be made within a short time. This is based mainly on the investigation that has been conducted by Mr. Hilton.

OPPOSITION.

DON'T LIKE TRACK PLAN.

Strong opposition has arisen against the plan of the Pacific Electric to secure a spur track permit to extend its line that now stops at the foot of Ceres avenue, across Central avenue to turn into the site of the proposed $100,000 building for the Wells-Fargo Company.

The Board of Public Utilities gave the subject a hearing in the Council chamber yesterday, at which time there were present H. V. Platt of the Southern Pacific, Chief Engineer Kuhrts of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, and Frank Karr and W. V. Hill of the Pacific Electric. Members of the Council had been invited to meet with the commission in the hearing, and several of them were present.

Councilmen oppose the proposed spur track, on the grounds that it would tend to create greater congestion in front of the new Southern Pacific station, and that the turns would be disadvantageous. They desire the tracks to be brought in at the foot of Sixth street and then to extend along back of the new station. The Los Angeles Railway Corporation also does not favor the spur track on Central avenue. But the Southern Pacific does not want the tracks back of its building, and President Shoup sent word to the commission that his company does not now intend to utilize its existing franchise for the tracks at the foot of Sixth street because of financial conditions.

The Board of Public Utilities has taken the subject under advisement, but the Wells-Fargo representatives were told by Councilman Roberts, head of the Council's Public Utilities Committee, yesterday, to go ahead with their buildings and the Council would find some way for the extension of the required service tracks. It is believed an amicable agreement will be reached during the present week.

ONE DAY'S DOINGS.

PUBLIC'S SMALLER AFFAIRS.

Protests against the change of grade of McCollum street, between Berkeley avenue and Angelica street, have been referred by the Council to the City Engineer for a report on frontage represented.

The City Tax and License Collector has been forced to ask for another appropriation of $500 to secure a new supply of badges for licensed chauffeurs and licensed passenger-vehicle seals.

The City Council has sustained the protests and abandoned the proceedings for the improvement of Meridian street, between Neva place and Pirch street, and for the improvement of the alley in the block bounded by Broadway, Hill, Ninth and Tenth streets. It has also sustained the protest against the improvement of Twenty-second street from Hoover street to Vermont avenue.

The City Council has sent to its Public Works Committee the petition of the San Pedro Improvement Association, asking for the construction of sewers in the Point Firmin district and service connections with each lot at the time the sewers are laid.

The Public Welfare Committee of the City Council yesterday recommended that the City Attorney be instructed to prepare an amendment to the ordinance governing dance halls so as to include in its provisions skating rinks. This has also been recommended by the Police Commission.

A recommendation of the Public Welfare Committee made yesterday provides for the extension of the zone within which lunch wagons on the streets are prohibited, so as to include Fifth street to the new Southern Pacific Depot, and the west side of Central avenue from Fifth street to a point 200 feet southerly.

The Board of Public Works has granted the request of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation that it be allowed to reconstruct trackage and pave its portion of Hoover street, between Fifty-first street and Slauson avenue, without grouting the ballast.

The Board of Public Works has been notified that the Santa Fe Railway has begun lowering its tracks along Slauson avenue at Figueroa and other street intersections, in accordance with a contract recently entered into with the city, whereby the storm drains under the tracks are to be constructed at municipal expense.

The Los Angeles Railway Corporation has notified the Board of Public Works that it will begin paving its portion of West Fifty-fourth street, between Figueroa and Hoover, about today, and that section lying between Normandie and Western avenues about January 15.

Dead animals help some in filling up the depleted city exchequer. A report made to the Board of Public Works yesterday shows that, under the terms of the garbage-disposal contract with C. D. Crouch, the contractor will have a bill from the city of $144 for dead animals collected from November 16 to 30, inclusive. The contractor must pay the city $3 for each large dead animal collected.

The Mercereau Bridge and Construction Company yesterday applied to the Board of Public Works for an extension of time to complete the underpinning of the Macy-street bridge. The Russel-Greene-Foell Company has completed its contract for the underpinning of the abutments and west channel piers of the Alliso-street bridge, and the work was accepted yesterday.

LUCID WITNESS ON THE GRILL.

WOMAN'S CLEAR STORY DRAWS SHARP ATTACK.

Searching Cross-examination, Featuring Allegations of Checks Paid Former Deputy District Attorney for Official Service, Holds Boards in Sensational Suit.

Mrs. Jenny H. S. Roe Tufts, whose direct testimony has been marked by a wonderful lucidity, turned to face Attorney Lightfoot's cross-examination yesterday afternoon. This promises to be most searching, in an effort to prove that imagination and not facts comprise a large portion of her evidence.

She stated in direct examination that she had positively refused to pay Francis H. Boland, who is suing her for attorney's fees, $15,000 for his services.

"I refused to give him any more than I had promised in my two wills," she said. "Mr. Boland told me he had sold my $5000 note. I said to him:

"'How did you dare to take my note you promised to attach to my will and which you could only get after my cremation?' I told him it was very wrong, and Mr. Horton, in whose office we were, said it was. He asked:

"'Is the note easy, Al?' I didn't quite understand that. It seemed to me it was embezzlement to take that note."

"What did he mean by being easy?"

"He meant I would not be sued on that note."

Mr. Boland told her that he could not live on the amount she had given him. He asked her:

"Did you think for a moment that I was living on the money you gave me?"

Mrs. Tufts said she had paid the rent of Mr. Boland's office, the salary of his stenographer and furnished the office. She said he refused to reimburse her. One day a van came to her house, and deposited the furniture without a word of thanks.

Under cross-examination she admitted she is 57. She first met Gorham Tufts, Jr., in Chicago, in 1910, at the home of her daughter, where they discussed religious matters. In January, 1911, she gave him $50 as a gift, money being more plentiful with her then, she said. She gave him in January, 1911, $5000 to assist the promotion of an airship. A photograph of the airship was on exhibit, bearing the legend:

"Mr. C. T. Parnell's airship in which $5000 of Mrs. Jenny H. S. Roe Tufts's money was invested without her knowledge."

She said that Mr. Boland had dictated the words.

The brunt of the cross-examination will fall on the checks which Mrs. Tufts testified were given to G. Ray Horton while he was in the District Attorney's office for prosecuting Mr. Tufts. Mr. Horton denies the receipt of any checks for this purpose. The full strength of the defense will bear on the so-called blank check, to show that Mr. Horton did not receive it.

COUNTY COUNSEL WINS.

WILL DEFEND SUPERVISOR.

On the ground that the American Surety Company was legally appointed to defend the suit of Percy J. Townsend against the Title Guaranty and Surety Company, bondsmen for Supervisor Hinshaw, one of the defendants in an action to recover damages for injuries suffered in the Fourth Supervisorial District, Bicksler & Smith moved in Judge Shenk's court yesterday for a substitution of attorneys.

This was opposed by County Counsel Hill, who is defending Supervisor Hinshaw. He held that the motion was asked in an action to which the American Surety Company could be a party. The court denied the motion.

Mr. Townsend, a wireless operator, was in the automobile which was driven over a cliff on the evening of June 24. He brought suit against R. D. Supelveda, who owns the property at the cliff; Supervisor Hinshaw and the Title Guaranty and Surety Company. The latter is on Mr. Hinshaw's bond for $20,000. He asks $25,520 for the injuries he suffered; $10,000 for the death of his mother, Mrs. Laura Mabel Townsend, and $5000 for the death of his sister, Laura Margaret Townsend, who were in the automobile.

The complaint alleges that the precipice was a menace and that Supervisor Hinshaw was grossly negligent in permitting the road to be without barriers, signs or notice to warn travelers of danger. Mr. Townsend drove off the road onto the property of Mr. Supelveda in the dark.

ACCUSES SISTERS

OF DEFRAUDING HER.

Since Mrs. Sarah Holst, a widow, filed suit against her sisters, Mary C. and Rebecca F. McDonough, to recover from them her interest in the estate of her mother, Mrs. Bridget McDonough, who willed all of her property to them, one of the sisters married, and was the victim of a double tragedy. The remaining sister demurred to the complaint and it was argued by Attorneys Odell and Boden, representing the defendant and plaintiff, respectively, before Judge Legerton yesterday.

Mrs. Holst alleges that a false report of her death was made by her sisters for the purpose of depriving her of an interest in the estate. Mary and Rebecca obtained a house and lot at Rock Island, Ill., valued at $4000. They disposed of it and bought a property in Pasadena, which she alleges is worth $6700.

Mrs. Holst says she was absent from home when her mother died, that they did not notify her and that she did not learn of it until several years later. Then she wrote for information, but received no reply. Finally her sisters promised to give her one-third of the estate, but failed to do so, and now she is suing to recover this share, valued at $2000. Judge Legerton sustained the demurrer with leave to amend.

MUST VOID MARRIAGE.

TO SECURE PROPERTY.

A. H. Davis, who brought a quiet title action against his wife, Ozella Davis, on the ground that she misrepresented to him that she was a marriageable woman, cannot proceed further with the action until it is determined whether or not she is his legal wife.

The story told in Mr. Davis's complaint, a demurrer to which was sustained by Judge Shenk yesterday, is to the effect that he married Mrs. Davis February 20, 1914, and lived with her as his wife until, he alleges, he learned she is the wife of E. J. Doss.

While believing she was his own wife, Mr. Davis bought a lot with his own earnings, putting the title in the names of both. He wants this declared his separate property on the ground that Mrs. Davis was not a marriageable woman and was not at any time his wife.

Judge Shenk held that it must be assumed the marriage was valid until it is set aside or a divorce granted.

NO ALIMONY.

BUT SUPPORT FOR CHILD.

Mrs. Beatrice Vanderpluym, the perfect blonde type, earns $30 a week as a society lead for the Universal Film Company. Because she makes more than her husband, Cornelius Vanderpluym, Judge Monroe yesterday in alimony proceedings would not allow alimony or attorney's fees, saying she must pay the latter herself. Mr. Vanderpluym said he earns $24 a week as an employee of the Fairchild, Gilmore, Wilton Company.

Mr. Vanderpluym, however, was ordered to pay $5 a week for the support of their 5-year-old boy. Mrs. Vanderpluym seemed satisfied with the order.

"That was what I wanted," she stated to Attorney Blakely.

STILLS TROUBLED TEMPER.

When the suit of C. S. Anderson against Section 15 Oil Company on an order to show cause was called in Judge Morrison's court yesterday, R. L. Horton and E. A. Lane, opposing attorneys, engaged in a heated argument. One said to the other, in so many words:

"I'll show you."

"You cannot do that here, gentlemen," cautioned the court. "You will have to go to 'Deacon' Anderson's elevator if you want to continue the argument."

The attorneys smiled because the court's advice recalled a recent pugilistic encounter between lawyers and the battle was off.

COURT PARAGRAPHS.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.

WIDOW'S WILL. The will of Mrs. Rebecca J. Murphy, widow of Francis Murphy, the temperance lecturer, was filed for probate yesterday by B. F. Tucker, a banker of Long Beach. The estate is valued at $6000. Mrs. Murphy died November 10 at her home in East Long Beach. She directs that her home, known as Seashell, on Belmont Heights, be sold and the proceeds given to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Johnston of Fair Oaks, Sacramento county. She gives her personal clothing to her sister, Alice E. Johnston, and her personal belongings to Charles S. Lamb of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Holmes of No. 1631 Cimarron street, her friends.

BRIBERY CHARGE.

For alleged attempted bribery of immigration inspectors, Ng Bin Bo and Ng Foo Sai were placed on trial before Judge Wellborn and a jury in the United States District Court yesterday. It is charged the men handed $40 to Inspectors Blee, Miller and Morrow to secure the release of two Chinese boys, Ng On and Louie Sam, who were arrested. The gold changed hands, it is asserted, at El Monte, September 14, 1911, and is among the exhibits in the case.

PROTECTIVE LEGISLATION.

Legislation affecting the apartment-house business in this State will be discussed today at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Los Angeles Apartment-house and Hotel Association at the offices in the Investment building, Broadway and Eighth street. Judge Craig has been invited to give the committee advice on the measures to be proposed in the Legislature. John W. Sharpe, president of the association, and other members of the committee are arranging to enlist the aid of similar associations in other cities. Much of the legislation will be of a character designed to protect apartment-house lessees from losses which they suffer through the actions of unscrupulous tenants. The Executive Committee has called a mass meeting of all apartment-house and hotel lessees to be held next Monday night in Grant Hall, Mozart Theater building, when proposed legislation and problems will be discussed.

Smudge Pots Set Out.

Secretary Barnes of the supply company stated that the firing now being done is mostly in lemon groves and exposed orange groves and is more precautionary than an actual necessity.

"By firing when the temperature is sliding down toward the danger point," said Mr. Barnes, "the grower is taking out insurance that will protect his grove from all contingencies, this side of a real, old-fashioned middle western freeze. Consequently, most of the growers very wisely fire as soon as the danger of killing frost appears anywhere near."

Though prefacing his statement by the remark that circumstances alter cases, General Manager Powell of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange asserted that when the mercury drops to 28 deg., and stays there, one can expect damage to both oranges and lemons. The latter, being the more delicate fruit, will be damaged first.

"The condition of the fruit, trees, soil, and a hundred other things have to be taken into consideration, however," said Mr. Powell. "A freeze, for instance, that is followed by a warm spell will do more damage than a plain out and out freeze, with gradual thawing, for in the first case the cell structure of the fruit is broken down suddenly and surely."

COLD "PILES UP."

That it is the accumulation of frost, rather than a sudden, sharp drop to below the freezing point, that is most to be dreaded, is the assertion of Forecaster Carpenter. Where the mercury drops downward to an apex point of cold, then rises again, the frost is repelled by the acid and sugar contents of the fruit, which take longer to be brought to a congealing point than does water. But where the mercury drops to a danger point and remains there for some hours the cold works its way into the fruit with icy feet and leaves destruction behind.

"The navel end of an orange is richest in sugar content," said General Manager Powell of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange in discussing the same subject. "The cell structure there would be broken down last."

Regarding the future in the frost line, Dr. Carpenter stated yesterday that the signs indicate frost again tonight, but that an area of high pressure now centered over the point where the State lines of Oregon, Idaho and Nevada meet, may move south and bring rising temperature and perhaps rain in its wake. Incidentally, killing frosts were reported yesterday from Red Bluff and Sacramento.

How little danger there is of a repetition of the "big freeze" of 1913-13 is shown by the Weather Bureau's report of forty-six frosts that season. This was nearly double the number occurring in any other season of which there is record and forty-six times the number of last winter. As for what might be called the "batting average" of the bureau, it is 100 per cent. on predictions, every one of the frosts having been predicted, with two or three that didn't occur.

"Threw them in to be safe," said Dr. Carpenter.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

REDLANDS, Dec. 14.—Jack Frost may lay his hand on some groves of the Redlands district tonight, but it is doubtful. A valiant effort is being made to drive him away and the growers believe it will be successful. The great danger is in the cold belt of this district, which is confined to the groves in what are known as the Gregory and Williams tracts. There early in the evening the mercury was down to 30 and before midnight the smudge fires were lighted. The government thermometer at midnight was hovering around 32, which is about two degrees colder than it was last night when no damage was done.

Growers say the trees are in good shape to withstand the cold, the moist ground and air are all considered favorable. The wind tonight is from the east with a leaning toward the south. Two years ago when the crop was hurt the mercury touched 27 at midnight, and three years ago when there was some damage, it was 29 at the same hour.

AFTERMATH ENJOYED.

There was a delightful aftermath Sunday night to the Christmas Kirmess and historical pageant recently given with marked success at Shrine Auditorium. Those who took part in the pageant were entertained by Miss Margaret Goetz at the Kosztheyi studios, No. 911½ South Hill street. She was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Neher and Misses Cora Foy and Isabel Montieth.

Nearly 200 persons attended the reception, principally artists, musicians, literary persons and actors. All joined eagerly in the spirit of the occasion, with the result that a general good time was had. The impromptu singing of songs of all nations by those present added a delightful informal touch to the whole.
